SCHEDULE 13D

This Amendment No. 5 (“Amendment No. 5”) amends the Schedule 13D filed July 16, 2003, as amended by Amendment No. 1 filed on October 13, 2004, Amendment No. 2 filed on October 19, 2004, Amendment No. 3 filed on January 3, 2005 and Amendment No. 4 filed on January 18, 2005 by Telefónica, S.A. and Brasilcel N.V.

Item 1. Security and Issuer

This Amendment No. 5 to Schedule 13D (this “Amendment No. 5”) relates to the preferred shares of Vivo Participações S.A. (“Vivo Participações”), formerly known as Telesp Celular Participações S.A. Vivo Participações is a corporation organized under the laws of the Federative Republic of Brazil. The address of its principal executive offices is Av. Roque Petroni Jr., no. 1464, 6th Floor - part, “B” building, 04707-000, São Paulo, SP, Federative Republic of Brazil, and its telephone number is +55 11 7420-1172.

Item 2. Identity and Background

This Amendment No. 5 is filed by Telefónica, S.A. (“Telefónica”), a corporation organized under the laws of the Kingdom of Spain, and Brasilcel N.V. (“Brasilcel”, and, together with Telefónica, the “Reporting Persons”), a corporation organized under the laws of The Netherlands. The principal business address for, and address of the principal office of, Telefónica is Distrito C, Ronda de la Comunicación, s/n, 28050, Madrid, Spain. Telefónica’s principal business is telecommunications. The principal business address for, and address of the principal office of, Brasilcel is Strawiskylaan, 3105, Amsterdam P7 1077ZX, The Netherlands. Brasilcel’s principal business is telecommunications.

In 2001, Telefónica Móviles, S.A. (“Telefónica Móviles”), which was at the time a majority owned subsidiary of Telefónica (as of January 2001, Telefónica held directly a 92.2% interest in Telefónica Móviles), and Portugal Telecom, SGPS, S.A. (“Portugal Telecom”) decided to combine their respective mobile assets in Brazil through a joint vehicle. In December 2002, Telefónica Móviles and Portugal Telecom transferred to Brasilcel all their direct and indirect interests in the mobile Brazilian companies they owned. After a restructuring process, such companies were merged and the resulting company was renamed as Vivo Participações.

On March 29, 2006, the respective Boards of Directors of Telefónica and Telefónica Móviles approved the merger of the two companies. On July 29, 2006, the merger of Telefónica and Telefónica Móviles was consummated. Up to July 29, 2006, Telefónica Móviles held directly the 50% interest in Brasilcel. Since that date, Telefónica has held directly, and Telefónica currently holds, the 50% interest in Brasilcel.

During the last five years, neither the Reporting Persons nor, to the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, any person named in Schedule I or Schedule II, has been (a) convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (b) a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding were or are subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

Schedules I and II are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Item 3 is amended by adding the following paragraph to the end of Item 3:

Currently, Telefónica plans to use available cash to finance approximately one-third of Increased Offer 2 (as defined under Item 4 of this Amendment No. 5) and plans to borrow funds from one or more financial institutions to finance approximately two-thirds of Increased Offer 2. At this time, Telefónica has not determined whether it will obtain such borrowed funds from existing sources of credit or new credit arrangements. Telefónica’s plans concerning the funds used to finance Increased Offer 2 are subject to change.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The Reporting Persons are filing this Amendment No. 5 in part to revise information previously reported regarding the purpose of its investment in Brasilcel. Item 4 is amended by adding the following paragraph to the end of Item 4:

Telefónica submitted on May 6, 2010 an offer (“Offer 1”) to Portugal Telecom for the acquisition of Portugal Telecom’s stake in Brasilcel for an amount of € 5,700 million. Offer 1 also contemplated that Telefónica would launch a tender offer for the ordinary shares of Vivo Participações which were not owned by Brasilcel, representing approximately 11.1% of the total number of ordinary shares and 3.8% of the total capital stock of Vivo Participações. On May 10, 2010, Portugal Telecom announced that it rejected Offer 1. Subsequently on June 1, 2010, Telefónica submitted to Portugal Telecom a new binding and unconditional offer (“Offer 2”) for an amount of € 6,500 million for the acquisition of 50% of the share capital of Brasilcel. On June 29, 2010, Telefónica submitted a letter to Portugal Telecom increasing the amount of the binding and unconditional Offer 2 to € 7,150 million for the acquisition of 50% of the share capital of Brasilcel (“Increased Offer 2”). On June 30, 2010, Telefónica extended the acceptance period for Increased Offer 2 until July 16, 2010. These offers are discussed in more detail in Item 6 below.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

Item 5(a) is amended and restated in its entirety by the following paragraphs:

(a) Each of Brasilcel and Telefónica may be deemed to be beneficial owners pursuant to the Act of 116,048,153 preferred shares of Vivo Participações that are held directly or indirectly by Brasilcel, approximately 44.1% of the outstanding preferred shares of Vivo Participações. Of the preferred shares held directly or indirectly by Brasilcel, 10,996,691 are in the form of ADSs, each of which represents 1 preferred share of Vivo Participações. However, Telefónica only owns 50% of Brasilcel. To the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, none of the persons listed on Schedules I or II beneficially owns any preferred shares of Vivo Participações.

Brasilcel directly holds 91,087,513 preferred shares, representing 34.6% of the outstanding preferred shares of Vivo Participações. The rest of Brasilcel's preferred shares in Vivo Participações are held indirectly through its wholly owned subsidiaries Portelcom Participações S.A. and TBS Participações LTDA as follows:

- Portelcom Participações S.A. holds directly 24,669,191 preferred shares, representing 9.4% of the outstanding preferred shares of Vivo Participações.

- TBS Participações LTDA holds directly 291,449 preferred shares, representing 0.1% of the outstanding preferred shares of Vivo Participações.

Each of Brasilcel and Telefónica may be deemed to be beneficial owners pursuant to the Act of 24,960,640 preferred shares of Vivo Participações held directly by Portelcom Participações S.A. and TBS Participações LTDA, which shares are included in the number of shares disclosed in the first sentence of this Item 5(a). Portugal Telecom, TMN Telecomunicações Móveis Nacionais S.A. (a wholly owned subsidiary of Portugal Telecom) and PT Móveis, SGPS, S.A. may be deemed to be beneficial owners pursuant to the Act of the shares of Vivo Participações that Brasilcel, Portelcom Participações S.A. and TBS Participações LTDA hold and may be deemed, together with Telefónica, Brasilcel, Portelcom Participações S.A. and TBS Participações LTDA, to comprise a group within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Act.

Notwithstanding the above, the Reporting Persons disclaim membership in a group within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Act.

Item 5(b) is amended by adding the following paragraph to the end of Item 5(b).

(b) Pursuant to the merger of Telefónica and Telefónica Móviles, Telefónica has succeeded to the rights and obligations of Telefónica Móviles under the Joint Venture Arrangement (including the Shareholders Agreement and the Subscription Agreement filed therewith) described in Item 6 to Amendment No. 1 to the Schedule 13D filed on October 13, 2004.

(c) Neither the Reporting Persons nor, to the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, any person on Schedule I or Schedule II has effected any transaction in the preferred shares of Vivo Participações in the past 60 days.

Item 6. Contracts, Agreements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

Item 6 is amended to add the following language at the end of Item 6:

On May 6, 2010 Telefónica submitted to Portugal Telecom an offer for the acquisition of the shares representing 50% of the capital stock of Brasilcel owned by Portugal Telecom (the “Brasilcel Shares”), for a total purchase price of € 5,700 million. Offer 1 also contemplated that Telefónica would launch a tender offer for the ordinary shares of Vivo Participações which were not owned by Brasilcel, representing approximately 11.1% of the total number of ordinary shares and 3.8% of the total capital stock of Vivo Participações. The price per ordinary share in such tender offer would be 80% of the value attributed to each ordinary share owned by Brasilcel in Offer 1, hence the total price would be approximately € 600 million. Therefore, the total amount of the transaction, considering (i) the price offered for the acquisition of the shares of Brasilcel owned by Portugal Telecom, € 5,700 million, and (ii) the price in the tender offer for the ordinary shares of Vivo Participações that are not owned by Brasilcel, approximately € 600 million, would be approximately € 6,300 million.

Offer 1 was binding and not subject to any condition, and it stated a deadline of two months from its acceptance to complete the above mentioned acquisition of the Brasilcel Shares. On May 10, 2010, Portugal Telecom announced that it rejected Offer 1.

Subsequently, on June 1, 2010, Telefónica submitted to Portugal Telecom a new binding and unconditional offer for a total amount of € 6,500 million for the acquisition of 50% of the share capital of Brasilcel. The transaction underlying Offer 2 would be carried out, at Portugal Telecom’s discretion, (i) through the acquisition of 50% of the Brasilcel Shares (“Alternative A”), or (ii) through the acquisition of one-third of the Brasilcel Shares together with the granting of a right in favor of Portugal Telecom to put (the “Put”) the remaining two-thirds of the Brasilcel Shares (to be exercised in whole or periodically in parts within a three-year period from the acquisition of the first one-third) to Telefónica (“Alternative B”).

Under Alternative A, the transfer of the Brasilcel Shares shall be executed no later than sixty days after the acceptance of Offer 2, at a global price of € 6,500 million, to be paid in cash. Under Alternative B, the transfer of one-third of the Brasilcel Shares shall be executed no later than sixty days after the acceptance of Offer 2 at a global price of €2,166.7 million, to be paid in cash (equivalent to one-third of € 6,500 million). Transfer of the remaining Brasilcel Shares shall be executed, in one or more transactions within a period of three years, no later than sixty days after the exercise of the Put by Portugal Telecom at a maximum aggregate price of € 4,333.3 million (assuming a complete exercise of the Put is made), payable in cash. After the transfer of one-third of the Brasilcel Shares under Alternative B or the transfer of the Brasilcel Shares under Alternative A, the Shareholders’ Agreement and Subscription Agreement between Portugal Telecom and Telefónica would terminate and Telefónica would be the controlling shareholder of Brasilcel. Offer 2 also contemplated that Telefónica would launch a tender offer for the ordinary shares of Vivo Participações which were not owned by Brasilcel, representing approximately 11.1% of the total number of ordinary shares and 3.8% of the total capital stock of Vivo Participações. The price per ordinary share in such tender offer would be 80% of the value attributed to each ordinary share owned by Brasilcel in the Offer 2. In response, Portugal Telecom called an extraordinary general meeting (“EGM”) of its shareholders to be held on June 30, 2010 for the purpose of voting on Offer 2.

On June 29, 2010, Telefónica submitted a letter to Portugal Telecom increasing the amount of Offer 2 to € 7,150 million for the acquisition of 50% of the Shares under Alternative A. In this same letter, Telefónica increased the amount of the binding and unconditional offer to €2,383.3 million for one-third of the shares of Brasilcel under Alternative B, and increased the amount of the binding and unconditional offer to € 4,766.7 million (assuming a complete exercise of the Put is made) for the remaining two-thirds of Brasilcel Shares held by Portugal Telecom under Alternative B. All other terms of Offer 2 apart from the increased offer prices remained the same.

On June 30, 2010, the EGM was held, and approximately 73.9% of the submitted votes corresponding to the ordinary shares were in favor of Increased Offer 2 and approximately 26.1% of the submitted votes corresponding to the ordinary shares were against Increased Offer 2. However, the government of Portugal purported to veto Increased Offer 2 with its Class A preferential shares and, as a result, Increased Offer 2 was not approved. After the EGM, on June 30, 2010, Telefónica extended the acceptance period for the Increased Offer 2 until July 16, 2010.
