Item 5. Other Events.

On January 29, 2004, American Biltrite Inc. (the "Company") and its majority-owned subsidiary K&M Associates L.P. ("K&M") entered into an amendment (the "Fleet Amendment") to its existing credit agreement (as so amended, the "Amended Credit Agreement") with Fleet National Bank ("Fleet"). Prior to the consummation of the Fleet Amendment, Citizens Bank of Massachusetts assigned its interests in and to its rights and obligations under the credit agreement to Fleet, resulting in Fleet becoming the sole lender under the credit agreement. The Fleet Amendment, among other things, amended certain financial covenants that the Company and K&M were subject to under the existing credit agreement. The amount of borrowings that may be outstanding at any time under the Amended Credit Agreement may not exceed $20 million, and this borrowing cap may be subject to reduction from time to time if the borrowing base under the Amended Credit Agreement is less than $20 million. The Amended Credit Agreement expires on December 31, 2004.

Also on January 29, 2004, the Company, K&M and The Prudential Insurance Company of America ("Prudential") entered into an amendment (the "Prudential Amendment") to the Note Purchase and Private Shelf Agreement and Facility Guarantee, dated as of August 28, 2001 (as previously amended, the "Note Purchase Agreement"). The Prudential Amendment, among other things, revised certain financial and other covenants under the Note Purchase Agreement, consistent with the amendments to the financial covenants under the Amended Credit Agreement made by the Fleet Amendment. Pursuant to the Prudential Amendment, the Company must enter into a definitive commitment by November 14, 2004 relating to the replacement or refinancing of not less than $15 million of the facilities under the Amended Credit Agreement to be effective by December 31, 2004, on terms substantially similar to the Amended Credit Agreement and with a maturity of not less than one year.

The Prudential Amendment and the Fleet Amendment are filed hereto as Exhibits 4.1 and 10.1, respectively.
