Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition

See “Item 7.01 - Regulation FD Disclosure.”

This information is not “filed” pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is not incorporated by reference into any Securities Act of 1933 registration statements. Additionally, the submission of the report on Form 8-K is not an admission of the materiality of any information in this report that is required to be disclosed solely by Item 2.02 of Form 8-K.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

Trinity Industries, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”) is in the process of completing its initial analysis of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the “Act”). Based on preliminary calculations, the Company currently estimates its financial results for the year ended December 31, 2017 will include a non-cash tax benefit of approximately $475 million resulting primarily from the remeasurement of the Company's net deferred tax liabilities to reflect the recently enacted 21% United States federal corporate income tax rate.

Given the complexity of the Act and the expected guidance from the Internal Revenue Service on the implementation of certain aspects of the Act, as well as the Company's ongoing analysis thereof, these estimates may be adjusted when the Company announces its financial results for the year ended December 31, 2017 and/or in future periods during 2018.

This information is not “filed” pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is not incorporated by reference into any Securities Act of 1933 registration statements. Additionally, the submission of the report on Form 8-K is not an admission of the materiality of any information in this report that is required to be disclosed solely by Regulation FD.

Forward-Looking Statements

Some statements in this report, which are not historical facts, are “forward-looking statements” as defined by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include statements about the Company's estimates, expectations, beliefs, intentions or strategies for the future, and the assumptions underlying these forward-looking statements, including statements regarding the effects of the Act on the Company's financial results, including any non-cash tax benefits from the remeasurement of the Company's net deferred tax liabilities. The Company uses the words “anticipates,” “assumes,” “believes,” “estimates,” “expects,” “intends,” “forecasts,” “may,” “will,” “s,” “guidance,” “outlook,” and similar expressions to identify these forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical experience or the Company's present expectations. For a discussion of such risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements, see “Risk Factors” and “Forward-Looking Statements” in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the most recent fiscal year.
