PROXY STATEMENT

Annual Meeting of Shareholders

To be Held April 27, 2004

Date, time, place and purpose of Sterling's Annual Meeting

The 2004 annual meeting of Sterling's Shareholders, including any postponements or adjournments thereof (the "Annual Meeting"), will be held at 10:00 a.m., local time, on Tuesday, April 27, 2004 at 10:00 a.m. in the Conference Theater of the Agricultural Trade Center (located in the Spokane Convention Center), 334 West Spokane Falls Boulevard, Spokane, Washington. At the meeting, Sterling's Shareholders as of the record date will be asked to elect the nominees for the Board of Directors. This Proxy Statement is first being sent to holders of Sterling common stock on or about April 1, 2004 and is accompanied by a proxy that is being solicited by the Sterling Board of Directors for use at the Annual Meeting.

Record date; outstanding shares; shares entitled to vote

Only holders of record of Sterling common stock at the close of business on the record date, March 8, 2004, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each holder of Sterling common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Sterling common stock owned as of the record date. As of the record date, there were 20,435,763 shares of Sterling common stock outstanding.

Quorum; vote required

Under Washington law, any Shareholder action at a meeting requires that a quorum exist with respect to that action. A quorum for the actions to be taken at the Annual Meeting will consist of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote, present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting. Shareholders of record, including brokers holding customers' shares of record, who are present at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy and who abstain from voting, are considered present and entitled to vote and will count toward the quorum.

If a quorum exists at the Annual Meeting, those nominees for election to the Board of Directors who receive the greatest number of affirmative votes cast for Directors will be elected as Directors. If a quorum exists, all other matters that properly come before the Annual Meeting will be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the proposed action exceeds the number of votes cast against it. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no impact on the election of Directors or other proposals. Proxies and ballots will be received and tabulated by Mellon Investor Services LLC, Sterling's transfer agent and the inspector of elections for the Annual Meeting.

Voting of proxies

The Board of Directors requests that you complete, date and sign the proxy card accompanying this Proxy Statement and promptly return the card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. Unless contrary instructions are specified, all properly signed proxies received by Sterling and not revoked before the vote at the Annual Meeting will be voted: 1) FOR the election of the five Directors nominated by the Board of Directors; and 2) in accordance with the best judgment of the proxy agents on any other matters properly brought before the Annual Meeting. If the Annual Meeting is postponed or adjourned, your proxy will still be effective and may be voted at the rescheduled meeting. You will still be able to change or revoke your proxy until it is voted.

If you own your shares in "street name," that is, through a brokerage account or in another nominee form, you must provide instructions to the broker or nominee as to how your shares should be voted. Otherwise, your shares may not be voted and will be recorded as broker non-votes. Your broker or nominee will usually provide you with the appropriate instruction forms at the time you receive this Proxy Statement. If you own your shares in this manner, you cannot vote in person at the Annual Meeting unless you receive a proxy to do so from the broker or the nominee and you bring the proxy to the Annual Meeting.

If you are a participant in Sterling's 401(k) Employment Savings and Incentive Plan and Trust, your completed proxy will serve as voting instructions to the plan trustee. However, your voting instructions must be received at least five days prior to the Annual Meeting in order to count. In accordance with the terms of the plan, if you fail to instruct the plan trustee how to vote your plan shares, the trustee will vote your plan shares in accordance with the recommendations of the 401(k) Advisory Committee.

How to revoke your proxy

You may revoke your proxy at any time by taking any of the following actions before your proxy is voted at the Annual Meeting:

delivering to Sterling a written notice bearing a date later than the date of the proxy card, stating that you revoke the proxy;

signing and delivering to Sterling a proxy card relating to the same shares and bearing a later date; or attending the meeting and voting in person, although attendance at the meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

Edgar Filing: STERLING FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form DEF 14A

Also, please note that if you have voted through your broker, bank or other nominee and you wish to change your vote, you must follow the instructions received from such entity to change your vote.

Voting electronically via Internet or telephone

A large number of banks and brokerage firms provide Shareholders whose shares are registered in the name of such firms the opportunity to vote via the Internet or by telephone. The voting form sent to a beneficial owner will provide instructions if such options are available.

Expenses of proxy solicitation

The expense of preparing, printing and mailing this Proxy Statement and the proxies solicited hereby will be borne by Sterling. Proxies will be solicited by mail and may also be solicited by directors, officers and other employees of Sterling, without additional remuneration, in person or by telephone or facsimile transmission. Sterling will also request brokerage firms, banks, nominees, custodians and fiduciaries to forward proxy materials to the beneficial owners of shares of common stock as of the record date and will reimburse such entities for the cost of forwarding the proxy materials in accordance with customary practice.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Sterling believes the proposal described herein is in the best interests of Sterling and its Shareholders and, accordingly, recommends that the Shareholders vote "FOR" the proposal listed in the Notice.

PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors currently consists of nine Directors who are divided as closely as possible into three classes. The members of each class serve three-year terms, and one class is elected annually. The Board of Directors has nominated current Directors Ned M. Barnes, James P. Fugate and Robert D. Larrabee for election as Directors to serve terms of three years ending at the annual meeting of Shareholders of Sterling in the year 2007, or when their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified. In addition, the Board of Directors has nominated current Directors Donald N. Bauhofer and William "Ike" L. Eisenhart to serve terms ending at the annual meetings of the Shareholders in the years 2005 and 2006, respectively, or when their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified.

Directors Bauhofer and Eisenhart were appointed in January 2004 to fill vacancies created by the resignations of Directors Robert E. Meyers and David O. Wallace and, pursuant to Washington law, their terms expire at the Annual Meeting. Mr. Bauhofer was selected to serve as a member of Sterling's Board of Directors pursuant to Sterling's merger agreement with Klamath First Bancorp, Inc. ("Klamath") whereby Sterling agreed to appoint one of Klamath's Directors to serve on Sterling's Board of Directors. He was recommended to the Board by the Personnel Committee and Mr. Eisenhart was recommended by the Chief Executive Officer.

Each nominee for election as a Director at the Annual Meeting has consented to serve if elected. Sterling has no reason to believe that any of the nominees will be unable to serve. Should any nominee become unable to serve as a Director for any reason, the Board of Directors shall designate a substitute nominee. Unless instructions to the contrary are specified on the proxy card, proxies will be voted in favor of the persons who have been nominated by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors recommends that Shareholders vote "FOR" the nominees.

Additionally, Directors who also serve as Directors of the subsidiaries of Sterling Savings receive a fee of $250 for each meeting attended. Directors receive reimbursement for travel and other expenses incurred in connection with Board business.

Non-Employee Directors of Sterling also receive annual grants of non-qualified stock options. Such options have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant and generally expire ten years from the date of grant. In the event that a Non-Employee Director is removed from office for cause, all options granted to such Non-Employee Director pursuant to the automatic grants of non-qualified stock options described above will expire immediately upon such removal.

The Board of Directors of Sterling held 12 meetings during 2003. Each Director attended at least 75% of such meetings and those of the Board committees on which the Director served during the year. It is Sterling's policy that members of the Board of Directors should attend all annual meetings of Shareholders except for absences due to causes beyond the reasonable control of the Directors. At the 2003 annual meeting of Shareholders of Sterling Financial Corporation, all of the Directors were in attendance.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Sterling has established Audit, Personnel and Nominating Committees.

The primary responsibilities of the Audit Committee are to oversee the integrity of Sterling's financial reporting process, including its financial statements and systems of internal controls as well as its compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. The Audit Committee reviews the independent accountants' qualifications, independence and performance and oversees and monitors the performance of Sterling's internal audit function. The Audit Committee is responsible for the retention, supervision and termination of the independent accountants and for resolving disagreements between management and the independent accountants. The independent accountants report directly to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is also responsible for reviewing the adequacy of the authority, responsibilities and functions of Sterling's internal audit department. The Audit Committee is not responsible for conducting reviews of auditing or accounting procedures. Management has primary responsibility for preparing Sterling's financial statements and for Sterling's financial reporting process. Sterling's independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. The Audit Committee serves a board-level oversight role in which it provides advice, counsel and direction to management and the independent accountants on the basis of the information it receives, discussions with the independent accountants and the experience of the Audit Committee's members in business, financial and accounting matters.

The Committee held two meetings during 2003 and currently consists of Directors Barnett (Chairman), Boone and Eisenhart, each of whom is "independent" and financially literate as required by the rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD") and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). No member of the Audit Committee has participated in the preparation of the financial statements of Sterling or its subsidiaries at any time during the past three years. The Board has determined that Director Barnett is an "audit committee financial expert" as defined by the SEC. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter reviewed and approved annually by Sterling's Board of Directors. See "Exhibit A Audit Committee Charter."

The Personnel Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to personnel policies that include, but are not limited to, officer and employee salaries and benefits. The Committee held three meetings during 2003 and currently consists of Directors Larrabee (Chairman), Fugate and Bauhofer, each of whom is "independent" as that term is defined by the rules of the NASD and the SEC.

The Nominating Committee recommends to the Board of Directors a slate of nominees for election by the Shareholders at each annual meeting of Sterling. At the request of the Board, the Committee recommends for approval by the Board, nominees to fill vacancies or new positions on the Board as they may occur or be created from time to time, all in accordance with Sterling's Bylaws. The Committee identifies potential nominees from various sources, including recommendations from Directors and officers of Sterling. The Committee will consider nominees recommended by Shareholders upon submission in writing to the Chairman of the Board of Directors the names of such nominees, together with their qualifications for service as Directors of Sterling. Individuals recommended by Shareholders are evaluated in the same manner as other potential nominees. The Committee reviews and discusses recommendations received for Director candidates and evaluates the qualifications of such candidates before selecting a slate of nominees to be recommended to the Board. Qualifications which the Committee will consider in evaluating Director candidates include contacts within Sterling's market area, skills, experience, time availability and such other criteria as the Committee shall determine to be relevant. The Committee was formed in 2004 and therefore held no meetings in 2003. It currently consists of Directors Fugate (Chairman), Larrabee and Bauhofer, each of whom is "independent" as that term is defined by the rules of the NASD and the SEC. The Nominating Committee operates under a written charter approved by Sterling's Board of Directors. Sterling's Nominating Committee Charter is publicly available on Sterling's website at <http://www.sterlingsavingsbank.com>.

Affirmative Determinations Regarding Director Independence and Other Matters

The Board of Directors has determined that each of the following Directors is an "independent director" as such term is defined by the rules of the NASD and the SEC:

Rodney W. Barnett
Donald N. Bauhofer
Thomas H. Boone
William "Ike" L. Eisenhart
James P. Fugate
Robert D. Larrabee

The Board of Directors has also determined that each member of the three committees of the Board meets the independence requirements applicable to those committees prescribed by the rules of the NASD and the SEC.

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

During the fiscal year 2003, Directors Larrabee, Fugate and Meyers served on the Personnel Committee, with Director Larrabee serving as Chairman. Director Bauhofer was appointed to the Personnel Committee in March 2004, following the resignation of Director Meyers from the Board of Directors.

Compensation Philosophy

Sterling seeks to promote a strong pay-for-performance culture by aligning compensation with Sterling's performance. Sterling's Board of Directors believes that compensation should:

relate to the value created for Shareholders by being directly tied to the financial performance and condition of Sterling and each Executive Officer's contribution thereto;

reward individuals who help Sterling achieve its short-term and long-term objectives and thereby contribute significantly to the success of Sterling;

help to attract and retain the most qualified individuals available by being competitive in terms of compensation paid to persons having similar responsibilities and duties in other companies in the same and closely-related industries; and reflect the qualifications, skills, experience and responsibilities of each Executive Officer.

The Personnel Committee, which is composed of three non-employee Directors, administers the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO") and the other Executive Officers of Sterling and its subsidiaries (the "Executive Officers"), subject to review and appropriate approval of Sterling's Board of Directors.

In determining executive compensation, Sterling uses peer group comparisons as part of its overall analysis. The Personnel Committee believes that companies operating in the banking and financial services industries are appropriate to include in its compensation analysis. Additionally, the Personnel Committee is advised from time to time by outside compensation consultants on its compensation policies.

Several factors are used to measure the performance of Sterling and its Executive Officers. In order to measure corporate financial and operating results, the Personnel Committee examines Sterling's return on equity and its earnings per share as compared to the performance of peers. Individual performance measures are designed to be reasonably attainable, under the immediate influence of the executive and related to the success of the individual.

Components of Compensation

At present, the executive compensation program is comprised of base salary, annual cash incentive compensation, long-term compensation in the form of deferred compensation and stock options and benefits typically offered to executives of similar corporations.

Base Salary. In establishing the base salaries of the CEO and the other Executive Officers, the Personnel Committee examines competitive peer group surveys and data in order to determine whether compensation is competitive with that offered by other companies in the banking and financial services industries. The Personnel Committee looks primarily at companies that are similar in terms of their size and the complexity of their operations. The Personnel Committee also takes into account Sterling's financial and operating performance as compared with the industry as a whole and considers the diverse skills required of its executive management to expand its operations while maintaining good performance. In addition, the Personnel Committee considers the particular executive's performance, responsibilities, qualifications and experience in the banking industry.

Annual Cash Incentive Compensation. Sterling maintains an Annual Cash Incentive Compensation Program. The annual component of this plan is intended to encourage and reward the achievement of (1) growth in Sterling's reported earnings and (2) targeted returns on equity.

Edgar Filing: STERLING FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form DEF 14A

These criteria are deemed by the Personnel Committee to be critical in increasing Shareholder value. The plan also is designed to assist in attracting and retaining qualified employees, to further link the financial interests and objectives of employees with those of Sterling and to foster accountability and teamwork throughout Sterling.

Long-Term Incentive Plans. The Personnel Committee believes that long-term incentive plans, such as the 2003 Long-Term Incentive Plan, provide a competitive incentive that links the achievement of financial goals and individual performance with greater Shareholder value. The purpose of these plans is to encourage the ownership of Common Stock, attract and retain qualified employees, develop and maintain strong management and employee loyalty and give suitable recognition to individuals' material contributions to Sterling's success.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. In January 2002, Sterling adopted a Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the "SERP"). The SERP is a non-qualified, unfunded plan that is designed to provide retirement benefits for certain key employees of Sterling. Depending on their classification under the Plan, participants will receive from 40% to 60% of their annual salary amount at January 1, 2002 for 10 to 15 years, beginning at normal retirement age. Retirement benefits vest at the rate of 10% per year of service. Except for participants who have completed 25 years of service, benefits are reduced for early retirement. The present value of the retirement benefits becomes 100% vested if, within three years of a change of control of Sterling, either the Plan or the participant's employment are terminated.

Deferred Compensation Plan. Sterling maintains a non-qualified Deferred Compensation Plan. As of December 31, 2003, there were eight participants in the Deferred Compensation Plan. All amounts in a participant's account become 100% vested upon a change of control; when the participant attains normal retirement age; when the employment of the participant terminates due to death or disability; or upon termination of the Plan. Prior to such an event, amounts in a participant's account vest at the rate of 10% per year of service, provided that such vesting shall reach 100% when the participant reaches the age of 60. Payment of an account may be in a lump sum or in installments as determined by the Personnel Committee, and the Committee may accelerate installments. Payment must be commenced within one year of the termination of the participant's employment with Sterling. In February 2002, Sterling Financial discontinued additional contributions to the Deferred Compensation Plan.

Compensation of CEO

During 2003, the compensation of the CEO was based on the general principles of the executive compensation program and on the CEO's Employment Agreement. In determining the salary and other forms of compensation for the Chairman of the Board and CEO, Mr. Gilkey, the Personnel Committee took into consideration Mr. Gilkey's substantial experience and standing in the industry in general and with Sterling in particular. The Personnel Committee also considered the increased responsibilities for Mr. Gilkey as a result of Sterling's diversification and growth in recent years. The Personnel Committee believes that Mr. Gilkey's compensation as CEO appropriately reflects Sterling's performance during 2003 and his contributions to that performance.

Personnel Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2003 there were no "interlocking" or cross-board memberships that are required to be disclosed under the rules of the SEC. For a general description of transactions and relationships Directors and Executive Officers and their associates may have had with Sterling and its affiliates during the year, see "Interest of Directors and Executive Officers in Certain Transactions."

Option Grants in 2003

The following table sets forth information with respect to stock options granted to the Chief Executive Officer of Sterling and the next four most highly compensated Executive Officers during 2003. Sterling has no outstanding stock appreciation rights. The amounts shown for each Named Executive Officer as potential realizable values are based entirely on hypothetical annualized rates of stock appreciation of five percent and ten percent compounded over the full ten-year terms of the options. These assumed rates of growth were selected by the SEC for illustration purposes only and are not intended to predict future stock prices, which will depend upon overall stock market conditions and Sterling's future performance and prospects. There can be no assurance that the Named Executive Officers will receive the potential realizable values shown in this table.

Employment and Change in Control Agreements

Sterling has entered into employment agreements (the "Agreements") with Messrs. Gilkey and Zuppe, which provide for annual fixed minimum salaries. The Agreements provide for incentive bonuses, non-qualified deferred compensation, long-term incentive compensation including stock options, certain perquisites, and rights to participate in other benefit programs offered or maintained by Sterling. The Agreements with Messrs. Gilkey and Zuppe expire on June 30, 2004 and August 31, 2006, respectively.

The Agreements provide for the payment of certain severance benefits to Messrs. Gilkey and Zuppe upon termination of their employment by Sterling without cause or following a constructive discharge, a notice of non-renewal or their permanent disability. Pursuant to these provisions, Mr. Gilkey and Mr. Zuppe would be entitled to receive their base salary in effect at the time of termination until the later to occur of the expiration of their Agreements or the end of a three-year period. In the event Messrs. Gilkey or Zuppe were discharged within eighteen months following a change in control of Sterling, they would be entitled to their base salaries and incentive bonuses, at the highest annual rates during their employment, for a three-year period. In addition, earned but unpaid base salary and incentive bonus amounts and amounts held for Messrs. Gilkey and Zuppe in the Deferred Compensation Plan as of the date of termination would be payable in full. Group hospitalization, health, dental care, life or other insurance, including travel, accident and disability insurance and the perquisites set forth in the Agreements would continue. Stock options granted pursuant to the Agreements would become fully exercisable during the severance period.

Sterling is the plaintiff in a lawsuit which is pending in the United States Court of Federal Claims (the "Lawsuit"). The Lawsuit is an action for damages arising out of the government's breach of its contracts with Sterling in connection with Sterling's past acquisitions of certain troubled thrift associations. In the event that a settlement or judgment amount is received by Sterling as a result of the Lawsuit, Messrs. Gilkey and Zuppe are entitled by the terms of the Agreements to receive three percent and two percent, respectively, of the gross amount received in recognition of their substantial contribution in bringing about the settlement or judgment. This provision is intended to survive the termination of the Agreements.

Sterling has entered into separate agreements (the "Executive Agreements") with each of the Named Executive Officers other than Mr. Kirschbaum and Mr. Schlenker. The term of each Executive Agreement continues until either the Board of Directors in its sole discretion or the executive in his or her sole discretion terminates the respective agreement in accordance with its terms.

Under the Executive Agreements, the Chairman and the President of Sterling determine the annual salary of the executive. Upon termination for any reason or resignation for Good Cause upon or within three years after a Change in Control (as Change in Control and Good Cause are defined in the Executive Agreements), certain executives will be paid three times and certain executives will be paid two times annual compensation, including the greater of salary and target bonus for the calendar year in which the termination occurs (if established before the termination) or salary and actual bonus for the prior calendar year (annualized if the executive was not employed by Sterling for the entire calendar year), but excluding the value of grants of stock options or restricted stock. In addition, all of the executive's outstanding, unvested options will immediately vest and become exercisable and, subject to prior approval of the Board, restrictions on all or certain grants of the executive's restricted stock will immediately lapse.

Under the terms of the Agreements and the Executive Agreements, if a change-of-control payment constitutes a "parachute payment" under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the executive is entitled to receive payment of an additional amount (the "Gross-Up Payment") within a specified period of time. Any Gross-Up Payment would be equal to the amount necessary to cause the net amount retained by the executive, after subtracting the parachute excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax") and any federal, state and local income taxes, FICA tax and excise tax on the Gross-Up Payment, to be equal to the net amount the executive would have retained had no Excise Tax been imposed and no Gross-Up Payments been paid.

Sterling establishes certain compensation arrangements with its executive officers at the time of hire. The arrangements include starting salary, bonus eligibility, initial stock option grants and relocation packages, where appropriate.

SHAREHOLDER RETURN COMPARISON

The following chart sets forth a five-year comparison of total Shareholder return on the Common Stock of Sterling compared to the NASDAQ Thrift Market Index and the Russell 2000 Index. INTEREST OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND OTHERS
IN CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

Certain of the Directors and Executive Officers of Sterling and its subsidiaries were customers of and had transactions with Sterling Savings during 2003. In addition, certain Directors and Executive Officers are officers, Directors or Shareholders of corporations or members of partnerships that were customers of or had transactions with Sterling Savings during 2003. All such transactions were in the ordinary course of business, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons, and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features. The law firm of Witherspoon, Kelley, Davenport & Toole, P.S., of which Director Ned M. Barnes is a principal, received approximately $1.6 million during 2003 for legal services rendered to Sterling and its subsidiaries, exclusive of amounts paid by customers.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

During the fiscal year 2003, Directors Barnett, Boone, Meyers and Wallace served on the Audit Committee, with Director Barnett serving as Chairman. Director Eisenhart was appointed to the Audit Committee in February 2004, following the resignations of Directors Meyers and Wallace from the Board of Directors. As more fully described in the Audit Committee Charter, the Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing Sterling's accounting and financial reporting processes, including the quarterly review and the annual audit of Sterling's consolidated financial statements by BDO Seidman, LLP ("BDO"), Sterling's independent accountants. BDO currently serves as Sterling's independent accountants and has conducted the audit of Sterling's accounts for 2003. The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 requires the Audit Committee to be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the audit work of the independent accountants. The Audit Committee has appointed BDO to serve as independent accountants to conduct an audit of Sterling's accounts for 2004. BDO has advised Sterling that it will have in attendance at the Annual Meeting one or more representatives who will be available to respond to appropriate questions presented to the Secretary of Sterling in advance of the Annual Meeting. As part of fulfilling its responsibilities, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed Sterling's audited financial statements with management. The Audit Committee has also discussed with the independent accountants the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). Finally, the Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountants required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and has discussed with the independent accountants that firm's independence.

Based on its review and discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements for 2003 be included in Sterling's 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC.

Audit Related Fees: The aggregate fees billed by BDO for audit related services rendered during 2002 and 2003 were $14,000 and $24,000, respectively. Types of services in this category were primarily audits of the employee benefit plan and consultation on accounting standards.

Tax Fees: The aggregate fees billed by BDO for tax services rendered during 2002 and 2003 were $99,595 and $89,220, respectively. Types of tax services provided by BDO primarily consisted of advice related to the preparation of Sterling's corporate tax returns and tax consulting projects.

All Other Fees: There were no other services provided by BDO during 2002 and 2003.

PRE-APPROVAL OF AUDIT AND NON-AUDIT SERVICES

It is the responsibility of Sterling's Audit Committee to pre-approve all audit and non-audit services provided by BDO. The Audit Committee has adopted a policy authorizing certain permissible audit and non-audit services to be performed by BDO with subsequent reporting and oversight required by the Audit Committee. Permissible services, not pre-approved pursuant to this policy, require specific review and approval prior to the engagement by the Audit Committee, or a designated member. Specific pre-approval of such permissible services with estimated fees of $2,500 or less may be waived via the de minimis exception rule. Procedures are in place to ensure the Audit Committee Chairman is notified in the event the de minimis rule is used. All services rendered by and fees paid to BDO are reported to and monitored quarterly by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee considers whether the provision of related audit services are compatible with maintaining the independent accountant's independence. To assist the Audit Committee in its oversight responsibilities, the pre-approval policy identifies the three basic principles of independence with respect to services provided by the independent accountants as well as the non-audit services the independent accountants are prohibited from providing.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

It is presently anticipated that the 2005 annual meeting of Shareholders of Sterling will be held on Tuesday, April 26, 2005. In order for any Shareholder proposal to be considered for inclusion in the proxy materials of Sterling for the annual meeting on April 26, 2005, such proposal must be submitted, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC, in writing to the Secretary of Sterling at Sterling's corporate offices by November 12, 2004.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Edgar Filing: STERLING FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form DEF 14A

Under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the regulations thereunder, Sterling's Directors, Executive Officers and beneficial owners of more than 10% of any registered class of Sterling equity securities are required to file reports of their ownership of Sterling's securities and any changes in that ownership with the SEC. Based solely on its review of copies of these reports and on written representations from such reporting persons, Sterling believes that during 2003 such filing requirements were complied with, except that, due to technical difficulties with the SEC electronic filing system, the following officers and directors each had one filing on Form 4 that was not received by the SEC until the day following the filing deadline: William R. Basom; Daniel G. Byrne; Harold B. Gilkey; John M. Harlow; James L. Kirschbaum; Stephen L. Page; William W. Zuppe; Ned M. Barnes; Rodney W. Barnett; Thomas H. Boone; James P. Fugate; Robert D. Larrabee; Robert E. Meyers; and David O. Wallace.

STERLING FINANCIAL CORPORATION

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. ORGANIZATION

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Sterling Financial Corporation ("Sterling") has adopted this Audit Committee Charter (the "Charter") establishing the authority and responsibility of the Audit Committee of Sterling's Board (the "Committee"). The Committee shall be comprised solely of independent directors of Sterling, selected and approved by the Board to serve on the Committee. The Committee shall maintain free and open communication with the Board, the external auditors, the internal auditors and the financial management of Sterling. The Charter shall be reviewed annually by the Board.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities for: (1) the integrity of Sterling's financial statements; (2) Sterling's compliance with applicable laws and regulations; (3) the independent auditor's performance, qualifications and independence; and (4) the performance of Sterling's internal audit function.

III. COMPOSITION, INDEPENDENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

The Committee shall be comprised of three or more directors appointed by the Board, each of whom shall be an independent director. Each member of the Committee must be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a company's balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement, or must become able to do so within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Committee. At least one member of the Committee must have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting or any other comparable experience or background which results in sufficient financial sophistication for the individual to be designated by the Board as an "audit committee financial expert" as that term is defined by applicable regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

An independent director shall be defined as a person other than an officer or employee of Sterling or its subsidiaries or any other individual having a relationship which, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director. The following persons shall not be considered independent:

A director who is employed by Sterling or any of its affiliates for the current year or any of the past three years;

A director who accepts any compensation from Sterling or any of its affiliates in excess of $60,000 during the previous fiscal year, other than compensation for Board service, benefits under a tax-qualified retirement plan, or non-discretionary compensation;

A director who is a member of the immediate family of an individual who is, or has been in any of the past three years, employed by Sterling or any of its affiliates as an executive officer. Immediate family includes a person's spouse, parents, children, siblings, mother-in-law, father-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law and anyone who resides in such person's home;

A director who is a partner in, or a controlling shareholder or an executive officer of, any for-profit business organization to which Sterling made, or from which Sterling received, payments (other than those arising solely from investments in Sterling's securities) that exceed

5% of Sterling's or the business organization's consolidated gross revenues for that year, or $200,000, whichever is more, in any of the past three years; or

A director who is employed as an executive of another entity where any of Sterling's executives serve on that entity's compensation committee.

The Committee members shall promptly inform the Board of any fact or circumstance that may impair their independence. The independence criteria shall be reviewed annually by the Board.

IV. RESPONSIBILITY

A. Oversight of the Independent Audit Process

Edgar Filing: STERLING FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form DEF 14A

The Committee, in its capacity as a committee of the Board, shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of any registered public accounting firm (including resolution of disagreements between management and the auditor regarding financial reporting) engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for Sterling. Each such registered public accounting firm must report directly to the Committee. The Committee shall:

Review and approve the proposed audit plan of the independent auditors for the annual audit of Sterling's financial statements, including scope, fees and qualifications;

Review the performance of the independent auditors annually, and exercise final approval on the appointment or discharge of the auditors;

Review and discuss with the independent auditors annually the auditor's written disclosure of any relationships with Sterling and its subsidiaries which could affect the auditor's independence as required by Standard No. 1 of the Independence Standards Board, as may be modified or supplemented, to ensure the independence of the auditors;

Review and discuss with management and the independent auditors, prior to filing with the SEC, the annual and quarterly reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q. Review and discuss with management the type of information to be contained in the earnings press releases;

Recommend to the Board, prior to filing of Sterling's annual report on Form 10-K with the SEC, whether the audited financial statements should be included in the Form 10-K;

Review and discuss with management and the independent auditors the audited financial statements, the required communication to the Committee, the assessment of internal controls and the recommendations to management as presented by the independent auditors;

Review and approve, as appropriate, all permissible non-audit services and all audit, review and attest engagements to be performed by the independent auditors as required by applicable law. Prior approval may be accomplished by pre-established policy for routine services. Other services will require specific pre-approval. All services shall be reported at the next scheduled Committee meeting; and

Discuss with the independent auditors any matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as modified or supplemented, and review with the independent auditors any problems or difficulties relating to the audit and management's response to such matters.

B. Oversight of the Effectiveness of Management's System of Internal Controls and the Internal Audit Function

The Committee shall meet not less than two times a year and review the effectiveness of management's system of internal controls. The Internal Audit Manager shall report directly to the Committee and provide the Committee with assessments of Sterling's adherence to various policies and procedures and regulatory requirements. The Committee Chairman shall report to the Board in summary the content of any Committee meeting with the Internal Audit Manager.

The Committee shall monitor risk to Sterling through review and approval of the Annual Risk Assessment of Auditable Areas as submitted by the Internal Audit Manager. Audits are to be scheduled according to the risk assessment with results and management's responses being reported to the Committee.

C. Receipt, Retention and Treatment of Complaints

Edgar Filing: STERLING FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form DEF 14A

The Committee shall establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by Sterling regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and for confidential, anonymous submission by Sterling employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

D. Related Party Transactions

The Committee shall conduct an appropriate review of all related party transactions, for potential conflict of interest situations on an ongoing basis. Related party transactions shall refer to transactions required to be disclosed pursuant to applicable SEC regulations and NASDAQ listing standards. Related party transactions shall not be permitted unless approved by the Committee or another independent body of the Board.

E. Engagement of Advisors

The Committee shall have the authority to engage independent counsel and other advisors as it determines necessary to carry out its duties.

F. Funding

Sterling shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, in its capacity as a committee of the Board, for payment of:

Compensation to any registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for Sterling;

Compensation to any independent counsel and other advisors employed by the Committee as it determines necessary to carry out its duties; and Ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

V. RECORDKEEPING REQUIREMENTS

Minutes of the Committee meetings will be retained in the Corporate Office of Sterling. Materials presented to the Committee will be retained in the Internal Audit Department.
