This meeting has been called to amend Gaiam's Articles of Incorporation to allow certain shareholder actions in accordance with changes made in the Colorado Business Act, more specifically:

1. to authorize an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to provide that any action of shareholders that would otherwise require a shareholders' meeting may be taken by the written consent of the required minimum number of shareholders without a meeting; and
2. to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting, or any adjournment(s) or postponement(s) thereof.

Gaiam's board of directors has fixed the close of business on Tuesday, April 25, 2006, as the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. A complete list of shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting will be available for inspection by any shareholder of Gaiam prior to the meeting, upon written request showing a proper purpose, during normal business hours at Gaiam's Broomfield, Colorado office. Only shareholders of record on the April 25, 2006 record date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof.

PROXY STATEMENT

SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD ON JUNE 22, 2006

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card are being furnished to the shareholders of Gaiam, Inc. in connection with the solicitation of proxies by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of Gaiam for use at its special meeting of shareholders to be held on Thursday, June 22, 2006, starting at 9:30 a.m. at Hotel Boulderado, 2115 13th Street, Boulder, Colorado 80302, and at any adjournment(s) or postponement(s) thereof.

PURPOSE OF SPECIAL MEETING

At the special meeting, shareholders will be asked: (i) to authorize an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to provide that any action of shareholders that would otherwise require a shareholders' meeting may be taken by the written consent of the required minimum number of shareholders without a meeting; and (ii) to transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Our Board recommends a vote FOR the proposal listed herein.

QUORUM AND VOTING RIGHTS

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding votes eligible to be cast by our Class A and Class B Common Stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the special meeting. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on the record date, Tuesday, April 25, 2006, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 15,358,378 shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $.0001, and 5,400,000 shares of Class B Common Stock, par value $.0001, outstanding and entitled to vote. Holders of Class A Common Stock as of the record date are entitled to one vote for each share held and holders of Class B Common Stock as of the record date are entitled to ten votes for each share held. The holders of the Class A and Class B Common Stock will vote together. Once a quorum is present, action on a matter will be approved if the votes cast favoring the proposal exceed the votes cast opposing the proposal.

Mr. Jirka Rysavy, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, holds all 5,400,000 outstanding shares of Class B Common Stock and 1,664,000 shares of Class A Common Stock (or approximately 11% of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock). These shares are sufficient to constitute a quorum and to approve the proposal, and Mr. Rysavy has indicated that he plans to be present at the meeting and vote in favor of the proposal.

All shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies will, unless the proxies have previously been revoked, be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated in the proxies. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the result of the vote, although they will count towards the presence of a quorum. Any shareholder executing a proxy has the power to revoke the proxy at any time prior to its exercise. A proxy may be revoked prior to exercise by (a) filing with Gaiaam a written revocation of the proxy, (b) appearing at the special meeting and voting in person, or (c) submitting to Gaiaam a duly executed proxy bearing a later date.

The cost of preparing, printing, assembling and mailing this Proxy Statement and other material furnished to shareholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies will be borne by Gaiaam. In addition, officers, directors and regular employees of Gaiaam may solicit proxies by written communication, telephone or telegraph. These persons will receive no special compensation for any solicitation activities.

IT IS THE INTENTION OF THE AGENTS DESIGNATED IN THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD TO VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL BELOW. JIRKA RYSAVY, WHO HOLDS APPROXIMATELY 11% OF THE OUTSTANDING SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK AND 100% OF THE OUTSTANDING SHARES OF CLASS B COMMON STOCK, HAS INFORMED GAIAM THAT HE INTENDS TO VOTE HIS SHARES IN FAVOR OF THE PROPOSAL SET FORTH IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT.

PROPOSAL AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Effective April 22, 2005, the Colorado Business Corporation Act (the "CBCA") was amended to provide that a required minimum number of shareholders could take actions without a meeting under certain circumstances. Under Section 7-107-104 of the CBCA, as amended, if expressly permitted by the articles of incorporation of a company, the shareholders holding the required number of shares may consent to an action in writing without the need to hold a meeting. The shareholders signing the consent must have the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take action at a meeting at which all of the shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

A majority of states in which public companies are organized include similar provisions permitting action by less than unanimous written consent of shareholders. The purpose of these provisions is to streamline the corporate governance process and eliminate the need to incur the unnecessary expense associated with convening special meetings of shareholders.

Gaiaam's Articles of Incorporation currently do not allow for action by written consent of shareholders entitled to vote on matters requiring their approval. Gaiaam's Board of Directors has adopted a resolution, subject to shareholder approval, to amend our Articles of Incorporation to provide that shareholders holding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take action at a meeting at which all of the shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted may consent to such action in writing as permitted by Section 7-107-104 of the CBCA, as amended.

If the proposed amendment is approved by Gaiaam's shareholders, Article IV, Section F of Gaiaam's Articles of Incorporation would read as follows, with the addition of the second sentence quoted below:

F. Quorum and Voting Requirements. At all meetings of the shareholders, the holders of a majority of the votes eligible to be cast shall constitute a quorum. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes eligible to be cast on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders unless the vote of a greater number or voting by groups is required by the Colorado Business Corporation Act or these Articles. Any action required or permitted by Articles 101 to 117 of the Colorado Business Corporation Act to be taken at a shareholders meeting may be taken without a meeting if shareholders holding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all of the shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted consent to such action in writing.

Any solicitation to obtain written consents of the shareholders under the new provision would be required to comply with the proxy solicitation requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the related regulations of the SEC. In addition, the Exchange Act and related regulations would require that an information statement describing the action to be taken and explaining the reasons for such action, as well as its consequences, be sent to shareholders at least twenty (20) calendar days prior to the earliest date on which the action may be taken. Finally, Colorado law further requires that prompt written notice of any action taken by written consent of the shareholders shall be sent to those stockholders that have not given their written consent and who otherwise would have been entitled to vote on the action.

The Board believes that permitting action by less than unanimous written consent of shareholders will streamline the corporate governance process by eliminating unnecessary costs and delays associated with holding special shareholders meetings and by eliminating the expense and delays associated with obtaining unanimous written consent. The Board believes that adoption of the proposed amendment is in the best interest of Gaiaam and its shareholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO APPROVE THE AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
