Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Any statements in this communication about WestRock s and KapStone s expectations, beliefs, plans or forecasts, including statements regarding KapStone s expectation that the pending acquisition with WestRock will close on November 2, 2018, that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements. These statements are typically identified by words or phrases such as may, will, could, should, would, anticipate, estimate, expect, project, intend, plan, believe, target, prospects, potential and forecast, and other words, terms and phrases of similar meaning. Forward-looking statements involve estimates, expectations, projections, goals, forecasts, assumptions, risks and uncertainties. WestRock and KapStone caution readers that a forward-looking statement is not a guarantee of future performance, and actual results could differ materially from those contained in forward-looking statements. Among the key factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements are the following: the parties ability to consummate the transaction; the conditions to the completion of the transaction; and the parties ability to meet expectations regarding the timing, completion and accounting and tax treatments of the transaction. Additional information and other factors are contained in WestRock s and KapStone s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ( SEC ). Because the factors referred to above could cause actual results or outcomes to differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements made by WestRock or KapStone, you should not place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements. Further, any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of this communication, and WestRock and KapStone undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after such date, except as required by applicable law.
