Section 1 – Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On August 31, 2009, NovaMed, Inc. entered into a Seventh Amended and Restated Credit Agreement with National City Bank, as agent and lender, sole bookrunner and sole lead arranger, Bank of America, N.A., as syndication agent and lender, TD Banknorth and Siemens Financial Services, Inc., as co-documentation agents and lenders, and First Merit Bank as the other participating lender.

The maximum commitment available under the amended and restated credit agreement is $80 million, consisting of a $50 million revolving credit facility and a $30 million term loan facility. The amended and restated credit agreement extends the expiration date of the existing credit facility to December 15, 2011. However, if we repay or refinance our 1.0% Convertible Senior Subordinated Notes due June 15, 2012 prior to December 15, 2011, the expiration date of the amended and restated credit agreement will be extended to August 30, 2012. We will continue to use the credit facility for acquisitions and general corporate purposes.

Maximum borrowing availability and applicable interest rates under the amended and restated credit agreement are calculated based on two ratios, one of our total indebtedness to our earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) (the total leverage ratio), and a second ratio of our total senior debt to EBITDA (the senior leverage ratio), all as more fully defined in the amended and restated credit agreement. The amended and restated credit agreement provides for an initial total leverage ratio of 5.0 times, decreasing to 4.75 times for the fiscal quarter ending December 31, 2009, 4.25 times for the fiscal quarter ending December 31, 2010 and 4.0 times for the fiscal quarter ending December 31, 2011 and thereafter. The initial senior leverage ratio is 2.5 times, decreasing to 2.25 times for the fiscal quarter ending December 31, 2010 and thereafter.

Interest on borrowings under the amended and restated credit agreement is payable at an annual rate equal to either (i) LIBOR plus a range from 2.75% to 5.00% or (ii) our lender’s published base rate plus the applicable borrowing margin ranging from 0.75% to 3.00%, in each case varying depending upon the ratio of our total indebtedness to EBITDA.

The amended and restated credit agreement continues to contain covenants that include limitations on indebtedness, liens, capital expenditures, acquisitions, investments and share repurchases, as well as restrictions on the payment of dividends. The credit facility continues to be secured by substantially all of our assets and the capital stock of our subsidiaries and continues to be guaranteed by all of our wholly-owned subsidiaries.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Seventh Amended and Restated Credit Agreement which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
