News release
Converium Holding Ltd, Zug

Zug, Switzerland - April 27, 2007 - Converium welcomes ISS, Glass Lewis &
Co. and Ethos recommendations of approval of all tabled AGM proposals

Edgar Filing: CONVERIUM HOLDING AG - Form 6-K

Converium welcomes the conclusions of Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), which has recommended that shareholders approve all seven tabled proposals at the Company's Annual General Meeting (AGM), scheduled for May 10, 2007. All agenda items have been scheduled by Converium.

Amongst the proposals to be voted on at the AGM, ISS recommends approval of a reduction of the par value of Converium's registered shares from CHF 5 to CHF 2.50, with the subsequent payment to shareholders by mid-July 2007. The ISS acknowledges the potential to return capital to shareholders and better leverage Converium's balance sheet through the issuance of USD 500 million of hybrid debt, as part of the Company's road map aimed at generating a sustainable 14% return on equity by 2009.

ISS further states that none of the voting resolutions at Converium's AGM relate to SCOR's bid.

The guidance of ISS is in line with those of Glass Lewis & Co., which also endorses all seven tabled AGM proposals. ISS and Glass Lewis are independent providers of proxy voting advice to the international investment community. The leading advisor in Switzerland on sustainable development principles and corporate governance best practice in investment activities, Ethos, Swiss Foundation for Sustainable Development, equally endorses all proposals.

Important Disclaimer

This document contains forward-looking statements as defined in the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. It contains forward-looking statements and information relating to the Company's financial condition, results of operations, business, strategy and plans, based on currently available information. These statements are often, but not always, made through the use of words or phrases such as 'seek to', 'expects', 'aims' 'should continue', 'believes', 'anticipates', 'estimates' and 'intends'. The specific forward-looking statements cover, among other matters, the Company's strategy and management objectives, the reinsurance market, the Company's operating results and SCOR's hostile tender offer. Such statements are inherently subject to certain risks and uncertainties. Actual future results and trends could differ materially from those set forth in such statements due to various factors. Such factors include whether we are able to secure an upgrade of our financial strength ratings; our ability to refinance our outstanding indebtedness and increase our use of hybrid capital; uncertainties of assumptions used in our reserving process; risk associated with implementing our business strategies and our capital improvement measures; cyclicalities of the reinsurance industry; the occurrence of natural and man-made catastrophic events with a frequency or severity exceeding our estimates; acts of terrorism and acts of war; changes in economic conditions, including interest and currency rate conditions that could affect our investment portfolio; actions of competitors, including industry consolidation and development of competing financial products; a decrease in the level of demand for our reinsurance or increased competition in our industries or markets; our ability to expand into emerging markets; our ability to enter into strategic investment partnerships; a loss of our key employees or executive officers without suitable replacements being recruited within a suitable period of time; our ability to address material weaknesses we have identified in our internal control environment; political risks in the countries in which we operate or in which we reinsure risks; the passage of additional legislation or the promulgation of new regulation in a jurisdiction in which we or our clients operate or where our subsidiaries are organized; the effect on us and the insurance industry as a result of the investigations being carried out by the US Securities and Exchange Commission, New York's Attorney General and other governmental authorities; our ability to regain past customers following any rating upgrades and the resolution of the investigations being carried out by the US Securities and Exchange Commission, New York's Attorney General and other governmental authorities; changes in our investment results due to the changed composition of our invested assets or changes in our investment policy; failure of our retrocessional reinsurers to honor their obligations or changes in the credit worthiness of our reinsurers; our failure to prevail in any current or future arbitration or litigation; and extraordinary events affecting our clients, such as bankruptcies and liquidations, and other risks and uncertainties, including those detailed in the Company's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (including, but not limited to, our Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission) and the SWX Swiss Exchange. The Company does not assume any obligation to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
