PART III

NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed in the Registrant's Forms 12b-25 filed on December 15, 2005, February 10, 2006 and May 11, 2006, while preparing its financial statements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2005, the Registrant discovered a number of accounting errors. The Company is finalizing, but has not yet completed, its analysis of the final impact on financial results for fiscal year 2005, financial results for the first and second quarters of fiscal 2006, and on previously reported periods. As a result, the Registrant was not able to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2005 or its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended December 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006 within the prescribed time periods. Also, as anticipated, Tier will not be able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2006 in the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed, the Registrant expects to restate its financial results for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2002, 2003 and 2004 and for the fiscal year 2005 quarters, as needed. The Registrant is working diligently to file its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2005 and the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal period ended December 31, 2005, March 31, 2006 and June 30, 2006.

PART IV

OTHER INFORMATION

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Registrant Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).

" Yes x No

Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2005.

Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended December 31, 2005.

Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2006.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

x Yes " No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Currently, the Registrant expects revenues for the quarter ended December 31, 2005 to be $38.5 million, a 21% increase over the same quarter in the prior year and expects the revenues for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 to be $38.3 million, an 8% increase over the same quarter in the prior year. The Registrant expects revenues for the quarter ended June 30, 2006 to be $57.0 million, a 15% increase over the same quarter in the prior year. These results reflect the restatement adjustments that the Company expects to make to the results for the previously reported periods in fiscal year 2005. The Registrant notes, however, that the results reported herein could change, as a result of the aforementioned restatement activities. Although the Company is nearing completion of its restatement, the Company is not yet able to provide final financial results compared to the prior-year period.

The financial results discussed herein are preliminary and have not been finalized by the Registrant. They are based on information available to management at the date of this filing, and could change materially when the Registrant reports its audited financial results for prior fiscal years and unaudited financial results for the quarters ended December 31, 2005, March 31, 2006 and June 30, 2006.
