FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Acorn International Announces Appointment of New Director

SHANGHAI, China, April 7, 2011 Acorn International, Inc. (NYSE: ATV) ( Acorn or the Company ), a leading integrated multi-platform marketing company in China engaged in developing, promoting and selling consumer products and services through its extensive distribution network, today announced that its board of directors has appointed Mr. Jing Wang as Director of the Company, effective immediately. Mr. Wang was also appointed as a member of the compensation committee. According to the Company's Articles of Association, Mr. Wang will hold office until the Company's next annual general meeting and will be eligible for re-election at such meeting.

Mr. Wang's extensive experience in China's internet industry is crucial to our business, particularly after our recent repositioning of the Company, commented the Executive Chairman of the board, Mr. Robert Roche. We welcome Mr. Wang to join the board of the Company and expect to leverage on his expertise to further enhance our business operations, said Mr. Don Yang, Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company.

Mr. Wang currently serves as VP of engineering at Baidu Inc., a leading Chinese language internet search provider, where he is responsible for engineering strategies in the areas of infrastructure, mobile and monetization. From 2006 to 2010, Mr. Wang served as site director of Google China in Shanghai where he was a key member of the cross-functional senior management team responsible for setting monetization strategies and priorities in China. Mr. Wang was general manager of eBay China Development Center from July 2004 until August 2006. Mr. Wang holds a master's degree in computer science from the University of Science and Technology of China and a master's degree in computer science from the University of Florida.
