(3) On June 13, 2012, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Jean Clifton, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. The summary of the employment agreement that appears below does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the employment agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, and the terms of which are incorporated by reference herein in their entirety.

The term of Clifton 's employment agreement is for three years, commencing June 25, 2012. If the Company determines not to extend Clifton 's employment agreement, the Company shall provide notice of such non-renewal to Clifton no later than the 90th day prior to the stated termination date. Unless otherwise terminated pursuant to such notice, if Clifton continues to be employed beyond the stated expiration date, the employment agreement will be deemed to continue for an additional three-year term. The base salary for Clifton is $475,000 and she is eligible for an annual discretionary bonus of up to half her base salary, or $237,500 (such amount, the target annual bonus); provided that in 2012 she will receive a minimum guaranteed bonus of $86,305 (the pro rata portion of $166,250). In future years, 70% of Clifton 's target annual bonus shall be calculated based upon the achievement of certain financial objectives as determined by the Board (which shall be the same as the financial objectives utilized in the bonus calculations for each of the co-Chief Executive Officers) and the remaining 30% of such annual bonus shall be calculated based upon the achievement of Management by Objectives, as determined by the Board in consultation with Clifton. Clifton will receive a $25,000 annual commutation allowance (to be paid in full to the extent not used). Clifton is also eligible for discretionary annual equity awards at the discretion of the Compensation Committee or its designee.

In the event of a termination of Clifton's employment by the Company other than for cause or by Clifton for good reason (each such term as defined in her employment agreement), Clifton will receive: (1) continued payment of her base salary for fifteen (15) months, payable in accordance with equal periodic installments, (2) accrued and unpaid base salary and unreimbursed business expenses (including the $25,000 commutation allowance); (3) the 2012 guaranteed bonus if Employee is terminated prior to payment thereof; (4) a pro rata portion of the actual performance bonus that would have been paid to her (as determined by the Compensation Committee) for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs; (5) then current entitlement, if any, under the Company's employee benefit plans and programs, and (6) continued coverage under COBRA for fifteen (15) months after termination (or such earlier time as Clifton ceases to be eligible for COBRA or becomes eligible for coverage under the health insurance plan of a subsequent employer). In the event of a termination by the Company for cause or by reason of death or disability, Clifton would be entitled to the payments listed in clauses (2) - (5) above. Payment of these amounts and benefits are contingent on Clifton executing a fully effective waiver and general release.

If Clifton is terminated, she may not compete with the Company or its affiliates or solicit employees or customers of the Company or its affiliates for a Restricted Period. The Restricted Period shall be a period equal to the remainder of the term of Clifton's employment agreement plus the period for which Clifton receives severance after the date of termination.

In connection with Clifton's appointment, the Company's Compensation Committee has approved an award to Clifton on June 25, 2012 (her start date) of a stock option to purchase 650,000 shares of Company Class A common stock. Such option will vest in equal one-quarter (1/4) increments on June 25, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016. The stock option was issued pursuant to the Company's 2011 Stock Option Plan (the 2011 Plan). Upon a change in control, in accordance with the terms of the 2011 Plan and the corresponding stock option agreement, all of Clifton's outstanding equity awards will become fully vested and immediately exercisable and shall remain exercisable for such period as set forth in Section 7A of the stock option agreement.
