Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Term Loan Credit Agreement

On May 25, 2011, the company formerly known as Envision Healthcare Corporation (the Prior Envision Borrower), a wholly owned subsidiary of Envision Healthcare Holdings, Inc. (Holdings) prior to the consummation of the Mergers (as defined below), entered into a Term Loan Credit Agreement (as amended from time to time, the Term Loan Credit Agreement) with Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch, as administrative agent and collateral agent, and the other financial institutions and lenders from time to time party thereto, providing for a senior secured term loan facility (the Term Loan Facility). In connection with the consummation of the Mergers, Envision Healthcare Corporation (formerly known as New Amethyst Corp., the Company) became the Borrower (as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement) under the Term Loan Facility. The Term Loan Facility consists of a senior secured term loan credit facility in the aggregate principal amount of up to $3,495 million. Immediately prior to the Mergers, on December 1, 2016, the Term Loan Facility was comprised of (i) a term loan tranche in the aggregate principal amount of $1,266 million that was scheduled to mature on May 25, 2018 (the Initial Term Loans) and (ii) a term loan tranche in the aggregate principal amount of $993 million that was scheduled to mature on November 12, 2022 (the Tranche B-2 Term Loans). On December 1, 2016, the Borrower entered into a Seventh Amendment to Term Loan Credit Agreement (the Seventh Amendment), pursuant to which it incurred a term loan tranche in the aggregate principal amount of $3,495 million that matures on December 1, 2023 (the Tranche C Term Loans), made certain other modifications to terms of the Term Loan Facility and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. replaced Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch as administrative agent and collateral agent. The Term Loan Credit Agreement provides the right for individual lenders to extend the maturity date of their loans upon the request of the Borrower and without the consent of any other lender. The proceeds of the Tranche C Term Loans were used to repay in full the Initial Term Loans and the Tranche B-2 Term Loans.

Subject to specified conditions, without the consent of the then existing lenders (but subject to the receipt of commitments), the Term Loan Facility may be expanded (or a new term loan facility or revolving credit facility added) by up to (i) $1,300 million plus (ii) an additional amount as will not cause the net first lien leverage ratio after giving effect to the incurrence of such additional amount to exceed 4.0:1.0, as calculated pursuant to the Term Loan Facility.

The Tranche C Term Loans under the Term Loan Facility bear interest initially at a rate equal to (i) LIBOR, plus 3.00% per annum, or (ii) the alternate base rate, which will be the highest of (w) the prime rate established by the administrative agent from time to time, (x) 0.50% in excess of the greater of (1) the overnight federal funds rate or (2) the composite overnight federal funds and overnight LIBOR rate, (y) the one-month LIBOR rate (adjusted for maximum reserves) plus 1.0% per annum and (z) 1.75% per annum, plus, in each case, 2.00% per annum.

The Term Loan Facility contains customary representations and warranties and customary affirmative and negative covenants. The negative covenants contain limitations on the following, subject to customary exceptions: the incurrence of additional indebtedness; payment of dividends on, redemption or repurchase of stock or making of other distributions in respect of our capital stock; making investments; repurchase, prepayment or redemption of junior indebtedness; agreeing to payment restrictions affecting the ability of our restricted subsidiaries to pay dividends to us or make other intercompany transfers; incurrence of additional liens; transfer or sale of assets; consolidation, merger, sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of our assets; entering into certain transactions with affiliates; designating any of our subsidiaries as unrestricted subsidiaries; and making of negative pledges. There are no financial covenants included in the Term Loan Credit Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Seventh Amendment does not purport to be a complete description and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text thereof, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.

ABL Credit Agreement

On May 25, 2011, the Prior Envision Borrower entered into an ABL Credit Agreement (as amended from time to time, the ABL Credit Agreement) with Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch, as administrative agent and collateral agent and the other financial institutions and lenders from time to time party thereto, providing for an asset-based revolving credit facility (the ABL Facility and, together with the Term Loan Facility, the Credit Facilities). In connection with completion of the Mergers, on December 1, 2016, the Company became and, at the option of the Company, any of the Company's domestic wholly-owned subsidiaries may be, a borrower (collectively, the ABL Borrower) under the ABL Facility. On December 1, 2016, the ABL Borrower entered into a Third Amendment to ABL Credit Agreement (the Third Amendment), pursuant to which all outstanding loans under the ABL Facility were repaid, the ABL Facility was increased to provide for an asset-based revolving credit facility in the amount of up to $850.0 million, subject to borrowing base availability, and letter of credit and swingline sub-facilities and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. became co-collateral agent. Amounts are available under the ABL Facility in U.S. dollars. In addition, subject to certain terms and conditions, the ABL Borrower is entitled to request additional revolving credit commitments or term loans under the ABL Facility, which share in the borrowing base, up to an amount such that the aggregate amount of ABL commitments does not exceed $1,350 million. The final maturity date of the ABL Facility is December 1, 2021. The ABL Credit Agreement provides the right for individual lenders to extend the maturity date of their commitments and loans upon the request of the ABL Borrower and without the consent of any other lender.

The borrowing base is defined in the ABL Credit Agreement as, at any time, the sum of (i) 85% of the eligible accounts receivable of each ABL Borrower and each guarantor (the A/R Amount); plus (ii) the lesser of (x) 50% of the lower of cost and fair market value of the eligible inventory of the ABL Borrower and each guarantor and (y) 5% of the A/R Amount; plus (iii) the lesser of (x) accounts receivable of the ABL Borrower and each guarantor aged 180-360 days that are otherwise eligible accounts receivable and (y) 5% of the A/R Amount; minus (iv) such availability reserves as the administrative agent, in its permitted discretion, deems appropriate at such time; minus (v) the outstanding principal amount of any future term loans (if any) incurred pursuant to the ABL Credit Agreement. As of October 31, 2016, the borrowing base was approximately $657 million.

The revolving credit loans under the ABL Facility bear interest initially at a rate equal to (i) LIBOR plus, an applicable margin, which shall be determined based on the average daily excess availability, or (ii) the alternate base rate, which will be the highest of (x) the prime rate established by the administrative agent from time to time, (y) 0.50% in excess of the greater of (1) the overnight federal funds rate or (2) the composite overnight federal funds and overnight LIBOR rate, (z) the one-month LIBOR rate (adjusted for maximum reserves) plus 1.0% per annum, plus, in each case, an applicable margin, which shall be determined based on the average daily excess availability. The ABL Facility bears a commitment fee that is payable quarterly in arrears, based on the utilization of the ABL Facility, and customary letter of credit fees.

The ABL Facility contains customary representations and warranties and customary affirmative and negative covenants. The negative covenants contain limitations on the following: incurrence of additional indebtedness or issuance of certain preferred shares; payment of dividends on, redemption or repurchase of stock or making of other distributions in respect of our capital stock; making investments; repurchase, prepayment or redemption of junior indebtedness; agreeing to payment restrictions affecting the ability of our restricted subsidiaries to pay dividends to us or make other intercompany transfers; incurrence of additional liens; transfer or sale of assets; consolidation, merger, sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of our assets; entering into certain transactions with our affiliates; designation of any of our subsidiaries as unrestricted subsidiaries; and making of negative pledges. The negative covenants are subject to the customary exceptions and also permit the payment of dividends and distributions, investments, permitted acquisitions, payments or redemptions of junior indebtedness, asset sales and mergers, consolidations and sales of all or substantially all assets involving subsidiaries upon satisfaction of a payment condition. The payment condition is deemed satisfied upon 30-day specified availability and specified availability exceeding agreed upon thresholds and, in certain cases, the absence of specified events of default or known events of default and pro forma compliance with a fixed charge coverage ratio of 1.0 to 1.0.

There are no financial covenants included in the ABL Credit Agreement, other than a springing minimum fixed charge coverage ratio of at least 1.0 to 1.0, which is tested only when specified availability is less than the greater of (A) $85 million and (B) 10.0% of the lesser of (x) the then applicable borrowing base and (y) the then total effective commitments under the ABL Facility, and continuing until such time as specified availability has been in excess of such threshold for a period of 30 consecutive calendar days.

The foregoing description of the Third Amendment does not purport to be a complete description and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text thereof, which is attached as Exhibit 10.2 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.

Supplemental Indentures to the Envision 2022 Indenture

On June 18, 2014, the Prior Envision Borrower issued $750 million aggregate principal amount of its 5.125% senior unsecured notes due 2022 (the Envision 2022 Notes). The Envision 2022 Notes were issued pursuant to the Indenture, dated as of June 18, 2014 (as supplemented from time to time, the Envision 2022 Indenture), among the Prior Envision Borrower, certain of its domestic subsidiaries (the Envision Guarantors) and Wilmington Trust, National Association, as trustee (the Trustee). On November 30, 2016, the Prior Envision Borrower entered into a sixth supplemental indenture (the Sixth Supplemental Indenture) with the additional Subsidiary Guarantors (as defined therein) party thereto and the Trustee, pursuant to which the Subsidiary Guarantors guaranteed the Envision 2022 Notes. On December 1, 2016, in connection with the Mergers, Envision Healthcare Intermediate Corporation (Intermediate) entered into a seventh supplemental indenture (the Seventh Supplemental Indenture) with the Envision Guarantors and the Trustee, pursuant to which Intermediate assumed the obligations under the Envision 2022 Notes. On December 1, 2016, in connection with the Mergers, Holdings entered into an eighth supplemental indenture (the Eighth Supplemental Indenture) with the Envision Guarantors and the Trustee, pursuant to which Holdings assumed the obligations under the Envision 2022 Notes. On December 1, 2016, in connection with the Mergers, the Company assumed the obligations under the Envision 2022 Notes and certain of the domestic subsidiaries (the AmSurg Guarantors) of AmSurg Corp. (AmSurg) executed a ninth supplemental indenture (the Ninth Supplemental Indenture and, together with the Sixth Supplemental Indenture, the Seventh Supplemental Indenture and the Eighth Supplemental Indenture, the Supplemental Indentures) with the Trustee, pursuant to which they guaranteed the Envision 2022 Notes. The Envision 2022 Notes mature on July 1, 2022.

The foregoing description of the Supplemental Indentures does not purport to be a complete description and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full texts thereof, which are attached as Exhibits 4.1 through 4.4 and are incorporated herein by reference.

In consideration for the loss of this benefit, the Company has agreed to pay Mr. Sanger approximately $420,000 representing the cash value of the accrued but unused hours of personal use to which he was entitled under the terms of his previous employment agreement, as well as for those hours of personal use to which he would have been entitled in 2017.
