EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 1 on Form 8-K/A (the “Amendment”) amends the Current Report on Form 8-K (the “Initial 8-K”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 25, 2011 by Cardtronics, Inc. (the “Company”). The Company submits this Amendment to: (i) amend the document filed as Exhibit 10.2 to the Initial 8-K to the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics instead of the Financial Code of Ethics, (ii) modify the disclosures in the Initial 8-K to include an explanation of the changes made to the Financial Code of Ethics, and (iii) file the Financial Code of Ethics as Exhibit 10.3 to the Initial 8-K. This Amendment does not modify in any way the disclosures made under Item 5.03 and the document filed as Exhibit 10.1 to the Initial 8-K.

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On January 21, 2011, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Cardtronics, Inc. (the “Corporation”) approved and adopted the Third Amended and Restated Bylaws (the “Bylaws”), which became effective as of January 21, 2011. The following is intended to provide a brief description of the changes made to the Bylaws, but is not a complete description and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Bylaws themselves, which are filed as an exhibit to this report.

Sections 4.1 and 4.2 of the Bylaws were revised to clarify that the Board would have the authority to appoint the chairman of any committee established by the Board, rather than such authority resting with the committee itself. The remaining substantive modifications to the Bylaws concerned the role of the Chief Executive Officer as the Corporation’s most senior executive officer. To that end, the Bylaws were amended to provide that the Chief Executive Officer: (i) would preside over meetings of the stockholders if the Chairman were not present (Section 2.12); (ii) may call special meetings of the Board (Section 3.6); (iii) shall be one of the designated officers of the Corporation (Section 5.1); (iv) shall have general executive charge, management and control of the properties, business and operations of the Corporation (Section 5.5); and (v) unless otherwise directed by the Board have the power to vote or otherwise act on behalf of Corporation with respect to any securities that the Corporation may hold with respect to any other entity (Section 5.13). Additionally, the Bylaws were further modified to allow the Corporation to have more than one President serving under the Chief Executive Officer and to allow the Chief Executive Officer and any such President to assign duties to subordinate officers (Sections 5.7 and 5.8, respectively). The Bylaws have been filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.05. Amendments to the Registrant’s Code of Ethics, or Waiver of a Provision of the Code of Ethics.

On January 21, 2011, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors by unanimous vote approved the management proposed modifications to the Corporation’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and the Financial Code of Ethics. These changes were made upon recommendation by the Corporation’s outside securities counsel and not in response to any conduct or action of any director, officer, or employee of the Corporation. The following is intended to provide a brief description of the changes made to the Corporation’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and the Financial Code of Ethics, but is not a complete description and is qualified in its entirety by reference to these documents themselves, which are filed as exhibits to this report.

The modifications to the Corporation’s Code of Business Conduct as approved by the Audit Committee, among other administrative and non-substantive amendments, include: (i) clarifying the definition of a conflict of interest and providing examples of what the Corporation would and wouldn’t consider a conflict of interest; (ii) expanding on the previous concept of business entertainment/gifts to include all payments and gifts; and (iii) inclusion of a section entitled “Retention of Documents and Records.” The revised Code of Business Conduct and Ethics has been filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The modifications to the Financial Code of Ethics as approved by the Audit Committee, among other administrative and non-substantive amendments, include: (i) adding the General Counsel as a covered party; and (ii) modifying the list of individuals to whom potential violations should be reported, which now includes the Executive Vice President of Audit in addition to the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, or to the Audit Committee Chairperson in the event there is a potential conflict of interest in reporting a potential violation to one of these individuals. The revised Financial Code of Ethics has been filed as Exhibit 10.3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
