On September 14, 2017 Command Security Corporation (the “Company,” “our” or “we”) held our 2017 annual meeting of shareholders (the “Annual Meeting”). At the Annual Meeting, our shareholders approved the amendment and restatement of the Command Security Corporation 2009 Omnibus Incentive Plan (as amended and restated, the “Plan”). The Plan amendments (i) increased the number of common shares available for issuance under the Plan by 1,750,000 shares, from 2,250,000 to 4,000,000, (ii) extended the term of the Plan through September 14, 2027, (iii) provided for the extension of the exercise period of a stock option if the stock option would expire at a time when exercise of the option would violate securities laws, (iv) amended and clarified the performance criteria that may be used to grant performance compensation awards under the Plan that may qualify as “performance-based compensation” under Section 162(m) of the Code, (v) clarified the factors that the Company’s compensation committee (the “Committee”) may use in reducing awards in its discretion, (vi) permitted the Committee to satisfy withholding obligations above the minimum required statutory withholding liability, and (vii) clarified when awards may be subject to clawback policies. The effective date of the Plan is July 18, 2017, which is the date that our Board of Directors initially approved it (subject to shareholder approval).

We have provided a description of the Plan under the heading “Proposal Three — Approval of the Amendment and Restatement of the 2009 Omnibus Equity Incentive Plan” in the Company’s definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on July 28, 2017 (the “Proxy Statement”). We incorporate that description herein by reference, which description we have also included as Exhibit 99.1 hereto. We qualify that description in its entirety by reference to the Plan, as amended and restated, set forth in Annex A to the Proxy Statement, which we have included as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporate herein by reference.
