MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

On July the 7th, I announced an initiative to combine Alcan with Pechiney through a public offer. This is an exceptional opportunity to create value for our shareholders, to enhance our ability to serve our customers and to offer exciting career opportunities for our employees. This offer is the best opportunity to grow the company and position it for a strong and prosperous future.

The size and scale of the combined company would be significantly greater, with 88,000 employees in over 50 countries and 2002 pro forma sales of $23.9 billion. It would allow us to have the most sustainable low-cost position in primary aluminum, an enhanced product portfolio, and a world leadership in core smelter technology. It would also give us a global leadership position in flexible packaging, with a complementary product and geographic mix.

In joining our respective strengths and creating an even stronger company, we would be armed with the best skills to address future challenges.

Sincerely,

Travis Engen

President and Chief Executive Officer
