Part III - Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why form 10-K, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q or N-SAR or portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company sold a division during the quarter and the company has had problems reconciling its financial statements to account for the sale and the operations of the division for the portion of the quarter when it was still owned by the Company, due to the books and records being in the possession of the new owners. As a result, the Company has been unable to complete the financial statements in a timely manner. The Company needed additional time to gather the needed information to complete the financial statements. The Company is gathering this information as quickly as possible. As a result of the problems associated with the acquisition, which have required the gathering of additional information to complete the financial statements, the Company may not be able to file its Form 10-QSB on time without unreasonable effort or expense.
