Section 8 Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events.

Thomas B. Hallman, Vice Chairman Specialty Finance, Joseph M. Leone, Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer, Lawrence A. Marsiello, Vice Chairman and Chief Lending Officer, and William J. Taylor, Executive Vice President and Controller, each adopted a pre-arranged stock trading plan to exercise employee stock options issued under the CIT Group Inc. Long-Term Equity Compensation Plan and to sell the acquired CIT Group Inc. ( CIT ) common stock. Each of these executive officers, who receive a substantial portion of their compensation in the form of equity awards, established his plan as part of his individual long-term strategy for asset diversification and liquidity. The stock trading plan of each executive officer was established under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and CIT s policies regarding securities transactions.

Pursuant to their individual 10b5-1 trading plans, dated December 19, 2006 for Mr. Marsiello and December 20, 2006 for Messrs. Hallman, Leone and Taylor, a brokerage firm may exercise certain of their respective employee stock options beginning on February 1, 2007. Each of the plans is scheduled to terminate on January 31, 2008. The brokerage firm may exercise options representing up to 166,728 shares for Mr. Hallman (23.1% of outstanding options), 207,390 shares for Mr. Leone (24.4% of outstanding options), 168,645 shares for Mr. Marsiello (23.7% of outstanding options), and 34,710 shares for Mr. Taylor (23.8% of outstanding options). Outstanding options includes vested and unvested options, but excludes owned shares, restricted stock and performance shares.

Any transactions under the foregoing trading plans will be disclosed publicly through Form 144 and Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Pursuant to CIT s policies regarding securities transactions, executives may only enter into a 10b5-1 trading plan during CIT s trading windows following the release of CIT s quarterly or annual financial information ( trading window ). Pursuant to these policies, transactions pursuant to a 10b5-1 trading plan may begin no earlier than the trading window following the trading window in which the executive enters into the 10b5-1 trading plan.

Except as may be required by law, CIT does not undertake to report on specific plans by other CIT officers or directors, nor to report modifications, terminations, transactions or other activities under the plans of Mr. Hallman, Mr. Leone, Mr. Marsiello or Mr. Ingato or the plan of any other officer or director.

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements contained in this document that are not clearly historical in nature are forward-looking, and the words anticipate, believe, expect, estimate, plan, target, and similar expressions are generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements reflect the current views of CIT and its management. All forward-looking statements (including statements regarding future financial and operating results) involve risks, uncertainties, contingencies, and changes in circumstances, many of which are beyond CIT s control, that may cause actual results, performance, or achievements to differ materially from anticipated results, performance, or achievements. Factors that could affect actual results and performance include, but are not limited to, potential changes in interest rates, competitive factors and general economic conditions, changes in funding markets, industry cycles and trends, uncertainties associated with risk management, risks associated with residual value of leased equipment, regulatory factors, among others. More detailed information about these factors are described in CIT s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006. CIT is under no obligation to (and expressly disclaims any such obligation to) update or alter its forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
