Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), requires the Corporation’s officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Corporation’s equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and the New York Stock Exchange. Officers, directors and greater than ten-percent shareholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Corporation with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on its review of the copies of such forms received by it, and written representations from certain reporting persons that no Section 16(a) forms were required for those persons, the Corporation believes that during fiscal 2014 all filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and greater than ten-percent shareholders were complied with.

ITEM 11.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

The Compensation Discussion and Analysis is designed to provide shareholders with a better understanding of our compensation philosophy, core principles, and decision-making process. It explains the compensation-related actions taken with regard to the executive officers who are identified in the Summary Compensation Table (the “Named Executive Officers”). Details regarding the compensation we paid to the Named Executive Officers for fiscal 2014 are found in the tables and narrative that follow them.

Executive Summary

Biglari Holdings is composed of two distinct components: operations and investments. The Company conducts its operations through its wholly-owned subsidiaries, including Steak n Shake Operations, Inc., Western Sizzlin Corporation, First Guard Insurance Company and Maxim Inc. The Company holds its investments mainly through limited partner interests in The Lion Fund I and The Lion Fund II (collectively, “The Lion Fund”). The general partner of The Lion Fund is Biglari Capital Corp., a private investment firm owned by Mr. Biglari, who is both CEO of the Company and serves as the investment manager of The Lion Fund. As CEO of Biglari Holdings, he oversees the Company’s operating businesses, and as Chairman of Biglari Capital, the general partner of these investment partnerships, he is responsible for their investment decisions.

Highlights for fiscal 2014 include:

Operating Businesses

- Steak n Shake recorded its 23rd consecutive quarterly increase in same-store sales.
- Purchased First Guard Insurance Company, a direct underwriter of commercial trucking insurance. First Guard has never experienced an underwriting loss in its 17-year history.
 - Acquired Maxim, a leading men’s magazine published in 75 countries.

Changes to Compensation Program and Response to Shareholder Engagement

Biglari Holdings views our shareholders as true long-term partners in its business and wants their questions and suggestions to be considered fully, clearly, and accurately. Since the Company's 2014 annual meeting, including its response concerning the results of the "say on pay" vote at the meeting, we have met with a number of investors to solicit their feedback on issues of importance to shareholders. The most important matters for shareholders have included corporate governance, executive compensation, and pay and performance alignment. We value the opinions of our shareholders, and, as a result of these discussions, the Board has implemented the following changes:

Actions

- Appointed William L. Johnson as Lead Independent Director
- Mr. Johnson's responsibilities include presiding over Board meetings at which the Chairman is not present, including executive sessions of the independent directors; serving as a liaison between the Chairman and the independent directors; and ensuring the Board's focus on issues of corporate governance
- Retained Farient Advisors, LLC ("Farient"), an independent compensation consulting firm, to conduct a comprehensive review of the Company's executive compensation program for 2015, including peer group development, incentive compensation design, pay and performance alignment, and best governance practices
- Farient is currently reviewing the Company's executive compensation program, including the incentive agreement with Mr. Biglari (the "Incentive Agreement"). More information will be disclosed in our forthcoming proxy statement filing
- Enhanced our Compensation Discussion & Analysis ("CD&A") to better describe our compensation philosophy and more clearly explain the way in which Mr. Biglari is compensated
- Our disclosure separates the discussion of our operating business and investments business
- The Incentive Agreement was amended in July 2013 to more closely tie Mr. Biglari's incentive compensation to the earnings of our operating businesses, by excluding any realized or unrealized gains or losses, earnings and all other amounts attributable to any investments by Biglari Holdings and its subsidiaries in The Lion Fund
- Adoption of stock ownership guidelines for our non-employee directors
- Because the Company does not grant options or other stock awards to non-employee directors to avoid the dilution of our shareholders' ownership interests, the Board adopted stringent Stock Ownership Guidelines for our non-employee directors to ensure that the interests of our non-employee directors are aligned with the interests of our shareholders in maximizing the long-term value of the Company
- Our non-employee directors are required to own shares equal in value to at least five times their annual cash retainer. Directors have until four years from the adoption of the policy to meet the guideline

Compensation of Named Executive Officers

Chief Executive Officer Compensation for Managing the Operating Businesses

In his capacity as CEO of the Company, Mr. Biglari earned $900,000 for fiscal 2014.

Base Salary

Mr. Biglari's current base salary of $900,000 was set by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (prior to being merged with the Governance and Nominating Committee; the Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee is referred to below as the "Committee").

Mr. Biglari's salary has not been increased since 2009.

Incentive Agreement

Philosophy. The Company's singular long-term strategic objective is to maximize its per-share intrinsic value, a subjective gauge of the progress of the business that the Company believes will eventually be reflected in its stock price. In designing the Incentive Agreement with Mr. Biglari, the Committee sought to embody the pay-for-performance ethos of the Company and its focus on maximizing long-term shareholder value. Therefore, the Committee concluded it was most appropriate to determine Mr. Biglari's compensation by reference to the objective measure – book value growth – that most closely reflected the Company's ultimate mission. Since our Incentive Agreement requires Mr. Biglari to purchase in the open market and subsequently hold equity with pre-tax incentive dollars (discussed in more detail below), this plan operates as both a short- and long-term incentive award, avoids the significant dilution that would otherwise occur through the granting of options or other stock awards, and firmly aligns Mr. Biglari's interests with the long-term interests of our shareholders. Furthermore, since the Company does not grant equity to our named executive officers, our shareholders receive the benefit of immediate tax deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, rather than at the time of vesting or exercising equity awards.

Incentive Design. The Incentive Agreement established a performance-based annual incentive payment for Mr. Biglari contingent upon the growth in the Corporation's adjusted book value in each fiscal year. The adjusted book value metric adopted by the Committee measures the Company's economic performance and is unaffected by non-economic factors. For example, the consummation of the rights offerings conducted by the Company (despite having raised significant capital in furtherance of the Company's business objectives) had no impact on Mr. Biglari's compensation under the Incentive Agreement.

In order for Mr. Biglari to receive any incentive, the Company must achieve annual adjusted book value growth in excess of 6% (the "Hurdle Rate") above the Company's previous highest level of book value (the "High Water Mark"). Mr. Biglari will receive 25% of any incremental book value created above the High Water Mark plus the Hurdle Rate (collectively, the "Measuring Point"). For example, if the previous highest recorded book value was $100,000,000, the Company would need to achieve adjusted book value of $106,000,000 before any incentive could be earned. In any fiscal year in which book value declines, the Company must completely recover the deficit from the previous High Water Mark, plus attain the Hurdle Rate, before Mr. Biglari is eligible to receive any further incentive payments. The Incentive Agreement limits Mr. Biglari's incentive compensation to $10 million in any one-year performance period.

Further, the Incentive Agreement provides that Mr. Biglari must use at least 30% of his pre-tax incentive compensation (which equates to approximately 50% after tax) to purchase shares of the Company's common stock in the open market. Mr. Biglari is then required to hold such shares for a minimum of three years from the date of purchase, subject to the Incentive Agreement. As a result of this provision, Mr. Biglari has purchased a total of 17,210 shares of our common stock. Mr. Biglari has never sold a share of stock accumulated under the Incentive Agreement or otherwise.

Table of Contents

Economic Terms of Agreement. The Corporation initially entered into the Incentive Agreement with Mr. Biglari on April 30, 2010, and it was amended and restated on September 28, 2010. The Incentive Agreement was approved by 82% of the votes cast by our shareholders at our special meeting held on November 5, 2010. In connection with the sale of Biglari Capital to Mr. Biglari (the “Biglari Capital Transaction”), Biglari Holdings and Mr. Biglari entered into the First Amendment, dated as of July 1, 2013, to the Incentive Agreement (the “Incentive Agreement Amendment”). The Incentive Agreement Amendment was designed to reflect the bifurcation of the Company’s operating and investing activities as a result of the Biglari Capital Transaction and thereby more closely tie Mr. Biglari’s incentive compensation to the Company’s operating earnings. Accordingly, the Incentive Agreement Amendment excludes from the calculation of Biglari Holdings’ adjusted book value, and therefore from the calculation of Mr. Biglari’s incentive compensation, any realized or unrealized gains or losses, earnings and all other amounts attributable to any investments by Biglari Holdings (and its subsidiaries) in The Lion Fund (as well as any other investment partnerships of which Mr. Biglari or his affiliate is the general partner). To assure a fair, objective, and reasoned compensation system, the Committee retained Towers Watson, nationally recognized compensation consultants, to assist in formulating the Incentive Agreement, including the amendment thereto.

The following tables set forth a reconciliation of (i) the change in adjusted book value to the change in total shareholders' equity for fiscal 2014 and 2013 and (ii) adjusted book value to total shareholders' equity as of the end of fiscal 2014 and 2013. Historical Incentive Payouts. As the chart below illustrates, payouts earned under the Incentive Agreement have closely aligned with corporate performance. In fiscal 2014, the decline in our book value resulted, to a significant extent, from expenses incurred in our continuing efforts to franchise the Steak n Shake concept and also to revitalize the Maxim brand, which we acquired in February 2014. These expenditures emphasize the Company's focus on creating sustainable long-term shareholder value, which may come at the expense of short-term results; our executive compensation is squarely aligned with this philosophy.

The CEO incentive payment is reviewed by the Committee and its advisors.

Overall, the Committee believes the incentive design for Mr. Biglari:

- Aligns with our overriding objective of increasing the per-share intrinsic value of the enterprise
- Provides challenging goals, since the threshold level of book value needed to earn an incentive is set at the High Water Mark plus the Hurdle Rate
- Serves as both a short- and long-term incentive through the required purchase of our common stock in the open market
- Ensures proper long-term alignment with our shareholders given the share purchase provisions and holding requirements, while avoiding the dilution associated with equity awards
- Offers shareholders advantageous tax treatment since pre-tax cash incentive dollars are used to purchase shares in the open market
- Avoids encouraging excessive risk taking by promoting action intended to create long-term, sustainable value for the benefit of all shareholders

Table of Contents

Management of Investments

The Company holds its investments mainly through limited partner interests in The Lion Fund. The general partner of The Lion Fund does not charge Biglari Holdings management fees, only a performance fee; therefore, its fees are predicated solely on investment gains rather than assets under management. Income from The Lion Fund is excluded in the calculation of Mr. Biglari's incentive compensation under the Incentive Agreement. The investments in The Lion Fund are more fully described in Item 13 – Related Person Transactions.

Compensation of Controller

The Committee has charged Mr. Biglari with the responsibility of reviewing and confirming the compensation of other executive officers, including senior executives of the Company's major subsidiaries. Factors considered are typically subjective, such as the executive's performance and any changes in that executive's functional responsibilities, which were the primary factors used in determining the salary and bonus for the Company's Controller in fiscal 2014, 2013 and 2012. We may also utilize different incentive arrangements, with their terms dependent upon such elements as the economic potential or capital intensity of the business. The incentives could be large and will always be tied to the operating results for which an executive exercises authority.

Employment Agreements, Severance, and Change-in-Control Arrangements

Neither Mr. Biglari nor Mr. Lewis has an employment agreement with the Company and neither has been granted or holds any stock options or restricted stock awards from the Company.

Mr. Biglari's Incentive Agreement continues in effect during his service as Chief Executive Officer of the Company, but does not alter his at-will employment arrangement with the Company. If there is a change in control of the Corporation, Mr. Biglari is terminated by the Corporation without "cause" or Mr. Biglari resigns for "good reason," Mr. Biglari will be entitled to receive a severance payment equal to 299% of his average annual cash compensation (consisting of his base salary and incentive compensation), determined from the date of the Incentive Agreement, subject to reduction to the extent necessary so that no portion of the severance payment will be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Benefits Provided, and Not Provided, by the Company

The Committee does not bestow many traditional perquisites on the Named Executive Officers, such as auto allowances, health club memberships, executive physicals, country club memberships, personal financial planning services, and other similar benefits that do not closely relate to shareholder value creation.

During fiscal year 2010, we resolved to suspend, indefinitely, all future option grants and placed a moratorium on the issuance of restricted stock. The Committee does not believe in granting conventional incentives such as stock options and restricted stock, which would dilute shareholders' ownership in the Corporation.

In addition, Mr. Biglari is not entitled to receive any discretionary bonuses. The Committee therefore believes that Mr. Biglari's incentive compensation is correlated solely to the performance of the Company's operating businesses and its investments.

The Company purchases hours for the use of aircraft for business purposes pursuant to a fractional ownership program. Any use of the aircraft for personal travel has been fully reimbursed to the Company; otherwise such amounts would be deemed to be compensation and reported in the summary compensation table. The use of these aircraft by Company personnel and the reimbursement of personal travel costs are reviewed by the Audit Committee and its advisors. This information regarding aircraft usage has been voluntarily provided to our shareholders.

Deductibility Cap on Executive Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallows a federal income tax deduction to any publicly held corporation for compensation to the principal executive officer, principal financial officer, or any of the three other most highly compensated executive officers in excess of $1 million in any taxable year. Payments made pursuant to the Incentive Agreement, however, are intended to qualify as “performance based compensation,” eligible for continued deductibility with shareholder approval. To preserve the tax deductibility of such compensation, the Corporation sought and obtained approval of the Incentive Agreement at the November 5, 2010 special meeting of shareholders.

In fiscal 2014, we did not pay compensation that was not deductible under Section 162(m).

Compensation Policies Relating to Risk Management

The Committee believes that our compensation policies and practices, as a result of their emphasis on long-term value creation, do not encourage unnecessary or excessive risk taking and that any risks arising from our compensation policies and practices are not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Corporation.

Narrative Disclosure to Summary Compensation Table

As referenced above in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section, Mr. Biglari, as CEO of the Company, oversees all aspects of its restaurant, insurance and media properties. As a result of the Biglari Capital Transaction and the bifurcation of the Company's operating and investing businesses, fiscal 2014 was the first full fiscal year in which there was a clear demarcation between Mr. Biglari's compensation for operations and fees paid to Biglari Capital for services related to managing the investments of the Company.

In fiscal 2014 Mr. Biglari was paid solely his base salary of $900,000 for his multifaceted role as CEO of the Company's operating businesses. Mr. Biglari did not receive any compensation under the Incentive Agreement for fiscal 2014. Fees paid to Biglari Capital in fiscal 2014 are fully described in Item 13 – Related Person Transactions.

Plan-Based Award Grants; Outstanding Equity Awards; Award Exercise and Vesting

The Corporation does not grant any stock options or other awards under its equity incentive plans, which have been suspended indefinitely. Accordingly, neither of the Named Executive Officers has been granted or holds any stock options or restricted stock awards from the Company.

Under the terms of the Incentive Agreement, the maximum incentive payment that Mr. Biglari may receive with respect to fiscal 2015 is $10 million.

Retirement Benefits

We maintain a 401(k) plan in which one of our Named Executive Officers participates. The Steak n Shake 401(k) Savings Plan (the “401(k) Plan”) is a defined contribution plan covering substantially all employees, including the Named Executive Officers, after they have attained age 21 and completed six months of service and allows employees to defer up to 20% of their salaries. Discretionary matching contributions were made in each of fiscal years 2014, 2013 and 2012. Discretionary contributions are based on the profitability of the Corporation and subject to quarterly revision. The Named Executive Officers and other “highly compensated employees” (as that term is defined by IRS regulations) are limited to contributing 1% of their cash compensation to the 401(k) Plan.

Potential Payments Upon Termination of Employment

For a description of the rights to which Mr. Biglari is entitled in the event of a change in control of the Corporation, Mr. Biglari’s termination by the Corporation without “cause” or Mr. Biglari’s resignation for “good reason,” see “Compensation Discussion and Analysis – Employment Agreements, Severance and Change-in-Control Arrangements” and “Related Person Transactions.” Mr. Biglari has not received any stock awards from the Corporation.

Mr. Lewis does not have any agreement with the Company providing for payments upon termination or in the event of a change in control of the Corporation. Mr. Lewis has not received any stock awards from the Corporation.

Director Compensation

Directors of Biglari Holdings do not receive grants of Company stock. We discontinued the practice of issuing stock options and restricted stock awards to avoid equity dilution of our shareholders. Effective April 1, 2009, all annual retainers have been paid in cash only.

During fiscal year 2014, a director who was not an employee received an annual cash retainer of $45,000, and the Chairs of the Audit Committee and the Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee each received an annual cash retainer of $50,000. For his role as Vice Chairman of the Board and such other duties as designated by the Board, Dr. Cooley received an annual cash retainer of $210,000. In addition, non-employee directors receive cash meeting attendance fees as follows:

- $1,250 for each committee meeting attended in-person not held in conjunction with a Board meeting;
- $500 for each committee meeting attended held in conjunction with a Board meeting; and
- $500 for any meeting (Board or committee) in which the director participated by phone.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Policy Regarding Related Person Transactions

The Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee (the “Committee”) reviews each related person transaction (as defined below) and determines whether it will approve or ratify that transaction based on whether the transaction is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. Any Board member who has any interest (actual or perceived) will not be involved in the consideration.

A “related person transaction” is any transaction, arrangement or relationship in which we are a participant, the related person (defined below) had, has or will have a direct or indirect material interest and the aggregate amount involved is expected to exceed $120,000 in any calendar year. “Related person” includes (a) any person who is or was (at any time during the last fiscal year) an officer, director or nominee for election as a director; (b) any person or group who is a beneficial owner of more than 5% of our voting securities; (c) any immediate family member of a person described in provisions (a) or (b) of this sentence; or (d) any entity in which any of the foregoing persons is employed, is a partner or has a greater than 5% beneficial ownership interest.

In determining whether a related person transaction will be approved or ratified, the Committee may consider factors such as (a) the extent of the related person’s interest in the transaction; (b) the availability of other sources of comparable products or services; (c) whether the terms are competitive with terms generally available in similar transactions with persons that are not related persons; (d) the benefit to us; and (e) the aggregate value of the transaction.

Related Person Transactions

Investments in The Lion Fund

Since the year 2000, Mr. Biglari has served as Chairman of Biglari Capital, general partner of The Lion Fund. Biglari Capital, in its capacity as general partner, receives an annual incentive reallocation equal to 25% of the net profits allocated to the limited partners of The Lion Fund in excess of their applicable hurdle rate (6% for Biglari Holdings and its subsidiaries pursuant to the Shared Services Agreement and 5% for other limited partners). Biglari Capital does not receive any fees based on assets under management; its fees are predicated solely on investment gains.

During the fiscal year that ended September 24, 2014, the Company contributed cash and securities owned by it with an aggregate value of $174,418,240 in exchange for additional limited partner interests in The Lion Fund. For the year that ended December 31, 2013 (which coincides with the Company’s 2014 fiscal year), the Company earned $74,526,170 on its investment in The Lion Fund, which equaled an approximately 33% return on capital. An incentive reallocation to Biglari Capital is determined as of December 31 of each year. For the year that ended December 31, 2013 the incentive reallocation from Biglari Holdings and its subsidiaries was $14,701,852.

The Committee believes that The Lion Fund’s fee structure demands greater performance for the incentive reallocation to be earned instead of the traditional “2 and 20” hedge fund model in which hedge fund managers charge a flat fee equal to 2% of assets under management plus 20% of any profits (without having to exceed a hurdle rate). Thus, the Committee believes that the incentive reallocation under the terms of The Lion Fund’s partnership agreements is consistent with the Company’s pay-for-performance culture.

For comparison purposes, if Biglari Capital were paid fees based on the typical “2 and 20” model for hedge fund managers, it would have received a management fee of $4,488,508 plus a performance fee of $14,007,532, for a total of $18,496,040.

Shared Services Agreement

In connection with the Biglari Capital Transaction, Biglari Holdings and Biglari Capital entered into the Shared Services Agreement pursuant to which Biglari Holdings provides certain services to Biglari Capital, including use of space at the Company's corporate headquarters in San Antonio, in exchange for a 6% hurdle rate for Biglari Holdings and its subsidiaries (as compared to a 5% hurdle rate for all other limited partners) in order to determine the incentive reallocation to Biglari Capital, as general partner of The Lion Fund I and The Lion Fund II, under their respective partnership agreements. The incentive reallocation to Biglari Capital is equal to 25% of the net profits allocated to the limited partners in excess of their applicable hurdle rate. The Shared Services Agreement runs for an initial five-year term, and automatically renews for successive five-year periods, unless terminated by either party effective at the end of the initial or renewed term, as applicable. The term of the Shared Services Agreement coincides with the lock-up period for the Company's investments in The Lion Fund I and The Lion Fund II under their respective partnership agreements. During the fiscal year that ended September 24, 2014, the Company provided services for Biglari Capital under the Shared Services Agreement having an aggregate cost of $1,590,000.

License Agreement

On January 11, 2013, the Company entered into a Trademark License Agreement (the "License Agreement") with Mr. Biglari. The License Agreement was unanimously approved by the Committee. In addition, the license under the License Agreement is provided on a royalty-free basis in the absence of specified extraordinary events described below. Accordingly, the Company and its subsidiaries have paid no royalties to Mr. Biglari under the License Agreement since its inception.

Under the License Agreement, Mr. Biglari granted to the Company an exclusive license to use the Biglari and Biglari Holdings names (the "Licensed Marks") in association with various products and services (collectively the "Products and Services"). Upon (a) the expiration of twenty years from the date of the License Agreement (subject to extension as provided in the License Agreement), (b) Mr. Biglari's death, (c) the termination of Mr. Biglari's employment by the Company for Cause (as defined in the License Agreement), or (d) Mr. Biglari's resignation from his employment with the Company absent an Involuntary Termination Event (as defined in the License Agreement), the Licensed Marks for the Products and Services will transfer from Mr. Biglari to the Company, without any compensation, if the Company is continuing to use the Licensed Marks in the ordinary course of its business. Otherwise, the rights will revert to Mr. Biglari.

If (i) a Change of Control (as defined in the License Agreement) of the Company; (ii) the termination of Mr. Biglari's employment by the Company without Cause; or (iii) Mr. Biglari's resignation from his employment with the Company due to an Involuntary Termination Event (each, a "Triggering Event") were to occur, Mr. Biglari would be entitled to receive a 2.5% royalty on "Revenues" with respect to the "Royalty Period." The royalty payment to Mr. Biglari would not apply to all revenues received by Biglari Holdings and its subsidiaries nor would it apply retrospectively (i.e., to revenues received with respect to the period prior to the Triggering Event). The royalty would apply to revenues recorded by the Company on an accrual basis under GAAP, solely with respect to the defined period of time after the Triggering Event equal to the Royalty Period, from a covered Product, Service or business that (1) has used the Biglari Holdings or Biglari name at any time during the term of the License Agreement, whether prior to or after a Triggering Event, or (2) the Company has specifically identified, prior to a Triggering Event, will use the name Biglari or Biglari Holdings.

"Revenues" means all revenues received, on an accrual basis under GAAP, by the Company, its subsidiaries and affiliates from the following: (1) all Products and Services covered by the License Agreement bearing or associated with the names Biglari and Biglari Holdings at any time (whether prior to or after a Triggering Event). This category would include, without limitation, the use of Biglari or Biglari Holdings in the public name of a business providing any covered Product or Service; and (2) all covered Products, Services and businesses that the Company has specifically identified, prior to a Triggering Event, will bear, use or be associated with the name Biglari or Biglari Holdings.

Table of Contents

The Committee unanimously approved the association of the Biglari name and mark with all of Steak n Shake's restaurants (including Company operated and franchised locations), products and brands. On May 14, 2013, the Company, Steak n Shake, LLC and Steak n Shake Enterprises, Inc. entered into a Trademark Sublicense Agreement in connection therewith. Accordingly, revenues received by the Company, its subsidiaries and affiliates from Steak n Shake's restaurants, products and brands would come within the definition of Revenues for purposes of the License Agreement.

The "Royalty Period" is a defined period of time, after the Triggering Event, calculated as follows: (i) if, following three months after a Triggering Event, the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates continues to use the Biglari or Biglari Holdings name in connection with any covered product or service, or continues to use Biglari as part of its corporate or public company name, then the "Royalty Period" will equal (a) the period of time during which the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates continues any such use, plus (b) a period of time after the Company, its subsidiaries and affiliates have ceased all uses of the names Biglari and Biglari Holdings equal to the length of the term of the License Agreement prior to the Triggering Event, plus three years. As an example, if a Triggering Event occurs five years after the date of the License Agreement, and the Company ceases all uses of the Biglari and Biglari Holdings names two years after the Triggering Event, the Royalty Period will equal a total of ten years (the sum of two years after the Triggering Event during which the Biglari and Biglari Holdings names are being used, plus a period of time equal to the five years prior to the Triggering Event, plus three years); or (ii) if the Company, its subsidiaries and affiliates cease all uses of the Biglari and Biglari Holdings names within three months after a Triggering Event, then the "Royalty Period" will equal the length of the term of the License Agreement prior to the Triggering Event, plus three years. As an example, if a Triggering Event occurs five years after the date of the License Agreement, and the Company ceases all uses of the Biglari and Biglari Holdings names two months after the Triggering Event, the Royalty Period will equal a total of eight years (the sum of the period of time equal to the five years prior to the Triggering Event, plus three years). Notwithstanding the above methods of determining the Royalty Period, the minimum Royalty Period is five years after a Triggering Event.

Except as set forth above, there are no transactions that would be required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Services Provided by Family Members of Mr. Biglari

Ken Biglari, Sardar Biglari's father, performs consulting services for Steak n Shake in the areas of cost management, outdoor advertising, and international franchise development. In addition, Shawn Biglari, Sardar Biglari's brother, is employed as a Director, Business Development for Steak n Shake. Although each of Ken Biglari and Shawn Biglari received less than $120,000 in compensation from the Company during fiscal 2014, the Company has opted to provide the foregoing disclosure.

Director Independence

The Board has determined that all of its members, other than Mr. Biglari and Dr. Cooley, are "independent" within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange because none of them has, directly or indirectly, any material relationship with the Company. The Board has made these determinations after considering the following:

1. None of the independent directors is our officer or employee or an officer or employee of our subsidiaries or affiliates, nor has been such an officer or employee within the prior three years; further, no immediate family member of the independent directors is, or has been in the past three years, an executive officer of the Company.

None of the independent directors has received, nor has an immediate family member of such directors received, during any twelve month period in the last three years, more than $120,000 in direct compensation from us, other than director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service.

Table of Contents

3. None of the independent directors or any member of their immediate family is or within the past five years has been affiliated with Deloitte & Touche LLP.
4. None of the independent directors or any member of their immediate families have within the last three years been employed as an executive officer of another company on whose compensation committee one of our present executive officers served.
5. None of the independent directors is a current employee or has an immediate family member who is a current executive officer of a company that in any of the last three fiscal years has done business with us in an amount in excess of $1 million or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues.
6. None of the independent directors serves as a director, trustee, executive officer or similar position of a charitable or non-profit organization to which, in any of the last three fiscal years, we or our subsidiaries made charitable contributions or payments in any single fiscal year in excess of $1 million or 2% of the organization's consolidated gross revenues.
