Pechiney Included in FTSE4GOOD Sustainable Development Index

Paris, October 2, 2003. Pechiney today announced that it has entered the FTSE4GOOD Europe and Global indices.

Pechiney is one of the four latest French "recruits" to the FTSE4GOOD sustainable development index, out of a total of 25 indexed French companies. Its inclusion was announced in line with the six-monthly update of the list of companies that meet the various inclusion criteria.

The criteria are centered on three main principles: working towards environmental sustainability; developing positive relations with stakeholders; upholding and supporting human rights.

Pechiney's inclusion in the series reflects the commitment of the company and its people to an ambitious sustainable development process. Above all, it encourages us to make all our environmental, health and safety actions part of a sustainable improvement momentum.

Pechiney is involved in several initiatives and programs that promote sustainable development, including:

- The Global Compact, a platform created by the UN for businesses and organizations that undertake to comply with nine universal principles for human rights, work standards and the environment;
- the Global Aluminium Sustainable Development initiative launched in 2002 under the supervision of the International Aluminium Institute;
- the Partnership for Climate Action, created in 2001 by the non-governmental organization Environmental Defense;
- and AERES, the French association of businesses for reducing the greenhouse effect, which was created in 2002.

Specialized in sustainable development, the FTSE4GOOD series was created in July 2001 by the FTSE group, a worldwide market index provider. The series is comprised of four indices: FTSE4GOOD Global, FTSE4GOOD Europe, FTSE4GOOD UK and FTSE4GOOD US. To date, a total of 264 businesses make up FTSE4GOOD Europe and 631 form the FTSE4GOOD Global index.

Pechiney is an international group listed on the Paris and New York stock exchanges. Its three core businesses are primary aluminum, aluminium conversion and packaging. Pechiney achieved sales of (euro)11.9 billion in 2002. It employs 34,000 employees.
