Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 13, 2009, Complete Production Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into the Third Amendment to Credit Agreement, Omnibus Amendment to Credit Documents and Assignment, dated as of October 13, 2009, among the Company, Integrated Production Services Ltd. (the Canadian Borrower), certain subsidiaries of the Company and the Canadian Borrower party thereto, as guarantors, the lenders party thereto, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as existing administrative agent, swingline lender and issuing lender, Wells Fargo Foothill, LLC, as the successor U.S. administrative agent, U.S. successor swingline lender and U.S. new issuing lender, and HSBC Bank Canada, as the Canadian administrative agent, Canadian swingline lender and Canadian issuing lender (the Third Amendment). The Third Amendment amends the Company's Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated as of December 6, 2006 (the Credit Agreement), as amended by the First Amendment to Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated June 29, 2007 (the First Amendment), and the Second Amendment to Credit Agreement and Omnibus Amendment to Security Documents dated October 9, 2007 (the Second Amendment, and the Credit Agreement, as amended by the First Amendment and the Second Amendment, the Original Credit Agreement). This Current Report on Form 8-K refers to the Original Credit Agreement, as amended by the Third Amendment, as the New Credit Agreement. Defined terms not otherwise described herein shall have the meanings given to them in the New Credit Agreement.

The New Credit Agreement modifies the Original Credit Agreement by, among other things:

changing the structure of the credit facility to an asset-based facility subject to borrowing base restrictions (as described in further detail below);

substituting Wells Fargo Foothill, LLC for Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as U.S. administrative agent, and appointing Wells Fargo Foothill, LLC as U.S. issuing lender and U.S. swingline lender; and reducing the Company's U.S. revolving credit facility from $360,000,000 to up to $225,000,000 and the Canadian revolving credit facility from $40,000,000 to up to $15,000,000, in each case, subject to borrowing base limitations (as described in further detail below).

U.S. Borrowing Base Limitations. The Company's U.S. borrowing base is limited to: (1) 85% of U.S. eligible billed accounts receivable, less dilution, if any, plus (2) the lesser of 55% of the amount of U.S. eligible unbilled accounts receivable or $10,000,000 plus (3) the lesser of the equipment reserve amount and 80% times the most recently determined Net Liquidation Percentage (as defined in the New Credit Agreement), times the value of the Company's and the U.S. subsidiary guarantors' equipment, provided that at no time will the amount determined under clause (3) exceed 50% of the U.S. borrowing base, minus (4) the aggregate sum of reserves established by the U.S. administrative agent, if any. The equipment reserve amount means $50,000,000 upon the effective date of the Third Amendment, less $595,000 for each subsequent month, not to be reduced below zero in the aggregate.

Canadian Borrowing Base Limitations. The Canadian Borrower's Canadian borrowing base is limited to: (1) 80% of Canadian eligible billed accounts receivable, plus (2) if the Canadian Borrower has requested credit for equipment under the Canadian borrowing base, the lesser of (i) $15,000,000, and (ii) 80% times the most recently determined Net Liquidation Percentage (as defined in the New Credit Agreement), times the value (calculated on a basis consistent with the Company's historical accounting practices) of the Company's and the U.S. subsidiary guarantors' equipment, minus (3) the aggregate amount of reserves established by the Canadian administrative agent, if any.

Interest Rate. Subject to certain limitations set forth in the New Credit Agreement, the Company has the ability to elect how interest under the New Credit Agreement will be computed. Interest may be determined by reference to (1) the London Inter-bank Offered Rate, or LIBOR, plus an applicable margin between 3.75% and 4.25% per annum (with the applicable margin depending upon the Excess Availability Amount (as defined in the New Credit Agreement)) or (2) the Base Rate (which means the higher of the Prime Rate, Federal Funds Rate plus 0.50%, or the 3-month LIBOR plus 1.00% and 3.50%), plus the applicable margin, as described above. For the period from the effective date of the Third Amendment until the six-month anniversary of the effective date of the Third Amendment, interest will be computed as described above with an applicable margin rate of 4.00%. If an event of default exists or continues under the New Credit Agreement, advances will bear interest as described above, with an applicable margin rate of 4.25% plus 2.00%. Interest under the New Credit Agreement is payable monthly.

Other Terms. Additionally, the New Credit Agreement:

permits the Company to effect up to two separate increases in the aggregate commitments under the credit facility, of up to $75,000,000 in the aggregate (compared to an aggregate of $100,000,000 under the Original Credit Agreement) provided that the aggregate Canadian commitments may not exceed $25,000,000 at any time without the consent of the U.S. administrative agent and may not exceed $75,000,000 at any time without the consent of the U.S. administrative agent and the U.S. majority lenders; and requires the Company to comply with a Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio covenant if the sum of the Excess Availability Amount (as defined in the New Credit Agreement) plus certain qualified cash and cash equivalents falls below $50,000,000.

The Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio is calculated as follows: (1) for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2009, the ratio of EBITDA, calculated for the four fiscal quarters then ended minus capital expenditures made in cash or incurred during the three fiscal quarters ended September 30, 2009 multiplied by 4/3, compared to Fixed Charges (as defined in the New Credit Agreement), for the four fiscal quarters ended September 30, 2009; (2) for fiscal quarters ending after September 30, 2009, the ratio of EBITDA, calculated for the four fiscal quarter period ended after September 30, 2009 minus capital expenditures made with cash (to the extent not already incurred in a prior period) or incurred during such four quarter period, compared to Fixed Charges (as defined in the New Credit Agreement), calculated for the four quarters then ended. The calculation of EBITDA for purposes of the New Credit Agreement is substantially consistent with the calculation of EBITDA under the Original Credit Agreement. Fixed Charges include interest expense, among other things, reduced by the amortization of transaction fees associated with the Third Amendment. The Company continues to be subject to various other covenants that existed under the Original Credit Agreement, excluding the financial maintenance covenants, which have been replaced with the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio covenant (as described in further detail above).

The term of the credit facilities provided for under the New Credit Agreement will continue until the earlier of (1) December 6, 2011 and (2) the earlier termination of the U.S. or Canadian lending commitments, as further described in the New Credit Agreement. Events of default under the New Credit Agreement remain substantially the same as under the Original Credit Agreement.

The obligations under the U.S. portion of the New Credit Agreement continue to be secured by first priority liens on substantially all of the Company's assets and the assets of its U.S. subsidiaries as well as a pledge of approximately 66% of the stock of the Company's first-tier foreign subsidiaries. Additionally, all of the obligations under the U.S. portion of the New Credit Agreement continue to be guaranteed by substantially all of the Company's U.S. subsidiaries. The obligations under the Canadian portion of the New Credit Agreement continue to be secured by first priority liens on substantially all of the assets of the Company and the Company's subsidiaries (other than its Mexican subsidiary). Additionally, all of the obligations under the Canadian portion of the New Credit Agreement continue to be guaranteed by the Company as well as certain of its subsidiaries.
