Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 9, 2011, Conexant Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with Standard Microsystems Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), and Comet Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the "Merger"), with the Company surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. The Board of Directors of the Company has approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, and has recommended that the stockholders of the Company vote in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Merger Agreement

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, each outstanding share of the Company's common stock at the effective time of the Merger (the "Effective Time") will be converted into the right to receive (i) $1.125 (the "Cash Consideration") in cash, without interest and subject to any applicable withholding tax and (ii) a fraction (the "Exchange Ratio") of a share of Parent common stock (together with the Cash Consideration, the "Merger Consideration"). If the volume-weighted average price of a share of Parent common stock as reported by Bloomberg during the 20-day period ending on the second full trading day prior to the closing date of the Merger (the "Average Parent Stock Price") is greater than $26.381 but less than $32.244, then the Exchange Ratio will be the Cash Consideration divided by the Average Parent Stock Price. If the Average Parent Stock Price is equal to or less than $26.381, then the Exchange Ratio will be fixed at 0.04264. On the other hand, if the Average Parent Stock Price is equal to or greater than $32.244, then the Exchange Ratio will be fixed at 0.03489. No fractional shares of Parent's common stock will be issued in the Merger, and the Company's stockholders will receive cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any, of Parent's common stock.

The Merger Agreement provides that any options that are outstanding and unexercised at the Effective Time will be converted into the right to receive, with respect to each such option, an amount of cash equal to the excess, if any, of the value of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price per share under the option for each share subject to such option. Any option with an exercise price greater than the value of the Merger Consideration shall be cancelled without consideration and be of no further force and effect. In addition, at the Effective Time, the vesting of each share of restricted stock will be accelerated, and each such share will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration. Each restricted stock unit that is outstanding and either vested or held by a non-employee director of the Company as of the Effective Time will be converted into the right to receive, with respect to each such unit, an amount of cash equal to the value of the Merger Consideration. All other restricted stock units will be assumed by Parent at the Effective Time, with the number of shares of Parent common stock subject to each award of assumed restricted stock units adjusted by multiplying the number of shares of Company common stock subject to each such award immediately prior to the Effective Time by the sum of (i) the Exchange Ratio and (ii) the quotient obtained by dividing the Cash Consideration by the Average Parent Stock Price.

The Merger Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub. The Company has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course until the Merger is consummated. The Company has also agreed not to solicit, encourage or initiate discussions with third parties regarding other proposals to acquire the Company and to certain other restrictions on its ability to respond to such proposals. The Merger Agreement also includes customary termination rights for both the Company and Parent, including the right of the Company to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement. Under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement, the Company may be required to pay to Parent a termination fee of $7.7 million in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement.

The completion of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including, among other things, (1) the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement, (2) the expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 or any other applicable foreign antitrust laws, (3) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the consummation of the Merger, (4) the declaration by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) of the effectiveness of the Registration Statement on Form S-4 to be filed by Parent, (5) approval for listing on The Nasdaq Global Select Market of shares of Parent's common stock to be issued to the Company's stockholders pursuant to the Merger, subject to official notice of issuance, and (6) the absence of any material adverse effect with respect to the Company or Parent during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement, which has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms and is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company or Parent, contains representations and warranties of each of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the Merger Agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement, including information contained in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with signing the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on such representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts or circumstances, since they were only made as of a specific date and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules. In addition, certain representations and warranties may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to stockholders, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters of fact. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of such representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's or Parent's public disclosures.
