¹ Represents 129,974 shares of common stock and 22,725,380 shares of Class B common stock beneficially owned by Mr. Stack, 347,700 shares of common stock, for which Mr. Stack maintains sole voting, but not dispositive power (see footnote 2), 12,100 shares of common stock held by Mr. Stack's minor children, for which Mr. Stack disclaims beneficial ownership, and 6,425,000 shares of common stock subject to options that are currently exercisable, or that will become exercisable, within 60 days of December 31, 2008.

Each share of Class B common stock is convertible into a share of common stock at any time at the option of the holder. The Class B common stock is also automatically convertible into common stock under certain circumstances. Holders of Class B common stock are entitled to 10 votes for each share of Class B common stock held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders, including election of directors. For a full description of the rights of the Class B common stock see "Description of Capital Stock" in Dick's Sporting Goods, Inc.'s Registration Statement, as amended, on Form S-1 (File No. 333-96587).

² Edward W. Stack maintains sole voting power, but not dispositive power, with respect to 347,700 shares of Class B common stock held by Richard T. Stack. Edward W. Stack also owns 23,694 shares of restricted common stock, which vest 100% in March of 2011. Until the shares of restricted stock vest, they may be voted, but may not be sold or otherwise transferred.

³ On December 4, 2007, Mr. Stack amended an option held by his brother Martin Stack. The option, as amended, is exercisable beginning December 2, 2009, and for thirty-six months thereafter, for 759,800 shares of common stock.

The option is exercisable at 75% of the then per share market price on the date of exercise. Market price means the mean between the high and low prices of the common stock on the national securities exchange on the day on which the option is exercised, if the common stock is then being traded on a national securities exchange, and if the common stock is then being traded on such an exchange but there are no sales on such day, the market price shall be deemed to be the mean between the high and low prices of the common stock on the national securities exchange on the day on which the most recent sales occurred prior to the date of exercise; and if the common stock is not then traded on such an exchange, then the market price shall be deemed to be the mean between the high and low bid and asked prices for the common stock on the over-the-counter market on the day on which the option is exercised.
