MERGER PROPOSAL YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

To the Shareholders of NSD Bancorp, Inc.:

We invite you to attend a special meeting of our shareholders that will be held on _____, _____, 2005 at 3:00 p.m., prevailing time, at the Ballroom of the Holiday Inn, 4859 McKnight Road, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon, among other things, a proposal to approve and adopt an agreement and plan of merger, dated as of October 14, 2004, providing for our merger with and into F.N.B. Corporation (FNB).

If the merger agreement is approved and adopted and the merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of our common stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.8 shares of FNB common stock. 1.8 shares of FNB common stock represents a value of $ _____ per share based on FNB 's closing share price of $ _____ on _____, 2005, the latest practicable trading date before the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus, as reported on the New York Stock Exchange where shares of FNB common stock are listed under the symbol FNB.

No assurance can be given that the value of 1.8 shares of FNB common stock received by you at the effective time of the merger will be substantially equivalent to the value of 1.8 shares of FNB common stock at the time of the vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement. As the market value of FNB common stock fluctuates, the value of 1.8 shares of FNB common stock that you will receive will correspondingly fluctuate.

The merger cannot be completed unless the holders of not less than 51% of our outstanding shares of common stock vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement at our special meeting and the required regulatory approvals are received.

Following the merger, our subsidiary bank, NorthSide Bank, will be merged in a separate merger with and into FNB 's subsidiary bank, First National Bank of Pennsylvania.

In addition, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to grant discretionary authority to adjourn our special meeting to solicit additional proxies in favor of approving and adopting the merger agreement.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO APPROVE AND ADOPT THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND FOR THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL.

The accompanying notice of special meeting and proxy statement/ prospectus give you detailed information about our special meeting, the merger, the merger agreement, the shares of FNB common stock issuable in the merger and other matters. We recommend that you read these materials carefully, including the considerations discussed under Risk Factors Relating to the Merger beginning on page 19 and the appendices thereto, which include the merger agreement.

Your vote is important. Whether or not you plan to attend our special meeting, please complete, sign, date and promptly return the enclosed proxy to ensure that your shares will be represented at our special meeting. If you attend our special meeting and wish to vote in person, you may withdraw your proxy and do so.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND OUR SPECIAL MEETING

Q. What matters will be considered at our special meeting?

A. At our special meeting, our shareholders will be asked to vote on a proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement whereby we will merge with and into FNB. We sometimes refer to this proposal as the merger proposal in this proxy statement/prospectus. Our shareholders will also be asked to vote upon a proposal to grant discretionary authority to adjourn our special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if we have not received sufficient votes to approve the merger at the time of our special meeting. We sometimes refer to this proposal as the adjournment proposal in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q. What will I receive upon consummation of the merger?

A. Upon consummation of the merger, you will have the right to receive 1.8 shares of FNB common stock in exchange for each share of our common stock that you own, subject to customary antidilution adjustments.

Q. What is the recommendation of our board of directors?

A. Our board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger is fair to you and in the best interests of our shareholders and us and unanimously recommends that you vote for the merger proposal.

In making this determination, our board of directors considered the opinion of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., our independent financial advisor, whom we refer to as Keefe in this proxy statement/prospectus, as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the exchange ratio in the merger agreement. Our board of directors also reviewed and evaluated the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and the merger with the assistance of our independent legal counsel.

Our board of directors also recommends that you vote for the adjournment proposal.

Q. What was the opinion of our financial advisor?

A. Keefe presented an opinion to our board of directors to the effect that, as of October 14, 2004 and based upon the assumptions made by Keefe, the matters it considered and the limitations of its review as set forth in its opinion, the exchange ratio in the merger agreement is fair to our shareholders from a financial point of view.

Q. What do I need to do now?

A. After you carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus and decide how you want to vote on the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal, you should complete, date and sign your proxy card and mail it in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented at our special meeting, even if you plan to attend our special meeting and vote in person.

Q. Why is my vote important?

A. Our articles of incorporation require the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 51% of our outstanding shares of common stock in order to approve and adopt the merger proposal. Therefore, if you fail to vote or abstain from voting on the merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal.

Q. How do I vote in person?

A. If you attend our special meeting and wish to vote in person, we will give you a ballot when you arrive at our special meeting. If your shares are held in street name, which means that your shares are registered in the name of a bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record instead of your own name, you must bring an account statement or a letter from your holder of record showing that you are the beneficial owner of the shares on _____, 2004, the record date for determining our shareholders who are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, our special meeting, in order to be permitted to cast a ballot at our special meeting.

Edgar Filing: FNB CORP/FL/ - Form S-4

Q. How do I vote my shares if they are held in street name?

A. If you are not a holder of record but you are a beneficial holder, meaning that your shares are registered in a name other than your own, such as a street name, you must either direct the holder of record of your shares as to how you want your shares to be voted or obtain a proxy from the holder of record that you may vote yourself.

Q. What if I fail to instruct my broker?

A. Brokers may not vote shares of our common stock that they hold for the benefit of another person either for or against the approval of the merger proposal without specific instructions from the person who beneficially owns those shares. Therefore, if your shares are held by a broker and you do not give your broker instructions on how to vote your shares, this will have the same effect as voting against the approval of the merger proposal.

Q. May I vote electronically over the internet or by telephone?

A. If your shares of our common stock are registered in your own name, you may vote either over the internet or by telephone. Special instructions to be followed by any registered shareholder interested in voting via the internet or by telephone are set forth on the enclosed proxy card. The internet and telephone voting procedures are designed to authenticate your identity and to allow you to vote your shares and confirm that your voting instructions have been properly recorded.

If your shares are registered in the name of a bank or brokerage firm, you may be eligible to vote your shares electronically over the internet or by telephone. Many banks and brokerage firms participate in the ADP Investor Communication Services online program. This program provides eligible shareholders who receive a paper copy of this proxy statement/ prospectus the opportunity to vote via the internet or by telephone. If your bank or brokerage firm is participating in ADP's program, your proxy card will provide the instructions. If your proxy card does not reference internet or telephone information, please complete and return the proxy card in the enclosed self-addressed, postage paid envelope.

Q. May I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy?

A. Yes. You may revoke your proxy at any time before the vote is taken at our special meeting. If you have not voted through a bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record, you may revoke your proxy by:

submitting written notice of revocation to our corporate secretary prior to the voting of that proxy at our special meeting;

submitting a properly executed proxy with a later date; or voting in person at our special meeting.

However, simply attending our special meeting without voting will not revoke an earlier proxy.

If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record, you should follow the instructions of the bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record regarding the revocation of proxies.

If you voted your shares by telephone or internet, you can revoke your prior telephone or internet vote by recording a different vote, or by signing and returning a proxy card dated as of a date that is later than your last telephone or internet vote.

Q. When do you expect to complete the merger?

A. We anticipate that we will obtain all necessary regulatory approvals to consummate the merger in the first quarter of 2005. However, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur. We must first obtain the approval of our shareholders at our special meeting and we and FNB must obtain the requisite regulatory approvals.

Q. Should I send my stock certificates now?

A. No. Holders of our common stock should not submit their NSD stock certificates for exchange until they receive the transmittal instructions from the exchange agent, Registrar and Transfer Company.

Table of Contents

Q. What rights do I have to an appraisal of my shares?

A. Under Pennsylvania law, you do not have the right to a judicial appraisal of the fair value of your shares of our common stock in connection with the merger.

Q. Who can help answer my questions?

A. If you have additional questions about the merger or would like additional copies of this proxy statement/ prospectus, please call William C. Marsh, our Chief Financial Officer, at (412) 366-8340.

You will not be entitled to vote at our special meeting if you are not a shareholder of record as of the close of business on _____, 2004.

Each share of our common stock is entitled to one vote. On the record date, _____ shares of our common stock were entitled to vote at our special meeting.

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of at least a majority of our common stock issued and outstanding on the record date is necessary to constitute a quorum at our special meeting. Abstentions will be counted solely for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. There must be a quorum in order for the vote on the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal to occur.

The Merger

Certain Effects of the Merger (Pages 39-40)

Upon consummation of the merger:

Each share of our common stock will automatically be converted into the right to receive 1.8 shares of FNB common stock, subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments.

We will cease to exist as a separate legal entity and all of our operations will be conducted by FNB; and

The holders of our common stock will no longer have any interest in us, including in any of our future growth or earnings.

Following consummation of the merger, FNB and its shareholders will be the only beneficiaries of any future growth or earnings, but will also bear all of the future risk of any decrease in the value of our business.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors (Pages 33-34)

Our board of directors has unanimously determined that the terms of the merger agreement and the merger are fair to and in the best interests of our shareholders. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the merger proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal.

Stock Options (Page 47)

The merger agreement provides that, at the effective time of the merger, each unvested outstanding option to purchase our common stock will cease to represent a right to acquire our common stock and will be converted automatically into a right to acquire that number of shares of FNB common stock equal to the number of shares of our common stock subject to the option times 1.8 (the exchange ratio in the merger) at a price equal to the pre-merger exercise price of the option divided by 1.8 (the exchange ratio in the merger). The holders of vested options at the effective time of the merger will have the right to receive options to purchase FNB common stock as provided in the preceding sentence or to surrender their options for cash in an amount equal to the difference between the average closing price of FNB common stock for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the merger multiplied by 1.8 (the exchange ratio in the merger) and the exercise price of their options.

Opinion of Keefe as Our Financial Advisor (Pages 34-39)

Keefe, our financial advisor in connection with the merger, delivered a written fairness opinion to our board of directors on October 14, 2004 that, as of October 14, 2004, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the exchange ratio in the merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to our shareholders.

Appendix B to this proxy statement/ prospectus sets forth the full text of the Keefe opinion, which sets forth the assumptions Keefe made, the procedures Keefe followed, the matters Keefe considered and the limitations on the review undertaken by Keefe in connection with its opinion. Keefe provided its opinion for the information and assistance of our board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger. The Keefe opinion is not a recommendation as to how you should vote with respect to the merger or any related matter. We encourage you to read the opinion in its entirety. Pursuant to an engagement letter we entered into with Keefe, we agreed to pay Keefe a fee, which is more fully described in The Merger Opinion of Our Financial Advisor beginning on page 34.

In considering our board of directors' recommendation that you vote FOR the merger proposal, you should be aware that certain of our executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, your interests as a shareholder. These interests relate to or arise from, among other things:

the continued indemnification of our current directors and executive officers under the merger agreement and providing these individuals with directors' and officers' insurance;

the proposed execution of an employment agreement between FNB Bank and Andrew W. Hasley, our President and Chief Operating Officer, that will become effective upon the consummation of the merger;

the receipt of change of control payments by our senior officers pursuant to change of control agreements;

the potential for vesting in stock options, severance benefits, retirement benefits, post-employment life insurance and other employee, officer and director benefits that otherwise would terminate or lapse; and one member of our board of directors will be appointed to the board of directors of FNB and three members of our board of directors will be appointed to FNB Bank's board of directors.

Conditions to the Merger (Page 53)

Currently, we expect to complete the merger in the first quarter of 2005. However, as more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement, the completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. These conditions include, among others:

approval of the merger proposal by the holders of not less than 51% of our outstanding common stock;

the receipt of all regulatory approvals needed to complete the merger, including the approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, which we sometimes refer to as the OCC in this proxy statement/prospectus, the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, which we sometimes refer to as the Federal Reserve Board in this proxy statement/prospectus and the approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking, which we sometimes refer to as the Department in this proxy statement/prospectus;

the absence of any law or injunction that would effectively prohibit the merger; and the receipt of legal opinions from FNB's and our legal counsel as to the tax treatment of the merger.

We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (Page 54)

We may agree to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even after our shareholders approve the merger proposal, if the termination is approved by our board of directors and the board of directors of FNB.

Either FNB or we may terminate the merger agreement, even after our shareholders approve the merger proposal, if certain conditions have not been met, such as:

obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals for the merger;

the other party's material breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement, provided the terminating party is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements;

if the merger has not been consummated by June 30, 2005, unless the reason the merger has not been consummated by that date is a breach of the merger agreement by the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement; or if the holders of not less than 51% of our outstanding common stock fail to approve the merger proposal, provided we are not in material breach of our obligations to have our board of directors recommend approval of the merger proposal and to take all reasonable lawful actions to solicit such shareholder approval.

FNB may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to our special meeting if we have:

breached our obligation not to initiate, solicit or encourage, or take any action to facilitate another proposal to acquire us, participate in any discussions or negotiations relating to another proposal to acquire us or, except as permitted by and subject to certain terms of, the merger agreement, to enter into an agreement relating to a proposal to acquire us on terms and conditions superior to those in the merger agreement or approve, recommend or enter into any agreement relating to another proposal to acquire us;

failed to have our board of directors recommend approval of the merger proposal to our shareholders or our board of directors shall have changed its recommendation, except as permitted by the merger agreement with respect to a proposal to acquire us on terms and conditions superior to those in the merger agreement;

recommended approval of another proposal to acquire us; or failed to call and hold our special meeting.

We may terminate the merger agreement if the average closing price of FNB common stock during a specified period before receipt of the last required regulatory approval of the merger is less than $17.34 and FNB common stock underperforms the Nasdaq Bank Index by 20% and FNB does not elect to increase the exchange ratio as provided in the merger agreement.

Except as provided below with respect to termination fees and expenses and the parties' respective confidentiality obligations, none of the parties will have any liability or obligation other than liabilities or damages incurred by any of them as a result of their willful breach of any of their respective representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement.

Expenses; Termination Fee (Page 55)

The merger agreement provides that we will pay FNB a break-up fee of $6,000,000 if:

we terminate the merger agreement in order to enter into an agreement relating to an acquisition transaction that has terms superior to those of the merger agreement from the perspective of our shareholders;

FNB terminates the merger agreement because we have breached our obligation not to encourage or solicit acquisition proposals, we have failed to hold our special meeting or our board of directors has not recommended approval of the merger proposal or has changed its recommendation or has recommended approval of another proposal to acquire us;

A tender or exchange offer for 25% or more of our common stock is made and our board of directors fails to send a statement to our shareholders recommending rejection of that offer within 10 days after the offer has been made; or

FNB or we terminate the merger agreement because:

our shareholders did not approve the merger proposal;

a proposal to acquire us is made by a third party after October 14, 2004 and is not withdrawn prior to termination of the merger agreement; and within 18 months thereafter we are acquired by that third party or other specified events occur.

Table of Contents

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (Pages 56-58)

We expect the merger to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes. In general, a tax-free reorganization means that our shareholders will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of their common stock for FNB common stock in the merger, except to the extent they receive cash instead of fractional shares.

Dividends (Page 72)

During the first nine months of 2004, FNB has paid cash dividends on its common stock totaling $0.69 per share. Based on the 1.8 share exchange ratio and FNB's current dividend rate, holders of our common stock would experience an anticipated annual dividend increase of approximately 88.0% (from our current quarterly dividend of $0.22 to $0.41 per share of NSD common stock equivalent). Although FNB has no current plan or intention to increase its dividend rate, FNB's board of directors may, subject to applicable law, change its dividend rate in the future. FNB's ability to pay dividends on its common stock is subject to various legal and regulatory limitations.

Certain Differences in Rights of Shareholders (Page 59-71)

When the merger is completed, the rights of our shareholders will be governed by Florida law and FNB's articles of incorporation and by-laws rather than Pennsylvania law and our articles of incorporation and by-laws.

Future FNB Acquisitions (Page 21)

As part of its growth strategy, FNB may acquire other bank or financial services institutions to expand or strengthen its market position. Risks associated with this strategy are described in Risk Factors Relating to the Merger.

Comparative Market Prices and Dividends (Page 72)

FNB common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol FNB. Prices for our common stock are quoted on the National Market System of the National Association of Securities Dealers under the symbol NSDB. The table on page 72 lists the quarterly price range of FNB common stock and our common stock since 2002 as well as the quarterly cash dividends we and FNB have paid. The following table shows the closing price of FNB common stock and our common stock as reported on October 14, 2004, the last trading day before we announced the merger, and on , 2005 the last practicable trading day before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. This table also shows the implied value of the merger consideration proposed for each share of NSD common stock, which we calculated by multiplying the closing price of FNB common stock on those dates by 1.8 (the exchange ratio in the merger).

	FNB Common Stock	NSD Common Stock	Implied Value of One Share of NSD Common Stock

The market price of FNB common stock may change at any time. Consequently, the total dollar value of the FNB common stock that you will be entitled to receive as a result of the merger may be significantly higher or lower than its current value.

Table of ContentsSELECTED CONSOLIDATED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA OF FNB

Set forth below are highlights from FNB's consolidated financial data as of and for the years December 31, 1999 through 2003 and FNB's unaudited consolidated financial data as of and for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2004. The results of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations of FNB for the full year. FNB management prepared the unaudited information on the same basis as it prepared FNB's audited consolidated financial statements. In the opinion of FNB's management, this information reflects all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of this data for these periods. You should read this information in conjunction with FNB's consolidated financial statements and related notes included in FNB's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, and FNB's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2004, June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004 that are incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and from which this information is derived. As a result of the spin-off, the Florida operations' earnings for prior years have been classified as discontinued operations on FNB's consolidated income statements and the assets and liabilities related to the discontinued Florida operations have been disclosed separately on FNB's consolidated balance sheets for prior years. In addition, note that, for years prior to 2004, the book value at period end, stockholders' equity, the return on average assets ratio, the return on average equity ratio and the dividend payout ratio for prior years include the discontinued operations.

SELECTED CONSOLIDATED UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following table sets forth information about FNB's financial condition and results of operations, including per share data and financial ratios, after giving effect to the October 8, 2004 merger of Slippery Rock Financial Corporation (SRFC) with and into FNB and the merger of NSD with and into FNB. This information is called pro forma financial information in this proxy statement/prospectus. The table shows the information as if the mergers had become effective on September 30, 2004, in the case of balance sheet data, and on January 1, 2003, in the case of income statement data. This pro forma information assumes that the mergers are accounted for using the purchase method of accounting and represents a current estimate based on available information about FNB's and NSD's results of operations. See Accounting Treatment on page 56. The pro forma financial information includes adjustments to record the assets and liabilities of SFRC and NSD at their estimated fair value and is subject to further adjustment as additional information becomes available and as further analyses are completed. The pro forma income statements do not include any amount for merger-related costs that will be incurred to combine the operations of NSD with those of FNB. These charges will be recorded based on the nature and timing of the integration. This table should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by, the historical financial statements, including the notes thereto, of NSD and FNB incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information on page 76.

The pro forma financial information, while helpful in illustrating the combined financial condition and results of operations of SFRC, NSD and FNB once the merger with NSD is completed under a particular set of assumptions, does not reflect the impact of possible revenue enhancements, expense efficiencies and asset dispositions, among other possibilities, that may occur as a result of the mergers and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict future results. The pro forma financial information also does not necessarily reflect what the combined historical results of operations of SFRC, NSD and FNB would have been had they been merged during these periods.

NOTE A:

Edgar Filing: FNB CORP/FL/ - Form S-4

The pro forma adjustments represent the estimated purchase accounting entries to record the merger of NSD with FNB. The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net assets acquired is allocated to goodwill. Estimated fair value adjustments included in the unaudited pro forma balance sheet and income statement have been determined based on information available as of September 30, 2004. The final determination of the fair values of the assets and liabilities will be made as of the effective date of the merger. As such, the final purchase accounting entries may differ from the estimates provided herein. Fair value adjustments will be amortized on a straight line basis over their estimated remaining lives. Deferred tax adjustments, related to the net fair value adjustments, are calculated based on a 35% tax rate.

Included in the pro forma adjustments is an allocation of the purchase price to core deposit intangibles. Under the SFAS No. 141 and No. 142 accounting standards, a core deposit intangible is separated from goodwill and amortized over its remaining useful life. The remaining goodwill intangible is not subject to amortization under SFAS No. 141 and No. 142 and will be evaluated periodically for possible impairment.

NOTE B:

The pro forma adjustment represents estimated direct acquisition costs of approximately $7.9 million related to certain severance payments, employee benefits, fees related to the early termination of certain contracts and professional fees such as legal, accounting and advisory fees.

RISK FACTORS RELATING TO THE MERGER

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Risks Specifically Related to the Merger

FNB may encounter integration difficulties or may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

FNB and NSD may not be able to integrate their operations without encountering difficulties, including, without limitation, the loss of key employees and customers, the disruption of their respective ongoing businesses or possible inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies.

In determining that the merger is in the best interests of FNB and NSD, their respective boards of directors considered that enhanced earnings may result from the consummation of the merger, including from reduction of duplicate costs, improved efficiency and cross-marketing opportunities. However, there can be no assurance that any enhanced earnings will result from the merger.

Because the market price of FNB common stock may fluctuate, you cannot be certain of the market value of the common stock that you will receive in the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of our common stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.8 shares of FNB common stock. Any change in the price of FNB common stock prior to the merger will affect the market value of the stock that you will receive in the merger. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in FNB's businesses, operations and prospects and regulatory considerations.

The prices of FNB common stock and our common stock at the closing of the merger may vary from their respective prices on the date the merger agreement was executed, on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and on the date of our special meeting. As a result, the value represented by the exchange ratio will also vary. For example, based on the range of closing prices of FNB common stock during the period from October 14, 2004, the last full trading day before public announcement of the merger, through _____, 2005, the last practicable full trading day prior to the date of the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus, the exchange ratio represented a value ranging from a high of $ _____ on _____, 2004 to a low of $ _____ on _____, 2004 for each share of our common stock. Because the date the merger will be completed will be later than the date of our special meeting, at the time of our special meeting you will not know what the market value of FNB's common stock will be upon completion of the merger, although we have a right to terminate the merger agreement if the price of FNB common stock declines by more than a specified amount and also underperforms the Nasdaq Bank Index by a specified percentage.

Future results of the combined companies may materially differ from the pro forma financial information presented in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Future results of the combined FNB and NSD may be materially different from those shown in the pro forma financial statements that show only a combination of their historical results. The costs FNB will incur in connection with the merger may be higher or lower than FNB has estimated, depending upon how costly or difficult it is to integrate FNB and NSD. Furthermore, these charges may decrease the capital of FNB after the merger that could be used for profitable, income-earning investments in the future.

The merger agreement limits our ability to pursue alternatives to the merger.

The merger agreement contains provisions that, subject to limited exceptions, limit our ability to discuss, facilitate or enter into agreements with third parties to acquire us. In general, if we avail ourselves of those limited exceptions, we will be obligated to pay FNB a break-up fee of $6,000,000. These provisions could discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring us from proposing or considering our acquisition even if that potential acquiror were prepared to pay a higher price to our shareholders than the price FNB proposes to pay under the merger agreement.

Risks Related to Owning FNB Common Stock

FNB's status as a holding company makes it dependent on dividends from its subsidiaries to meet its obligations.

FNB is a holding company and conducts almost all of its operations through its subsidiaries. FNB does not have any significant assets other than the stock of its subsidiaries. Accordingly, FNB depends on dividends from its subsidiaries to meet its obligations. FNB's right to participate in any distribution of earnings or assets of its subsidiaries is subject to the prior claims of creditors of such subsidiaries. Under federal and state law, FNB's bank subsidiary is limited in the amount of dividends it may pay to FNB without prior regulatory approval. Also, bank regulators have the authority to prohibit FNB's subsidiary bank from paying dividends if the bank regulators determine the payment would be an unsafe and unsound banking practice.

Interest rate volatility could significantly harm FNB's business.

FNB's results of operations are affected by the monetary and fiscal policies of the federal government and the regulatory policies of governmental authorities. A significant component of FNB's earnings is its net interest income, which is the difference between the income from interest-earning assets, such as loans, and the expense of interest-bearing liabilities, such as deposits. A change in market interest rates could adversely affect FNB's earnings if market interest rates change such that the interest FNB pays on deposits and borrowings increases faster than the interest it collects on loans and investments. Consequently, FNB, along with other financial institutions generally, is sensitive to interest rate fluctuations.

FNB's results of operations are significantly affected by the ability of its borrowers to repay their loans.

Lending money is an essential part of the banking business. However, borrowers do not always repay their loans. The risk of non-payment is affected by:

credit risks of a particular borrower;

changes in economic and industry conditions;

the duration of the loan; and in the case of a collateralized loan, uncertainties as to the future value of the collateral.

Generally, commercial/industrial, construction and commercial real estate loans present a greater risk of non-payment by a borrower than other types of loans. In addition, consumer loans typically have shorter terms and lower balances with higher yields compared to real estate mortgage loans, but generally carry higher risks of default. Consumer loan collections are dependent on the borrower's continuing financial stability, and thus are more likely to be affected by adverse personal circumstances. Furthermore, the application of various federal and state laws, including bankruptcy and insolvency laws, may limit the amount that can be recovered on these loans.

FNB's financial condition and results of operations would be adversely affected if its allowance for loan losses were not sufficient to absorb actual losses.

There is no precise method of predicting loan losses. FNB can give no assurance that its allowance for loan losses is or will be sufficient to absorb actual loan losses. Excess loan losses could have a material adverse effect on FNB's financial condition and results of operations. FNB attempts to maintain an appropriate allowance for loan losses to provide for estimated losses in its loan portfolio. FNB periodically determines the amount of its allowance for loan losses based upon consideration of several factors, including:

a regular review of the quality, mix and size of the overall loan portfolio;

historical loan loss experience;

Table of Contents

evaluation of non-performing loans;

assessment of economic conditions and their effects on FNB's existing portfolio; and the amount and quality of collateral, including guarantees, securing loans.

FNB's financial condition may be adversely affected if it is unable to attract sufficient deposits to fund its anticipated loan growth.

FNB funds its loan growth primarily through deposits. To the extent that FNB is unable to attract and maintain sufficient levels of deposits to fund its loan growth, FNB would be required to raise additional funds through public or private financings. FNB can give no assurance that it would be able to obtain these funds on terms that are favorable to it.

FNB could experience significant difficulties and complications in connection with its growth and acquisition strategy.

FNB has grown significantly over the last few years and may seek to continue to grow by acquiring financial institutions and branches as well as non-depository entities engaged in permissible activities for its financial institution subsidiaries. However, the market for acquisitions is highly competitive. FNB may not be as successful in the future as it has been in the past in identifying financial institution and branch acquisition candidates, integrating acquired institutions or preventing deposit erosion at acquired institutions or branches.

As part of this acquisition strategy, FNB may acquire additional banks and non-bank entities that it believes provide a strategic fit with its business. To the extent that FNB is successful with this strategy, FNB cannot assure you that it will be able to manage this growth adequately and profitably. For example, acquiring any bank or non-bank entity will involve risks commonly associated with acquisitions, including:

potential exposure to unknown or contingent liabilities of banks and non-bank entities FNB acquires;

exposure to potential asset quality issues of acquired banks and non-bank entities;

potential disruption to FNB's business;

potential diversion of the time and attention of FNB's management; and the possible loss of key employees and customers of the banks and other businesses FNB acquires.

In addition to acquisitions, FNB Bank may expand into additional communities or attempt to strengthen its position in its current markets by undertaking additional de novo branch openings. Based on its experience, FNB believes that it generally takes up to three years for new banking facilities to achieve operational profitability due to the impact of organizational and overhead expenses and the start-up phase of generating loans and deposits. To the extent that FNB Bank undertakes additional de novo branch openings, FNB Bank is likely to continue to experience the effects of higher operating expenses relative to operating income from the new banking facilities, which may have an adverse effect on FNB's net income, earnings per share, return on average shareholders' equity and return on average assets.

FNB may encounter unforeseen expenses, as well as difficulties and complications in integrating expanded operations and new employees without disruption to its overall operations. Following each acquisition, FNB must expend substantial resources to integrate the entities. The integration of non-banking entities often involves combining different industry cultures and business methodologies. The failure to integrate successfully the entities FNB acquires into its existing operations may adversely affect its results of operations and financial condition.

FNB could be adversely affected by changes in the law, especially changes in the regulation of the banking industry.

FNB and its subsidiaries operate in a highly regulated environment and are subject to supervision and regulation by several governmental regulatory agencies, including the Federal Reserve Board, the OCC and the

Table of Contents

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which we sometimes refer to as the FDIC in this proxy statement/ prospectus. Regulations are generally intended to provide protection for depositors and customers rather than for investors. FNB is subject to changes in federal and state law, regulations, governmental policies, income tax laws and accounting principles. Changes in regulation could adversely affect the banking industry as a whole and could limit FNB's growth and the return to investors by restricting such activities as:

the payment of dividends;

mergers with or acquisitions of other institutions;

investments;

loans and interest rates;

the provision of securities, insurance or trust services; and the types of non-deposit activities in which FNB's financial institution subsidiaries may engage.

In addition, legislation may change present capital requirements, which could restrict FNB's activities and require FNB to maintain additional capital.

FNB's results of operations could be adversely affected due to significant competition.

FNB may not be able to compete effectively in its markets, which could adversely affect FNB's results of operations. The banking and financial service industry in each of FNB's market areas is highly competitive. The competitive environment is a result of:

changes in regulation;

changes in technology and product delivery systems; and the accelerated pace of consolidation among financial services providers.

FNB competes for loans, deposits and customers with various bank and non-bank financial service providers, many of which are larger in terms of total assets and capitalization, have greater access to the capital markets and offer a broader array of financial services than FNB does. Competition with such institutions may cause FNB to increase its deposit rates or decrease its interest rate spread on loans it originates.

FNB's continued pace of growth may require it to raise additional capital in the future, but that capital may not be available when it is needed.

FNB is required by federal and state regulatory authorities to maintain adequate levels of capital to support its operations. As a financial holding company, FNB seeks to maintain capital sufficient to meet the well capitalized standard set by regulators. FNB anticipates that its current capital resources will satisfy its capital requirements for the foreseeable future. FNB may at some point, however, need to raise additional capital to support continued growth, both internally and through acquisitions.

FNB's ability to raise additional capital, if needed, will depend on conditions in the capital markets at that time, which are outside FNB's control, and on its financial performance. Accordingly, FNB cannot assure you of its ability to raise additional capital, if needed, on terms acceptable to it. If FNB cannot raise additional capital when needed, its ability to expand its operations through internal growth and acquisitions could be materially impaired.

Adverse economic conditions in FNB's market area may adversely impact its results of operations and financial condition.

The majority of FNB's business is concentrated in western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio, which are traditionally slower growth markets than other areas of the United States. As a result, FNB Bank's loan portfolio and results of operations may be adversely affected by factors that have a significant impact on the economic conditions in this market area. The local economies of this market area historically have been less robust than the economy of the nation as a whole and may not be subject to the same fluctuations as the national economy. Adverse economic conditions in FNB's market area, including the loss of certain significant employers, could reduce its growth rate, affect its borrowers' ability to repay their loans and generally affect FNB's financial condition and results of operations. Furthermore, a downturn in real estate values in FNB Bank's market area could cause many of its loans to become inadequately collateralized.

Certain provisions of FNB's articles of incorporation and bylaws and Florida law may discourage takeovers.

FNB's articles of incorporation and by-laws contain certain anti-takeover provisions that may discourage or may make more difficult or expensive a tender offer, change in control or takeover attempt that is opposed by FNB's board of directors. In particular, FNB's articles of incorporation and by-laws:

classify its board of directors into three classes, so that shareholders elect only one-third of its board of directors each year;

permit shareholders to remove directors only for cause;

do not permit shareholders to take action except at an annual or special meeting of shareholders;

require shareholders to give FNB advance notice to nominate candidates for election to its board of directors or to make shareholder proposals at a shareholders' meeting;

permit FNB's board of directors to issue, without shareholder approval unless otherwise required by law, preferred stock with such terms as its board of directors may determine; and require the vote of the holders of at least 75% of FNB's voting shares for shareholder amendments to its by-laws.

Under Florida law, the approval of a business combination with shareholders owning 10% or more of the voting shares of a corporation requires the vote of holders of at least 2/3 of the voting shares not owned by such shareholder, unless the transaction is approved by a majority of the corporation's disinterested directors. In addition, Florida law generally provides that shares of a corporation acquired in excess of certain specified thresholds will not possess any voting rights unless the voting rights are approved by a majority vote of the corporation's disinterested shareholders.

These provisions of FNB's articles of incorporation and by-laws and of Florida law could discourage potential acquisition proposals and could delay or prevent a change in control, even though a majority of FNB's shareholders may consider such proposals desirable. Such provisions could also make it more difficult for third parties to remove and replace the members of FNB's board of directors. Moreover, these provisions could diminish the opportunities for shareholders to participate in certain tender offers, including tender offers at prices above the then-current market price of FNB's common stock, and may also inhibit increases in the trading price of FNB's common stock that could result from takeover attempts.

Loss of members of FNB's executive team could have a negative impact on its business.

FNB's success is dependent, in part, on the continued service of its executive officers, including Peter Mortensen, its Chairman of the Board, and Stephen J. Gurgovits, its President and Chief Executive Officer. The loss of the services of either of these executive officers could have a negative impact on FNB's business because of their skills, relationships in the banking community and years of industry experience, and the difficulty of promptly finding qualified replacement executive officers.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus contains or incorporates by reference a number of forward-looking statements regarding the financial condition, results of operations, earnings outlook, business and prospects of FNB, NSD and the potential combined company as well as statements for the period following the completion of the merger. You can find many of these statements by looking for words such as plan, believe, expect, intend, anticipate, estimate, project, potential, possible or other similar expressions.

The forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties. The ability of either FNB or NSD to predict results or the actual effects of their plans and strategies, or those of the combined company, is inherently uncertain. Accordingly, actual results may differ materially from anticipated results. Some of the factors that may cause actual results or earnings to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those discussed under Risk Factors Relating to the Merger beginning on page 19, as well as the following:

the businesses of FNB and NSD may not be integrated successfully or the integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than currently anticipated;

expected revenue synergies and cost savings from the merger may not be realized within the expected time frame or at all;

revenues may be lower than expected following the merger;

deposit attrition, operating costs, loss of customers and business disruption, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with our employees, customers or suppliers may be greater than anticipated following the merger;

the regulatory approvals for the merger may not be obtained on acceptable terms, on the anticipated schedule or at all;

the merger may not be approved by the requisite vote of our shareholders;

competitive pressure among financial services companies is intense;

general economic conditions may be less favorable than expected;

political conditions and related actions by the United States military abroad may adversely affect economic conditions as a whole;

changes in the interest rate environment may reduce interest margins and impact funding sources;

changes in market rates and prices may adversely impact the value of financial products and assets;

legislation or changes in the regulatory environment may adversely affect the businesses in which FNB and NSD are engaged; and litigation liabilities, including costs, expenses, settlements and judgments, may adversely affect either company or their businesses.

Because these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these statements, which speak only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or the date of any document incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger or other matters addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus and attributable to FNB or NSD or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section. Abstentions will also have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger proposal. Accordingly, we urge you to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

When considering our board of directors' recommendation that you vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement, you should be aware that certain of our executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, your interests as a shareholder. See "The Merger - Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 42.

Discretionary Authority to Adjourn Our Special Meeting. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the eligible shares of our common stock present in person or represented by proxy at our special meeting is required to approve the proposal to grant discretionary authority to adjourn our special meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies for the merger proposal. The failure to vote, either by proxy or in person, will have no effect on the outcome of the voting on the adjournment proposal. However, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the adjournment proposal.

No Appraisal Rights

Under Pennsylvania law, you do not have the right to a judicial appraisal of the fair market value of your shares of our common stock in connection with the merger.

Director and Executive Officer Voting

As of the record date, our directors and executive officers and their affiliates beneficially owned 802,125 shares of our common stock, or approximately 23.5% of the issued and outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at our special meeting. In addition, as of the record date, FNB owned 165,005 shares of our common stock or approximately 4.8% of the shares of our common stock entitled to vote at our special meeting. FNB purchased 165,000 of these shares on October 28, 2004 at a price of $37.00 per share, paid in cash. FNB has advised us it will vote its shares for approval of the merger proposal. In addition, as of the record date, FNB's directors and executive officers and their affiliates owned _____ shares of our common stock, or approximately _____ % of the shares entitled to vote at our special meeting.

Proxies

You should complete and return the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus in order to ensure that your vote is counted at our special meeting and at any adjournment, postponement or continuation of our special meeting, regardless of whether you plan to attend our special meeting. If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, we will count your proxy card as a vote in favor of approval of the merger proposal and in favor of approval of the adjournment proposal.

If your shares of our common stock are held in the name of a bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record, you will receive instructions from the bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record that you must follow in order for your shares of our common stock to be voted.

submitting written notice of revocation to our corporate secretary prior to the voting of that proxy at our special meeting;

submitting a properly executed proxy with a later date; or

Written notices of revocation and other communications regarding the revocation of your proxy should be addressed to:

NSD Bancorp, Inc.

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15237
Attention: Gloria J. Bush, Secretary

If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record, you should follow the instructions of the bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record regarding the revocation of proxies.

A proxy appointment will not be revoked by the death or incapacity of the shareholder executing the proxy unless notice of the death or incapacity is given to our corporate secretary before the shares of our common stock represented by such proxy are voted.

How Proxies are Counted. All shares of our common stock represented by properly executed proxies received before or at our special meeting, and not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated in the proxies.

We will count a properly executed proxy marked ABSTAIN as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but an abstention will have the effect of voting against approval of the merger proposal and voting against approval of the adjournment proposal.

Brokers may not vote shares of our common stock that they hold beneficially either for or against the approval of the merger proposal without specific instructions from the person who beneficially owns those shares. Therefore, if your shares are held by a broker and you do not give your broker instructions on how to vote your shares, this will have the same effect as voting against approval of the merger proposal.

In addition, brokers may not vote on the adjournment proposal without specific instructions from the person who beneficially owns those shares. Nevertheless, shares held by a broker for which you do not give your broker instructions on how to vote will have no effect on the outcome of the voting on the adjournment proposal.

Solicitation. We will pay for the costs of our special meeting and for the mailing of this proxy statement/ prospectus to our shareholders, as well as all other costs we incur in connection with the solicitation of proxies from our shareholders. However, FNB and we will share equally the cost of printing this proxy statement/ prospectus and the filing fees paid to the SEC.

In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, our directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies by telephone or in person. Our directors, officers and employees will not be specially compensated for these activities. We also intend to request that brokers, banks, nominees and other holders of record solicit proxies from their principals, and we will reimburse the brokers, banks, nominees and other holders of record for certain expenses they incur for those activities.

THE MERGER

The following discussion contains material information pertaining to the merger. This discussion is subject, and qualified in its entirety by reference, to the merger agreement and the financial advisor's opinion included as Appendices A and B to this proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to carefully read those documents as well as the discussion in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Background of the Merger

From time to time over the past several years, our management and board of directors have considered various strategic alternatives as part of their continuing efforts to enhance our community banking franchise and to maximize shareholder value. These strategic alternatives have included:

- continuing as an independent institution;
- acquiring branch offices or other community banks;
- establishing related lines of business; and
- entering into a strategic merger with similarly-sized or larger institutions.

Our board of directors also has sought to enhance shareholder value through a share repurchase program.

In early 2004, our board of directors authorized Lawrence R. Gaus, our Chairman of the Board, Andrew W. Hasley, our President and Chief Operating Officer, and William C. Marsh, our Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, to prepare information for the board of directors regarding a three-year business plan, with detailed assumptions, projections and a budget. On May 25, 2004, our board of directors reviewed the three-year business plan prepared by management. At this meeting, our board of directors discussed, evaluated and approved the business plan. In addition, as part of its strategic review, our board of directors considered various strategic alternatives. Representatives of Keefe participated in this meeting.

On June 9, 2004, we received an unsolicited indication of interest about a possible acquisition from a larger financial holding company. Our board of directors discussed this unsolicited indication of interest in executive session on June 22, 2004, and placed further discussion of the unsolicited indication of interest on the agenda for a special board of directors meeting to be held on July 7, 2004.

On July 7, 2004, our board of directors met to discuss the unsolicited indication of interest. This discussion also included a review of our three-year business plan and its assumptions as well as a discussion of other strategic alternatives including:

- our acquisition of other local financial institutions;
- a strategic merger of us with financial companies of similar size and capitalization;

the anticipated levels of interest that larger financial institutions may have in us; and the financial and non-financial attributes of companies that may have an interest in us.

Table of Contents

Our board of directors decided to meet with representatives of the company that submitted the unsolicited indication of interest in June 2004 and authorized a committee of five directors to meet with such company and to report to our board of directors information presented and discussed at the meeting. This meeting occurred on July 19, 2004.

On July 23, 2004, we engaged Keefe as our financial advisor.

On July 27, 2004, our board of directors met to discuss a range of issues, including:

our three-year business plan;

the unsolicited indication of interest that was received in June 2004;

the meeting that was held with the company that submitted the unsolicited indication of interest; and the level of interest that other companies may have if the board of directors chose to solicit or review indications of interest from other financial companies.

After the board of directors discussed the financial companies that may have an interest in us and the attributes of these companies, our board of directors instructed Keefe to contact several companies regarding their interest in NSD. Five companies, including FNB and the financial company that had submitted the unsolicited indication of interest in June 2004, executed a confidentiality agreement and received confidential information regarding us in mid-August 2004.

On September 10, 2004, four of the financial companies that had been contacted and received information submitted nonbinding preliminary indications of interest. These four financial companies included FNB and the financial company that submitted the unsolicited indication of interest in June 2004.

Between September 10 and 15, 2004, each company that had submitted an indication of interest was contacted by Keefe to identify whether they had submitted their best proposal. After being contacted on September 13, 2004, two companies increased their indications of interest. The company that submitted the unsolicited indication of interest in June 2004 was one of these two companies.

On September 15, 2004, our board of directors met to review, compare, analyze and discuss the terms of the nonbinding indications of interest that were received from the four financial companies. This discussion included a review of proposed financial and non-financial terms. Information regarding each of the financial companies was presented to and discussed by our board of directors. Our board of directors also discussed, from a shareholder perspective, the advantages and disadvantages of each of the indications of interest and the companies that submitted them. These discussions included, but were not limited to:

an analysis of comparable transactions;

the attributes of each company (both financial and non-financial);

an examination of market multiples, liquidity, management, value of the indication over time and dividend differentials; and the future prospects of each financial company (see page).

Our special counsel, Shumaker Williams, P.C. (Shumaker), participated in this meeting at which a presentation and discussion occurred regarding our directors' fiduciary duties under Pennsylvania law. At the conclusion of the September 15, 2004 board of directors meeting, our board of directors determined that it should meet with representatives of FNB at an NSD board of directors meeting to discuss FNB's strategic plans and initiatives and to learn more about the management of FNB. In addition, our board of directors voted to permit representatives and advisors of FNB to conduct due diligence on us.

FNB conducted due diligence on us starting on September 22, 2004. We executed a confidentiality agreement with FNB on September 27, 2004, and we commenced due diligence on FNB on September 27, 2004.

On September 24, 2004, a draft of the merger agreement was sent to us and our counsel and advisors by FNB's counsel.

Table of Contents

On September 28, 2004, our board of directors met with representatives of FNB including the President and Chief Executive Officer of FNB, Stephen J. Gurgovits, and the Chief Financial Officer of FNB, Brian F. Lilly. This meeting included a discussion of FNB's short-term and long-term strategic plans, FNB's financial attributes, FNB's stock price, trading volumes and liquidity, FNB's dividend payments and payout ratios, the experience and depth of FNB's management team, FNB's overall business approach and FNB's merger and acquisition history and experience.

Following the presentation by members of FNB's senior management, our board of directors met to discuss the presentation and the proposed terms of FNB's indication of interest. Our board of directors authorized Keefe to contact FNB to negotiate terms of the proposed merger.

On October 5, 2004, FNB indicated that it would increase its previously proposed exchange ratio and that a revised draft of the merger agreement would be sent to us and our counsel and advisors.

From October 5 through October 11, 2004, our special counsel, advisors and our management had numerous conversations with FNB and its special counsel and advisors regarding the proposed merger, and the terms and conditions of the merger agreement.

On October 11, 2004, our board of directors met to discuss the status of the negotiations with FNB. At the meeting, the results of our due diligence process and review of FNB were discussed and considered by our board of directors. Our board of directors discussed the status of the negotiations and various terms of the proposed merger, including the financial terms. These discussions included a presentation by our special counsel regarding the terms contained in the draft merger agreement. The draft merger agreement, including exhibits and appendices, were reviewed by us and our special counsel and discussed by our board of directors. In addition, Keefe presented to our board of directors a transaction overview, an analysis of selected transactions, a per share impact analysis and a discounted cash flow analysis. Our board of directors discussed the proposed terms, including financial and non-financial aspects of the proposed merger. At the conclusion of the meeting, our board of directors authorized Keefe and our special counsel to continue to negotiate with FNB, its advisors and special counsel.

From October 11 through October 14, 2004, FNB and we, together with their and our respective special counsel and financial advisors, negotiated the terms, provisions, undertakings and other aspects of the merger agreement, related documents and related matters.

On October 14, 2004, our board of directors held a special meeting at which representatives of Keefe and Shumaker were present. The results of our continuing due diligence on FNB were discussed by our board of directors. Keefe and Shumaker briefed our board of directors on final negotiations concerning the merger agreement, exhibits and appendices and related matters. Our board of directors discussed the terms of the merger, including the financial terms. Specifically, our board of directors discussed the structure of the merger, the exchange ratio, tax aspects of the merger, the provisions regarding our board of director designee to the FNB board of directors and our three designees to the FNB Bank board of directors, the representations, warranties and covenants of the parties and other non-financial issues. Our board of directors reviewed a copy of the merger agreement and ancillary documents in detail. During this meeting, Keefe presented and delivered its written opinion with supporting documentation to our board of directors that the exchange ratio in the merger agreement was fair to our shareholders from a financial point of view. Our board of directors, with our special counsel, reviewed the merger agreement and its terms. Our board of directors also reviewed its fiduciary duties under Pennsylvania law. Following these discussions, our board unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and authorized our officers to execute the merger agreement. Our board of directors believes that the merger and its terms are in the best interests of our shareholders and our other constituencies. FNB and we executed the definitive merger agreement and related documents on the evening of October 14, 2004 and made a public announcement of the execution of the merger agreement on October 15, 2004.

FNB's Reasons for the Merger

Following the spin-off of its Florida operations on January 1, 2004, FNB committed to pursuing several key strategies. Among them was the realization of modest organic growth and the supplementation of that growth through strategic acquisitions.

In approving the merger agreement, FNB's board of directors considered the following factors as generally supporting its decision to enter into the merger agreement:

its understanding of FNB's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects and of NSD's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects, including our geographic position in the greater Pittsburgh region;

its understanding of the current and prospective environment in which FNB and NSD operate, including regional and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for financial institutions generally and continuing consolidation in the financial services industry, and the likely effect of these factors on FNB in light of, and in absence of, the proposed merger;

the fact that the focus of FNB's planned expansion strategy is on the greater Pittsburgh market. NorthSide Bank will substantially enhance FNB's presence in the northern suburbs of Pittsburgh and will place FNB in several of the fastest growing and wealthiest markets in greater Pittsburgh. Median household income over the next five years is expected to grow by over 11%, exceeding both Pennsylvania as well as national growth estimates. In addition, the greater Pittsburgh market has had a 4.5% compound annual growth rate in banking deposits over the past four years as reported by the FDIC;

the fact that NorthSide Bank operates in the desirable growth markets of Allegheny County and southern Butler County, and has been servicing its customers for 70 years and is considered a meaningful competitor in its marketplace. NorthSide Bank is the largest independent community banking franchise located in the northern suburbs of Pittsburgh. NorthSide Bank is the fifth largest banking company in deposit market share in the area within which it operates. As of June 30, 2004 it controlled approximately 9.4% of the deposit base and its deposits totaled $394 million dollars. Over the four years prior to June 30, 2004 its deposits grew 32%, representing an average annual growth rate of 8% and overall deposits grew 41%, averaging 10% annually.

the review by the FNB board of directors with its legal advisors of the structure and terms of the merger, including the exchange ratio, the expectation of FNB's legal advisors that the merger will qualify as a transaction of a type that is generally tax-free to stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, based on the exchange ratio and assuming continuation of FNB's current per share dividend rate of $0.23 per quarter, an anticipated annual dividend increase of approximately 88.0% for holders of NSD common stock (from our current quarterly dividend of $0.22 to $0.41 per share of NSD common stock equivalent);

the fact that the complementary nature of the respective customer bases, business products and skills of FNB and NSD could result in opportunities to obtain synergies as products are cross-marketed and distributed over broader customer bases and best practices are compared and applied across businesses. Within a 15-mile radius of the center of NorthSide Bank's market, there are more than 29,000 businesses that could benefit from FNB's banking services and which would provide FNB with an opportunity to execute its existing commercial lending and deposit growth initiatives;

the scale, scope, strength and diversity of operations, product lines and delivery systems that could be achieved by combining FNB and NSD;

the proposed board and management arrangements which would position the combined company with strong leadership and experienced operating management;

the likelihood that the regulatory approvals needed to complete the transaction will be obtained; and the historical and current market prices of FNB common stock and NSD common stock.

Table of Contents

The FNB board of directors also considered the fact that the combined institution will result in a combined entity with assets of approximately $5.7 billion. The future growth prospects of the NorthSide Bank market area are expected to provide sustained business development opportunities by enabling FNB to capitalize on a cohesive banking franchise with sufficient critical mass to compete in the greater Pittsburgh market.

The FNB board of directors considered all of these factors as a whole and, on balance, concluded that they supported a favorable determination to enter into the merger agreement.

Our Board of Directors Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation

Our board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that our shareholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Our board of directors has determined that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, us and our shareholders. In approving the merger agreement, our board of directors consulted with Keefe with respect to certain financial aspects of the merger and the fairness of the exchange ratio to be received by our shareholders from a financial point of view and with Shumaker as to our legal duties and the terms of the merger agreement and ancillary documents. In arriving at its determination, our board also considered the following material factors:

Our board of directors familiarity with and review of information concerning our business, results of operations, financial condition, competitive position and future prospects;

The current and prospective environment in which we operate, including national, regional and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for banks and other financial institutions generally, the increased regulatory burdens on financial institutions and public companies generally and the trend toward consolidation in the banking industry and in the financial services industry;

The financial presentation of Keefe and the opinion of Keefe that, as of the date of its opinion, the exchange ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to our shareholders (see Opinion of Our Financial Advisor, beginning on page 34);

The historical market price of our common stock and the fact that the exchange ratio represented a 63.5% premium over the per share closing price of our common stock on October 13, 2004, and a 65.2% premium over the per share closing price of our common stock one month prior to the merger announcement;

Results that might be obtained by us if we continued to operate independently and the likely benefits to our shareholders of such a course, compared with the value of the exchange ratio offered by FNB;

The financial attributes of our and FNB's common stock, dividend yield, liquidity and corporate fundamentals;

The financial terms of the proposed merger. Our shareholders would receive 1.8 shares of FNB common stock for each share of our common stock held, subject to adjustment for antidilution. Our board of directors found the proposed consideration attractive because it was favorable relative to the premiums paid in other recent bank mergers and the other indications of interest received during the process. Our board of directors considered the presentations of Keefe at the October 11 and October 14, 2004 meetings of our board of directors concerning the financial terms of the proposed merger. Among other comparisons and financial reports, Keefe presented an analysis of comparable transactions, a discounted cash flow analysis, a pro forma merger analysis and a shareholder impact analysis, which analyses our board of directors considered favorable because each of these analyses indicated that the premium to be received by you was substantial and supported our board of directors decision to approve the merger;

FNB's history of paying cash dividends on its common stock, the dividend payout amounts and the increased dividends that you would receive upon completion of the merger were factors that our board of directors found favorable. Our board of directors considered whether we, as an independent enterprise, could produce the earnings necessary to result in a value comparable to the value to be received in the merger. In addition, our board of directors determined that FNB's current dividend payment exceeds our potential in the near term. Our board of directors considered the 88.2% increase in dividends for each share of our common stock on an equivalent basis to be a very favorable factor;

FNB trades on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol FNB. Our board of directors found the enhanced liquidity associated with FNB's common stock, compared with the more limited trading market of our common stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market, to be a favorable factor in its analysis because you should be able to sell your stock more easily after the merger;

The increased access to capital that would allow the resulting company to grow its assets and market share and the resulting company's ability to pursue larger customer relationships as a result of the larger capital base resulting from the merger;

Our confidence in the experience and expertise of the FNB management team;

The expected qualification of the merger as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368 of the Internal Revenue Code;

Our board of directors and our management performed an extensive review of FNB. As a part of our due diligence review, we reviewed FNB's business, operations, financial conditions, earnings and prospects. These factors were found to be favorable. Our board of directors emphasized FNB's most recent operating history and performance;

Our current condition and historical operating results and the effects of a merger with FNB, including the increased earnings potential;

The effects of the merger on our depositors and customers and the communities served by us, which was deemed to be favorable given that they would be served by a geographically diversified organization with greater resources than we have;

The future business prospects of FNB; and

The ability to have one director of NSD serve on the FNB board of directors that is currently composed of 11 directors and the ability to have three directors from our board serve on the FNB Bank board.

The discussion of factors considered by our board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by our board of directors. In approving the merger agreement, our board of directors did not quantify or assign any specific or relative weight to the various factors considered. Rather, our board of directors based its recommendation on the totality of information presented to it. Individual directors may have weighted factors differently. All of the material factors concerning the proposed merger considered by our board of directors supported our board of directors' decision to recommend the merger to our shareholders. Our board of directors is not aware of any factor that failed to support its determination other than as indicated above. From the viewpoint of our board of directors, the merger represents an attractive opportunity to maximize shareholder value, increase dividends for our shareholders, provide liquidity to our shareholders and join with a company that has sound business prospects.

Opinion of Our Financial Advisor

We engaged Keefe to render financial advisory and investment banking services to us and at our request Keefe agreed to assist us in analyzing, structuring, negotiating and effecting a transaction. We selected Keefe because Keefe is a nationally recognized investment-banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and is familiar with us and our business. As part of its investment banking business, Keefe is continually engaged in the valuation of financial businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

As part of its engagement, a representative of Keefe attended the meeting of our board of directors held on October 14, 2004, at which our board of directors evaluated the proposed merger with FNB. At this meeting, Keefe reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered an opinion that, as of such date, the exchange ratio in the merger agreement was fair to our shareholders from a financial point of view. Our board of directors approved the merger agreement at this meeting.

The full text of Keefe's written opinion is included as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. You are urged to read the opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Keefe. The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

Keefe's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion is directed to our board of directors and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio offered to our shareholders. It does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any NSD shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at our special meeting on the merger proposal or any related matter.

In rendering its opinion, Keefe:

reviewed, among other things:

the merger agreement,

Annual Reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of FNB, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of FNB,

Annual Reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of NSD, and

Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of NSD;

held discussions with members of senior management of NSD and FNB regarding:

past and current business operations,

regulatory relationships,

financial condition, and future prospects of the respective companies;

reviewed the market prices, valuation multiples, publicly reported financial condition and results of operations for NSD and FNB and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies that Keefe deemed to be relevant;

compared the proposed financial terms of the merger with the financial terms of certain other transactions that Keefe deemed to be relevant; and performed other studies and analyses that it considered appropriate.

In conducting its review and arriving at its opinion, Keefe relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to or otherwise made available to Keefe or that was discussed with, or reviewed by Keefe, or that was publicly available. Keefe did not attempt or assume any responsibility to verify such information independently. Keefe relied upon the management of NSD and FNB as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections (and assumptions and bases therefor) provided to Keefe. Keefe assumed, without independent verification, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for FNB and NSD are adequate to cover those losses. Keefe did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals of any assets or liabilities of FNB or NSD, nor did they examine or review any individual credit files.

Edgar Filing: FNB CORP/FL/ - Form S-4

The projections furnished to Keefe and used by it in certain of its analyses were prepared by NSD's and FNB's senior management. NSD and FNB do not publicly disclose internal management projections of the type provided to Keefe in connection with its review of the merger. As a result, such projections were not prepared with a view towards public disclosure. The projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, which are inherently uncertain, including factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the projections.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, Keefe assumed that, in all respects material to its analyses:

the merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement;

the representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement are true and correct;

each party to the merger agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;

all conditions to the completion of the merger will be satisfied without any waivers; and in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual or other consents or approvals for the merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the merger, including the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the merger.

Keefe further assumed that the merger will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles, and that the conversion of NSD's common stock into FNB common stock will be tax-free for FNB and NSD. Keefe's opinion is not an expression of an opinion as to the prices at which shares of NSD common stock or shares of FNB common stock will trade following the announcement of the merger or the actual value of the shares of common stock of the combined company when issued pursuant to the merger, or the prices at which the shares of common stock of the combined company will trade following the completion of the merger.

In performing its analyses, Keefe made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters that are beyond the control of Keefe, NSD and FNB. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by Keefe are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, the Keefe opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by our board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of our board of directors with respect to the fairness of the exchange ratio.

The following summary reviews the material analyses presented by Keefe to our board of directors on October 14, 2004 in connection with its fairness opinion. The summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the Keefe opinion or the presentation made by Keefe to our board of directors, but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Keefe did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. Accordingly, Keefe believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to NSD, FNB or the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Financial Impact Analysis. Keefe performed pro forma merger analyses that combined projected income statement and balance sheet information of FNB and NSD. Assumptions regarding the accounting treatment, acquisition adjustments and cost savings were used to calculate the financial impact that the merger would have on certain projected financial results of FNB. In the course of this analysis, Keefe used FNB management's earnings estimate for 2005 and 2006 and used NSD management's earnings estimate for 2005 and 2006. This analysis indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive to estimated earnings per share in 2005 and 2006. The analysis also indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive to FNB's book value per share as of June 30, 2004. Furthermore, the analysis indicated that FNB's Tier 1 leverage ratio and Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio would increase and its Total risk-based capital ratio would decline but remain above regulatory minimums for well-capitalized institutions. This analysis was based on certain assumptions provided by FNB with regard to expense savings, merger-related charges and the amortization of intangibles. For all of the above analyses, the actual results achieved by FNB following the merger will vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Keefe estimated the present value of our common stock based on a continued independence scenario by adding (i) the present value of the estimated future dividend stream that we could generate over the period beginning January 2004 and ending in December 2008, and (ii) the present value of the terminal value of our common stock. The earnings assumptions that formed the basis of the analysis were based on our management's earnings estimate per share from 2004-2006 and an assumed earnings growth rate of 10% from 2007-2009. Keefe's analysis assumes that excess capital above a 7.0% tangible equity/assets ratio represents free cash flow available for dividends. A sensitivity table was presented with a range of discount rates from 10.0% to 12.0% and a range of terminal multiples from 14.0 to 16.0 times were applied to the 2009 earnings per share estimate. This resulted in a range of values from $24.07 to $29.32 per share.

Keefe stated that the discounted cash flow present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology but noted that it relies on numerous assumptions, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of our common stock.

Other Analyses. Keefe reviewed the relative financial and market performance of NSD and FNB to a variety of relevant industry peer groups and indices. Keefe also reviewed earnings estimates, balance sheet composition, historical stock performance and other financial data for FNB.

Our board of directors has retained Keefe as an independent contractor to act as financial adviser to us regarding the merger. As part of its investment banking business, Keefe is continually engaged in the valuation of banking businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, Keefe has experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, Keefe may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, NSD and FNB. As a market maker in securities, Keefe may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of NSD and FNB for Keefe's own account and for the accounts of its customers.

NSD and Keefe have entered into an agreement relating to the services to be provided by Keefe in connection with the merger. NSD agreed to pay Keefe a cash fee equal to 1.00% of the market value of the aggregate consideration offered in exchange for the outstanding shares of common stock of NSD in the transaction, $100,000 of which was payable at the time the merger agreement was executed, $100,000 of which is payable upon the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus and the balance of which is payable at the time of closing. Pursuant to the Keefe engagement agreement, NSD also agreed to reimburse Keefe for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify Keefe against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Structure of the Merger and the Merger Consideration

Structure. Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, and in accordance with Pennsylvania and Florida law, at the completion of the merger, we will merge with and into FNB. FNB will be the surviving corporation and will continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Florida. Immediately thereafter, NorthSide Bank, our wholly owned subsidiary, will merge with and into FNB Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of FNB. Each share of our common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be converted into shares of FNB common stock.

When the merger is completed, our separate corporate existence will terminate. FNB's articles of incorporation will be the articles of incorporation of the combined company, and FNB's by-laws will be the by-laws of the combined company. See Comparison of Shareholder Rights beginning on page 59.

The board of directors of FNB will continue as the board of directors of the combined company, except that at the completion of the merger, FNB will appoint one current member of our board of directors as a member of the board of directors of FNB, as mutually agreed upon by FNB and us. The board of directors of FNB Bank will continue as the board of directors of the combined bank, except that at the completion of the merger, FNB Bank will appoint to the board of directors of FNB Bank three current members of our board of directors, as mutually agreed upon by FNB and us. See Boards of Directors of FNB and FNB Bank Following the Merger beginning on page 44.

Based on information as of the record date, upon completion of the merger, current holders of FNB common stock will own approximately % of, and holders of our common stock will own approximately % of, the outstanding FNB common stock.

Merger Consideration. The merger agreement provides that each share of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, other than shares held by FNB, will be converted into 1.8 shares of FNB common stock.

Since the market value of FNB common stock may fluctuate due to a variety of factors and the exchange ratio of 1.8 shares of FNB common stock for each share of our common stock is fixed, no assurance can be given that the value of 1.8 shares of FNB common stock received by an NSD shareholder at the effective time of the merger will be substantially equivalent to the value of 1.8 shares of FNB common stock at the time of the vote to approve the merger proposal. As the market value of FNB common stock fluctuates, the value of 1.8 shares of FNB common stock that you will receive will correspondingly fluctuate.

The exchange ratio of 1.8 shares of FNB common stock for each share of our common stock will be appropriately adjusted if there is a stock split, stock dividend, reverse stock split, exchange, reclassification or other similar event regarding FNB common stock before completion of the merger. By way of illustration, if FNB would declare and pay a stock dividend of 5% on or prior to the effective date of the merger, the exchange ratio would be adjusted upward by 5% and our shareholders would receive 1.89 shares of FNB common stock in exchange for each share of our common stock.

Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of FNB common stock will be issued to you upon completion of the merger, unless you elect to enroll in FNB's dividend reinvestment plan in which event FNB will issue to you, in book-entry form in your dividend reinvestment plan account, the exact number of shares, rounded to three decimal places, to which you are entitled. For each fractional share that you would otherwise be entitled to receive, FNB will pay cash in an amount, rounded to the nearest cent, equal to the product of the number of fractional shares rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth held by you multiplied by the average closing price of FNB common stock for the 20 consecutive trading-day period ending two business days prior to the date the last required regulatory approval for the merger is obtained, without regard to any required waiting periods. No interest will be paid or accrued on cash payable in lieu of fractional shares of FNB common stock.

Treasury Shares. Upon consummation of the merger, any shares of our common stock held by us or any of our subsidiaries or by FNB or any of its subsidiaries, other than in a fiduciary capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted in good faith, will be cancelled and retired and no merger consideration will be given with respect to those shares.

Procedures for the Exchange of Shares of Our Common Stock

Exchange Fund. Not later than three days prior to the effective time of the merger, FNB will deposit with the exchange agent certificates representing the shares of FNB common stock to be exchanged for shares of our common stock.

After the effective time of the merger, each holder of an NSD stock certificate, other than treasury shares, who has surrendered such certificate, or customary affidavits and indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such certificate, together with duly executed transmittal materials to the exchange agent, will be entitled to receive a certificate representing the number of whole shares of FNB common stock to which such holder would be entitled to under the merger agreement. Fractional shares will be treated as provided under The Merger Structure of the Merger and the Merger Consideration Fractional Shares on page 40.

Holders of our common stock should not submit their NSD stock certificates for exchange until they receive the transmittal instructions from the exchange agent.

If your NSD stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, you may receive shares of FNB common stock if you make an affidavit of that fact. FNB may require that you post a bond in a reasonable amount as an indemnity against any claim that may be made against FNB with respect to the lost, stolen or destroyed NSD stock certificate.

Until you exchange your NSD stock certificates, you will not receive any dividends or distributions with respect to any shares of FNB common stock you are entitled to receive in connection with the merger. Once you exchange your NSD stock certificates for FNB stock certificates, you will receive, without interest, any dividends or distributions with a record date after the effective time of the merger and payable with respect to your shares of FNB common stock, as well as any dividends with respect to our common stock declared before the effective time of the merger but unpaid.

After completion of the merger, no transfers of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger will be allowed, except as required to settle trades executed prior to the completion of the merger. If certificates representing shares of our common stock are presented for transfer after the completion of the merger, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration into which such shares represented by that certificate have been converted.

The exchange agent will establish a book entry account, issue a FNB stock certificate, or, in the case of cash payments in lieu of fractional shares, a check representing cash, in a name other than the name in which a surrendered NSD stock certificate is registered only if the surrendered NSD stock certificate is properly endorsed and otherwise in proper form for transfer and the person requesting such exchange either affixes any requisite stock transfer tax stamps to the surrendered certificate, provides funds for their purchase or establishes to the satisfaction of the exchange agent that such transfer taxes are not payable.

Our stock certificates may be exchanged for FNB stock certificates with the exchange agent for up to nine months after the completion of the merger. At the end of that period, the exchange agent will return any remaining FNB stock certificates to FNB. Any holders of our stock certificates who have not exchanged their certificates will thereafter be entitled to look only to FNB to receive FNB common stock in exchange for their NSD common stock.

FNB or the exchange agent may be entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts payable to any holder of shares of our common stock such backup withholding as is required under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any state, local or foreign tax law or regulation. Any amounts that are withheld will be treated as having been paid to the holder of our common stock.

Neither we nor FNB will be liable to any former holder of our common stock for any shares of FNB common stock that is delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

Resale of FNB Common Stock

The shares of FNB common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger will be registered under the Securities Act, and will be freely transferable, except for shares issued to any NSD shareholder who may be deemed to be either an affiliate of (i) FNB, at or after the effective time of the merger, for purposes of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act or (ii) NSD, at the time of our special meeting, for purposes of Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act. Affiliates include persons who control, are controlled by or are under common control with NSD or FNB, as the case may be, and generally consist of executive officers, directors and 10% or greater shareholders.

Rule 145 will restrict the sale of FNB common stock received in the merger by affiliates of NSD and certain of their family members and related interests. Generally speaking, during the year following the effective time of the merger, those persons who are affiliates of NSD at the time of our special meeting, provided they are not affiliates of FNB at or following the effective time of the merger, may publicly resell any FNB common stock received by them in the merger, subject to certain limitations as to, among other things, the amount of FNB common stock sold by them in any three-month period and the manner of sale. After the one-year period, such affiliates may resell their shares without such restrictions so long as there is adequate current public information available with respect to FNB as required by Rule 144.

Persons who are affiliates of FNB after the effective time of the merger may publicly resell the shares of FNB common stock received by them in the merger subject to similar limitations and subject to certain filing requirements specified in Rule 144 and in a manner consistent with FNB's insider trading policy. At the present time, it is anticipated that the four affiliates of NSD who will become directors of FNB or FNB Bank will be the only NSD affiliates deemed affiliates of FNB after the merger.

The ability of affiliates to resell shares of FNB common stock received in the merger under Rules 144 or 145 as summarized above generally will be subject to FNB having satisfied its reporting requirements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which we sometimes refer to as the Exchange Act in this proxy statement/ prospectus, for specified periods prior to the time of sale. Affiliates also would be permitted to resell FNB common stock received in the merger pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or another available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Neither the registration statement of which this proxy statement/ prospectus is a part nor this proxy statement/ prospectus cover any resales of FNB common stock received by persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of FNB or NSD in the merger.

We have agreed in the merger agreement to use our reasonable best efforts to identify each person who may be deemed to be our affiliate for purposes of Rule 145 and to cause such person to deliver to FNB, prior to the date of our special meeting, a written agreement intended to ensure compliance with the Securities Act in connection with the sale or other transfer of FNB common stock received in the merger.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors that you vote in favor of the approval of the merger proposal, you should be aware that some of our executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, your interests as our shareholders. Our board of directors was aware of these interests and took them into account in its decision to approve the merger agreement.

These interests relate to or arise from, among other things:

the continued indemnification of our current directors and executive officers under the merger agreement and providing these individuals with directors' and officers' insurance;

the proposed execution of an employment agreement between FNB Bank and Mr. Hasley that will become effective upon the consummation of the merger;

the receipt of change of control payments pursuant to change of control agreements;

the potential for vesting in stock options, severance benefits, retirement benefits, post-employment life insurance and other employee, officer and director benefits that otherwise would terminate or lapse; and

one member of our board of directors will be appointed as a member of FNB's board of directors and three members of our board of directors will be appointed to FNB Bank's board of directors.

Employment Agreement with Mr. Hasley. FNB Bank and Andrew W. Hasley, our President and Chief Operating Officer, propose to enter into an employment agreement that will become effective upon the consummation of the merger. The principal terms of the proposed employment agreement are as follows:

the employment agreement will have an initial term of two years and thereafter automatically review for successive terms of one year, unless either party exercises its right to terminate the automatic renewal;

Mr. Hasley will receive a minimum annual base salary of $156,000, plus merit increases and incentive bonuses at the discretion of FNB; and

Mr. Hasley is entitled to receive severance compensation of two times his then annual base salary in the event FNB terminates Mr. Hasley's employment for other than cause (as defined in the employment agreement).

Indemnification and Directors' and Officers' Insurance. FNB has agreed in the merger agreement that for six years following the effective time of the merger, FNB will indemnify and hold harmless each of our present and former directors, officers and employees and those of our subsidiaries against any costs or expenses including reasonable attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger including the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective time of the merger, to the fullest extent that the person would have been indemnified pursuant to (i) our articles of incorporation and by-laws and (ii) any agreement, arrangement or understanding disclosed by us to FNB, in each case as in effect on the date of the merger agreement.

FNB has also agreed in the merger agreement that for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, it will cause the persons serving as our directors and officers immediately prior to the effective time of the merger to be covered by the directors' and officers' liability insurance policy we currently maintain. FNB is permitted to provide a substitute insurance policy of at least the same coverage and amounts that contains terms and conditions that are not materially less advantageous than the insurance policy we presently maintain. In no case, however, will FNB be required to expend in any one year an amount in excess of 150% of the annual premium currently paid by us for such insurance. If FNB is unable to maintain or obtain such insurance for that amount, then FNB will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the most advantageous coverage as is available for that amount.

Change of Control Agreements. We have change of control agreements with Andrew W. Hasley, William C. Marsh, Vicki J. Hays and Jamie L. Prah that entitle them to certain compensation and benefits upon the completion of the merger between FNB and us unless they are terminated for cause, as defined in the change of control agreements, prior to the completion of the merger. Messrs. Hasley and Marsh and Ms. Hays may be entitled to receive approximately $712,141, $621,141 and $242,706, respectively, in compensation and benefits pursuant to these agreements on the effective date of the merger. Further, Messrs. Hasley and Marsh and Ms. Hays have entered into amendments to their change of control agreements that become effective upon the completion of the merger to eliminate the effect of certain potential negative tax consequences to FNB and the individuals.

FNB and FNB Bank Boards of Directors. FNB has agreed to add one current member of our board of directors to FNB's board of directors and three current members of our board of directors to the existing board of directors of FNB Bank, in each case as mutually agreed by FNB and us. Our designees will serve until the 2006 annual meetings of shareholders of FNB and FNB Bank and, subject to their fiduciary duties, the directors of FNB and FNB Bank have agreed to recommend the nomination of such persons for re-election at the 2007 annual meetings of shareholders of FNB and FNB Bank. Our directors who serve on FNB's and FNB Bank's board of directors are expected to be compensated for their services in that capacity in accordance with FNB's and FNB Bank's standard director compensation policies. See Board of Directors of FNB and FNB Bank Following the Merger below.

Table of Contents

Acceleration and Conversion of Stock Options. All stock options to purchase shares of our common stock held by our directors and executive officers will become fully-vested and exercisable not later than the date of the merger and, if not exercised prior to the merger, will, at the election of such person, either be converted automatically into fully-vested stock options to purchase shares of FNB common stock at the time of the completion of the merger or a cash payment in an amount by which the average closing price of FNB common stock for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the date of the merger multiplied by 1.8 exceeds the exercise price of the options. As of the date of our special meeting, our executive officers and directors are expected to hold vested and unvested stock options to purchase a total of approximately _____ shares of our common stock with exercise prices ranging from $ _____ per share to $ _____ per share.

401(k) Retirement Plan. Under the NorthSide Bank 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan, which we refer to as the 401(k) Plan in this proxy statement/prospectus, all employer contribution accounts will become fully vested upon the termination of the 401(k) Plan. We have agreed to terminate the 401(k) Plan immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. Of our senior management who participate in the 401(k) Plan, _____ are not currently fully-vested in their employer contribution accounts. The aggregate employer contribution account balances for these _____ individuals who will become vested in the event the 401(k) Plan is terminated is approximately $ _____.

Other than as set forth above, none of our directors or executive officers has any direct or indirect material interest in the merger, except insofar as ownership of our common stock might be deemed such an interest.

Boards of Directors of FNB and FNB Bank Following the Merger

The board of directors of FNB immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be the board of directors of FNB following the closing of the merger except that FNB has agreed to appoint one current member of our board of directors to FNB's board of directors, as mutually agreed by FNB and us, for a term that will expire on the date of FNB's 2006 annual meeting of shareholders. At the closing of the merger, FNB has agreed to cause FNB Bank to add three current members of our board of directors to the existing board of directors of FNB Bank as mutually agreed upon by FNB and us. Our designees will serve until the 2006 annual meeting of shareholders of FNB Bank.

FNB has also agreed, subject to the fiduciary duties of its board of directors and FNB Bank's board of directors, that FNB and FNB Bank will include our designees on the list of nominees for directors presented by FNB's board of directors and FNB Bank's board of directors for election at their 2007 annual meetings of shareholders.

FNB has also agreed, subject to the fiduciary duties of FNB's and FNB Bank's board of directors, that if one of our designees dies or becomes incapacitated prior to the closing of the merger, our remaining designees will recommend to the FNB board of directors and FNB Bank board of directors a person to serve as successor, provided that person is reasonably acceptable to the FNB and FNB Bank boards of directors.

FNB has agreed, subject to the fiduciary duties of FNB's board of directors and FNB Bank's board of directors, that if, during the term prior to the FNB and FNB Bank 2006 annual meetings of shareholders or the term immediately following the FNB and FNB Bank 2006 annual meetings of shareholders any one of our designees vacates his seat on the FNB board of directors or the FNB Bank board of directors for any reason, it will appoint one of our current directors to replace the vacating director.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Completion of the merger is subject to several federal and state bank regulatory agency filings and approvals. The merger cannot be completed unless FNB and FNB Bank receive prior approvals, waivers or exemptions from the OCC and the Federal Reserve Board and FNB Bank and we receive prior approvals or exemptions from the Department.

Table of Contents

Neither FNB nor we can predict whether or when the required regulatory approvals, waivers or exemptions will be obtained. As of the date of this proxy statement/ prospectus, all applications and requests for waivers or exemptions have been filed with the Department, the OCC and the Federal Reserve Board.

Federal Reserve Board. Because FNB and we are bank holding companies registered under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, the merger is subject to prior approval or waiver from the Federal Reserve Board under Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act.

Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. The merger of NorthSide Bank with and into FNB Bank is subject to the prior approval of the OCC under the Bank Merger Act. On November 12, 2004, FNB and FNB Bank filed their application for approval of the bank merger with the OCC. In reviewing applications under the Bank Merger Act, the OCC must consider, among other factors, the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the existing and proposed institutions, the convenience and needs of the communities to be served and the effectiveness of both institutions in combating money laundering. In addition, the OCC may not approve a merger:

that will result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States;

if its effect in any section of the country may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly; or if it would in any other manner be a restraint of trade, unless the OCC finds that the anticompetitive effects of the merger are clearly outweighed by the public interest and the probable effect of the merger on meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

Under the Community Reinvestment Act, the OCC must also take into account the record of performance of each of the merging banks in meeting the credit needs of the entire community, including low and moderate income neighborhoods served by each institution. As part of the merger review process, the federal supervisory agencies frequently receive comments and protests from community groups and others. Each of NorthSide Bank and FNB Bank received Satisfactory performance ratings in their most recent Community Reinvestment Act evaluations.

The OCC is also authorized to, but generally does not, hold a public hearing or meeting in connection with an application under the Bank Merger Act. A decision by the OCC that such a hearing or meeting would be appropriate regarding any application could prolong the period during which the application is subject to review.

Mergers approved by the OCC under the Bank Merger Act, with certain exceptions, may not be consummated until 30 days after such approval, during which time the United States Department of Justice may challenge such merger on antitrust grounds and may require the divestiture of certain assets and liabilities. With the approval of the OCC and the Department of Justice, the waiting period may be, and customarily is, reduced to no less than 15 days. There can be no assurance that the Department of Justice will not challenge the merger or, if such a challenge is made, as to the result of such challenge.

Pennsylvania Department of Banking. The prior written approval of the Department is required to be obtained before NSD and FNB may merge. An application for Department approval of the proposed merger of NSD with and into FNB was filed on November 12, 2004 pursuant to the Pennsylvania Banking Code of 1965, which we refer to as the Banking Code in this proxy statement/ prospectus. Notices of the merger application must be published in respective newspapers of general circulation where the bank holding companies are located.

The prior written approval of the Department is not required for the proposed merger of NorthSide Bank, which is a Pennsylvania state-chartered bank, with and into FNB Bank, which is a national bank because the resulting institution will be a national bank. NorthSide Bank, as a Pennsylvania state-chartered bank seeking to merge with and into a national bank, is required to provide certain notice and documents to the Department regarding the proposed merger. Pursuant to the Banking Code, NorthSide Bank must: (i) notify the Department of the proposed merger, (ii) provide such evidence of the adoption of a plan of merger as the Department may request, (iii) notify the Department of any abandonment or disapproval of the plan of merger and (iv) file with the Department and with the Pennsylvania Department of State a certificate of the approval of the merger by the OCC.

Other Regulatory Approvals. Neither we nor FNB are aware of any other regulatory approvals that would be required for completion of the merger or the bank merger except as described above. Should any other approvals be required, we and FNB presently contemplate that such approvals would be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any other approvals, if required, will be obtained.

There can be no assurance that the regulatory authorities described above will approve the merger or the bank merger, and if such mergers are approved, there can be no assurance as to the date such approvals will be received. In any event, FNB and NSD do not expect to obtain all required regulatory approvals until during the first quarter of 2005. The merger cannot proceed in the absence of the receipt of all requisite regulatory approvals and the expiration of statutory antitrust waiting periods. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger and The Merger Agreement Amendment, Waiver and Termination of the Merger Agreement.

The approval of any application merely implies the satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval, which do not include review of the merger from the standpoint of the adequacy of the merger consideration to be received by our shareholders. Further, regulatory approvals do not constitute an endorsement or recommendation of the merger.

Public Trading Markets

FNB common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol FNB. Our common stock is traded on the Nasdaq National Market System under the symbol NSDB. Upon completion of the merger, our common stock will no longer be quoted on the Nasdaq National Market System and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act. The FNB common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

The shares of FNB common stock to be issued in connection with the merger will be freely transferable under the Securities Act, except for shares issued to any of our shareholders that may be deemed either to be an affiliate of (i) FNB at or after the effective time of the merger or (ii) us at the time of our special meeting, as discussed in Resale of FNB Common Stock beginning on page 42.

As reported on the NYSE, the closing price per share of FNB common stock on _____, 2005 was $ _____. As reported by Nasdaq, the closing price per share of our common stock on the Nasdaq National Market System on _____, 2005 was $ _____. Based on the FNB closing price per share and the exchange ratio, the implied per share value of our common stock was $ _____ as of that date.

FNB Dividends

During the first nine months of 2004, FNB paid cash dividends on its common stock of $0.69 per share. FNB currently pays a quarterly cash dividend of $0.23 per share, although the FNB board of directors may change this dividend policy at any time. Based on the 1.8 share exchange ratio and FNB's current dividend rate, holders of our common stock would experience an anticipated annual dividend increase of approximately 88.0% (from our current quarterly dividend of $0.22 to approximately $0.41 per share of our common stock equivalent).

FNB shareholders are entitled to receive cash dividends when and if declared by the FNB board of directors out of funds legally available for dividends. The FNB board of directors quarterly considers the payment of dividends, taking into account FNB's financial condition and level of net income, FNB's future prospects, economic conditions, industry practices and other factors, including applicable banking laws and regulations.

The primary source of FNB's funds for cash dividends to its shareholders is dividends received from its subsidiaries, including FNB Bank. FNB Bank is subject to various regulatory policies and requirements relating to the payment of dividends to FNB, including requirements to maintain capital above regulatory minimums. The appropriate federal regulatory authority is authorized to determine under certain circumstances relating to the financial condition of a bank or bank holding company that the payment of dividends would be an unsafe or unsound practice and to prohibit payment thereof. In addition, the ability of FNB and the ability of FNB Bank to pay dividends may be affected by the various minimum capital requirements and the capital and non-capital standards established under the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following section describes certain aspects of the merger, including the material provisions of the merger agreement. The following description summarizes the material provisions of the merger agreement, but is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the merger agreement, which is included as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety.

Terms of the Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of NSD with and into FNB. FNB will be the surviving corporation in the merger. Each share of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger, except for shares of our common stock held by FNB, will be converted into the right to receive 1.8 shares of FNB common stock.

Treatment of NSD Stock Options

The merger agreement provides that, upon completion of the merger, each unvested outstanding and unexercised stock option to acquire shares of our common stock will cease to represent the right to acquire or receive shares of our common stock and will be converted into, and become a right, to acquire the number of shares of FNB common stock equal to the number of shares of our common stock covered by the option times the exchange ratio, with the exercise price of each converted stock option equaling the per share exercise price of our stock option divided by the exchange ratio. Holders of vested options to acquire shares of our common stock may elect to receive options to purchase FNB common stock as provided in the preceding sentence or to surrender their options and receive cash in an amount equal to the difference between the average closing price of FNB common stock for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the closing date of the merger multiplied by 1.8 and the exercise price of the option.

FNB has agreed to assume our obligations with respect to our stock options that are converted into FNB stock options in accordance with the terms of the plans under which they have been granted. FNB has agreed to reserve additional shares of FNB common stock to satisfy its obligations under the converted stock options. If necessary, FNB will file a registration statement with the SEC on an appropriate form to the extent necessary to register the FNB common stock subject to the converted stock options.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will be completed only if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

our shareholders approve and adopt the merger agreement by the necessary vote;

we and FNB obtain all required governmental and regulatory consents and approvals; and all other conditions to the merger set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus and the merger agreement are either satisfied or waived.

The merger will become effective when articles of merger are filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida and with the Secretary of the Commonwealth of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In the merger agreement, we have agreed to cause the completion of the merger to occur no later than the fifth business day following the satisfaction or waiver of the last of the conditions specified in the merger agreement or on another mutually agreed date, provided that such date shall not be less than 10 days following our special meeting. It is currently anticipated that the effective time of the merger will occur on or about February 18, 2005, but we cannot guarantee when or if the merger will be completed. FNB's articles of incorporation and FNB's by-laws as in any representations or warranties under the merger agreement becoming untrue in any material respect;

take any action that would adversely affect or materially delay necessary governmental or regulatory approvals, or its ability to perform its covenants and agreements under the merger agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; or

The merger agreement also contains mutual covenants relating to the preparation of this proxy statement/ prospectus and the holding of our special meeting of shareholders, access to information of the other company and public announcements with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Declaration and Payment of Dividends

We have agreed that, until the merger is completed, we will not pay or make any dividends or distributions on our common stock other than regular quarterly cash dividends not in excess of $0.22 per share of our common stock. FNB and we also have agreed to coordinate the declaration of dividends so that the holders of our common stock will not receive two dividends, or fail to receive one dividend, for any quarter with respect to their NSD common stock and any FNB common stock our shareholders receive in the merger.

Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers

We have also agreed that we, our subsidiaries and our and their officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives will not, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit, encourage or take any action to facilitate any inquiries or proposals for any Acquisition Proposal, as defined below; or participate in any discussions or negotiations, furnish any information to or approve, recommend or enter into any agreement, regarding any Acquisition Proposal.

However, prior to the effective time of the merger, we may consider and participate in discussions and negotiations with respect to a Superior Proposal, as defined below, if:

we have first entered into a confidentiality agreement with the party proposing the Superior Proposal with confidentiality terms no less favorable to us than those contained in our confidentiality agreement with FNB; and our board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with our outside legal counsel, that failure to take these actions would cause our board of directors to violate its fiduciary duties to our shareholders.

We have also agreed, at least 72 hours prior to providing any information to any person or entering into any discussions or negotiations with any person, to notify FNB in writing of the name of such person and the material terms and conditions of any such Superior Proposal. The merger agreement permits our board of directors to withdraw or qualify its recommendation of our merger with FNB if our board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with our outside legal counsel and our financial advisors, that failure to take such actions would breach its fiduciary duties to our shareholders.

We have agreed:

to notify FNB promptly, and in any event within 24 hours, after we receive any Acquisition Proposal, or any information related thereto, which notification shall describe the Acquisition Proposal and the third party making it; and to cease any existing discussions or negotiations with any persons with respect to any Acquisition Proposal.

As used in the merger agreement, an Acquisition Proposal means any inquiry, proposal, offer, regulatory filing or disclosure of an intention to do any of the foregoing regarding any:

direct or indirect acquisition of a substantial portion of the net revenues, net income or net assets of us or any of our subsidiaries;

direct or indirect acquisition of 10% or more of our common stock after October 14, 2004 by a person who, on October 14, 2004 did not own 10% or more of our common stock;

direct or indirect acquisition of 5% or more of our common stock after October 14, 2004 by a person who owned 10% or more of our common stock on October 14, 2004;

tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 10% or more of our common stock; or merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation or dissolution involving us, other than our proposed merger with FNB.

As used in the merger agreement, Superior Proposal means any bona fide, unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal made by a third party to acquire more than 50% of the voting power of our then outstanding shares of common stock or all or substantially all of our consolidated assets for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities, that our board of directors in good faith concludes, after consultation with our financial advisors and our outside legal counsel, taking into account, among other things, all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and the person making the proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation:

is on terms that are more favorable from a financial point of view to our shareholders than the terms of the proposed merger with FNB;

has financing, to the extent required, that is fully committed or reasonably determined to be available to the party making the offer; and is reasonably capable of being completed.

Expenses and Fees

In general, each of FNB and NSD will be responsible for all expenses it incurs in connection with the negotiation and completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. However, the costs and expenses of printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus, and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger, will be shared equally by FNB and us.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Our respective obligations to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of certain conditions, including:

the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the approval of the merger by the holders of not less than 51% of our outstanding shares of common stock;

the receipt and effectiveness of all governmental and other approvals, registrations and consents, and the expiration of all related waiting periods, required to complete the merger;

the absence of any law, statute, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order in effect by any court or other governmental entity that prohibits completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

the registration statement with respect to the FNB common stock to be issued in the merger shall have become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order or proceedings for that purpose will have been initiated or threatened by the SEC;

the approval of the listing of the FNB common stock to be issued in the merger on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance;

the truth and correctness of the representations and warranties of FNB and NSD in the merger agreement, subject to the materiality standard provided in the merger agreement, and the performance by each of FNB and us in all material respects of our respective obligations under the merger agreement and the receipt by each of us of certificates from the other to that effect; and the receipt by each of FNB and NSD of a legal opinion with respect to certain federal income tax consequences of the merger.

In addition, FNB's obligation to complete the merger is also subject to receipt by FNB of Phase I environmental studies with respect to all real property owned by us or NorthSide Bank, the findings of which studies shall be acceptable to FNB who will not unreasonably withhold such acceptance.

We cannot provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, we have no reason to believe that any of these conditions will not be satisfied.

Table of Contents

Amendment, Waiver and Termination of the Merger Agreement

Subject to applicable law, FNB and NSD may amend the merger agreement by written agreement authorized by their boards of directors. However, after approval of the merger proposal by our shareholders, there may not be, without further approval of our shareholders, any amendment of the merger agreement that requires such further approval. Either party to the merger agreement may waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party, or, subject to applicable law, may waive compliance by the other party with any of the other agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to closing by mutual consent and by either party in the following circumstances:

if any of the required regulatory approvals for the merger are denied and the denial is final and nonappealable;

if the merger has not been completed by June 30, 2005, unless the failure to complete the merger by that date is due to the terminating party's actions;

provided the terminating party is not then in material breach, if there is a breach by the other party that would cause the failure of the closing conditions described above, unless the breach is capable of being, and is, cured within 30 days of notice of the breach; or if our shareholders do not approve and adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger by the requisite vote, provided that we are not in material breach of our covenant to hold our special meeting and our board of directors is not in breach of its covenant to recommend such approval.

FNB may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to our special meeting in the following circumstances:

if we have breached in any material respect our obligations with respect to Acquisition Proposals and Superior Proposals as described on pages 52 through 53;

if we have failed to have our board of directors recommend that our shareholders approve and adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger, or if our board of directors has withdrawn or modified its recommendation in a manner adverse to FNB;

if our board of directors shall have recommended the approval of an Acquisition Proposal; or if we have breached in any material respect our obligation to hold our special meeting.

We may terminate the merger agreement, upon notice to FNB, during the two-day period following receipt of the last required bank regulatory authority approval if both of the following conditions apply:

if the average closing price of FNB common stock on the New York Stock Exchange as reported in The Wall Street Journal for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on and including the second trading day prior to the commencement of the aforesaid two-day period is less than the product of the closing price of FNB common stock on October 14, 2004 ($21.67) and 0.800; and if the number obtained by dividing such average closing price by the closing price of FNB common stock on October 14, 2004 ($21.67) is less than the number obtained by dividing the price of the Nasdaq Bank Index on the date of commencement of the aforesaid two-day period by the price of the Nasdaq Bank Index on October 14, 2004 and subtracting 0.200 from such quotient; provided, however, that if FNB elects, within two business days after its receipt of such notification, to increase the exchange ratio as provided in the merger agreement, the exchange ratio shall be so adjusted and no termination shall be deemed to have occurred.

The merger agreement also provided us with certain rights to terminate the merger agreement until the date of mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus in connection with a Superior Proposal. We did not exercise these rights.

Table of Contents

Effect of Termination; Break-up Fee; Expenses

If the merger agreement is terminated, it will become void, and there will be no liability on the part of FNB or us, except that:

termination will not relieve a breaching party from liability for its willful breach giving rise to the termination; and the confidentiality agreement between the parties will survive termination.

We are obligated under the merger agreement to pay FNB a break-up fee of $6,000,000 in the following four circumstances:

if FNB terminates the merger agreement prior to our special meeting because we have breached our obligations not to initiate, solicit or encourage any third parties to make an Acquisition Proposal or otherwise breach our obligations with respect to Acquisition Proposals or Superior Proposals in a manner adverse to FNB, our board of directors fails to make or withdraws its recommendation of the merger proposal or we fail to hold our special meeting;

if we terminate the merger agreement and accept an Acquisition Proposal that is a Superior Proposal prior to the date of our special meeting and, after giving FNB an opportunity to adjust the terms of the merger agreement such that the Acquisition Proposal no longer remains a Superior Proposal, the Acquisition Proposal remains a Superior Proposal;

a tender offer or exchange offer for 25% or more of our common stock is commenced and we have not sent to our shareholders, within 10 days after the commencement of such offer, a statement that our board of directors recommends the rejection of such tender offer or exchange offer; or if FNB or we terminate the agreement because:

our shareholders did not approve the merger proposal and an Acquisition Proposal has been made by a third party after October 14, 2004 and prior to the termination of the agreement;

such Acquisition Proposal has not been withdrawn prior to such termination; and within 18 months following such termination we merge with or are acquired by that third party or that third party acquires more than 50% of our common stock or we otherwise become controlled by that third party within such time period.

We have also agreed that if either FNB or we breach our representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement, which breach could reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect and which breach cannot be or is not cured, the breaching party, assuming the other party is not also in material breach of its obligations under the merger agreement, will pay all out-of-pocket expenses, including fees and expenses of legal counsel, financial advisors and accountants, of the non-breaching party. We have also agreed to pay FNB's out-of-pocket expenses in the event the merger proposal is not approved by the requisite vote of our shareholders at our special meeting.

Employee Benefit Plans

The merger agreement provides that as soon as administratively practicable after completion of the merger FNB will provide our employees with benefits and compensation plans that are equivalent to those provided to similarly situated FNB employees. Eligible NSD employees whose employment is terminated at any time during the first year following completion of the merger will be entitled to receive severance benefits in accordance with the terms of a schedule to the merger agreement.

FNB will generally provide our employees with service credit for their service with us for purposes of eligibility, participation, vesting and levels of benefits, but generally not for benefit accruals under defined benefit pension plans, under the employee benefit and compensation plans of FNB in which such employees are eligible to participate following the merger. FNB has agreed to waive specified exclusions and limitations under its welfare benefit plans in which our employees are eligible to participate following the merger under the corresponding NSD plan in which the applicable employee participated prior to the merger and to give our employees credit, for the plan year in which they start participating in any such plan, towards applicable deductibles and annual out-of-pocket limits for expenses incurred before such participation.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase, as that term is used under GAAP, for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Under purchase accounting, our assets, including identifiable intangible assets, and liabilities, including executory contracts and other commitments, as of the effective time of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to the balance sheet of FNB. Any excess of the purchase price over the fair values will be recorded as goodwill. Financial statements of FNB issued after the merger would reflect these fair values and the results of operations for us from the date of acquisition. See Selected Consolidated Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information beginning on page 14.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following discussion is a summary description of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger applicable to NSD shareholders. This discussion does not purport to consider all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to an NSD shareholder. This discussion is based upon the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, existing regulations and administrative and judicial interpretations of the Internal Revenue Code, all of which are as in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion applies only to NSD shareholders who hold their shares of NSD stock as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code and does not apply to the following:

shareholders who received their shares of NSD common stock from the exercise of employee stock options or similar securities or otherwise as compensation;

shareholders who hold their shares of NSD common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, conversion transaction, synthetic security or other integrated investment;

shareholders, including, without limitation, financial institutions, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, dealers or traders in securities and shareholders subject to the alternative minimum tax, who may be subject to special rules;

shareholders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar; or shareholders who, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, are non-resident alien individuals, foreign corporations, foreign partnerships, foreign estates or foreign trusts.

This discussion also does not consider the effect of any foreign, state or local laws or any U.S. federal laws other than those pertaining to the income tax.

Accordingly, you should consult your tax advisor to determine the tax effect to you of the merger, including the application and effect of foreign or U.S. federal, state, local or other tax laws.

Tax Opinion and Merger

Completion of the merger is contingent upon the receipt by:

FNB of an opinion from its outside counsel to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code; and NSD of an opinion from its outside counsel to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The tax opinions of Duane Morris LLP, counsel for FNB, and Shumaker, counsel for NSD, are included as exhibits 8.1 and 8.2 to the registration statement filed with the SEC of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part. These opinions are based upon, among other things, representations of fact contained in certificates of officers of FNB and NSD. We will not seek any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, and the opinions of counsel are not binding upon the Internal Revenue Service or any court. Accordingly, we can give no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service will not contest the conclusions expressed in the opinions or that a court will not sustain that contest.

Assuming the merger is consummated in the manner described in this proxy statement/ prospectus and in accordance with the merger agreement, the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. The following discussion sets forth the U.S. federal income tax consequences to NSD shareholders of the qualification of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Receipt of FNB Common Stock

An NSD shareholder who receives shares of FNB common stock in exchange for shares of NSD common stock will not recognize any gain or loss on that exchange, except to the extent the shareholder receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of FNB common stock, as discussed below. The aggregate adjusted tax basis of FNB common stock received will equal the NSD shareholder's aggregate adjusted tax basis in the shares of NSD common stock surrendered in the merger, decreased by the amount of any tax basis allocable to any fractional share of FNB common stock for which cash is received. The holding period of the FNB common stock received in the merger will include the holding period of the NSD common stock surrendered in the merger. If an NSD shareholder has differing tax bases and/or holding periods in respect of the shareholder's shares of NSD common stock, the shareholder should consult with a tax advisor in order to identify the tax bases and/or holding periods of the particular shares of FNB common stock that the shareholder receives.

Fractional Shares

An NSD shareholder who receives a fractional share of FNB common stock generally will not recognize any gain or loss on that fractional share. An NSD shareholder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of FNB common stock will be treated as having first received the fractional share of FNB common stock in the merger and then as having received cash in exchange for the fractional share interest. An NSD shareholder generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share of FNB common stock and the portion of the basis in the shares of NSD common stock allocable to that fractional interest.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences to FNB and NSD

Neither FNB nor NSD will recognize gain or loss as a result of the merger.

Tax Consequences If the Merger Does Not Qualify as a Reorganization Under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code

If the Internal Revenue Service determines that the merger of NSD with and into FNB does not qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and that determination is upheld, the NSD shareholders would be required to recognize gain or loss with respect to each share of NSD common stock surrendered in the merger in an amount equal to the difference between (a) the sum of the fair market value of any FNB common stock and cash received in the merger and (b) the tax basis of the shares of NSD common stock surrendered in exchange therefor. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if such shareholder held the NSD common stock for more than one year, and will be short-term capital gain or loss if such shareholder held the NSD common stock for less than one year. The amount and character of gain or loss will be computed separately for each block of NSD common stock that was purchased by the holder in the same transaction. An NSD shareholder's aggregate tax basis in the FNB common stock received in the merger would in this case be equal to its fair market value at the time of the closing of the merger, and the holding period for the FNB common stock would begin the day after the closing of the merger.

Table of ContentsBackup Withholding

Payments in connection with the merger may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28%, unless an NSD shareholder, (1) provides a correct taxpayer identification number (which, for an individual shareholder, is the shareholder's social security number) and any required information to the exchange agent, (2) provides a certification of foreign status on Form W-8, or successor form, or (3) is a corporation or comes within certain exempt categories and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. An NSD shareholder who does not provide a correct taxpayer identification number may be subject to penalties imposed by the Internal Revenue Service. Any amount paid as backup withholding does not constitute an additional tax and will be creditable against the shareholder's U.S. federal income tax liability. Each NSD shareholder should consult with his own tax advisor as to his qualification for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining this exemption. You may prevent backup withholding by completing a substitute form W-9 (contained with the form of transmittal letter to be forwarded to you) and submitting it to the exchange agent for the merger when you submit your NSD share certificates for exchange.

DESCRIPTION OF FNB CAPITAL STOCKFNB Common Stock

General. FNB is authorized to issue 500,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of which 46,696,666 shares were outstanding as of September 30, 2004. FNB common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol FNB. The transfer agent and registrar for FNB common stock is Registrar & Transfer Company.

As of September 30, 2004, approximately 6.3 million shares of FNB common stock were reserved for issuance upon the exercise of outstanding options. In addition, FNB has reserved _____ million shares of common stock for issuance in connection with the merger and the NSD stock options being assumed by FNB. After taking into account these reserved shares, FNB will have approximately _____ million shares of authorized but unissued common stock available for issuance for other corporate purposes.

Voting and Other Rights. The holders of FNB common stock are entitled to one vote per share, and in general a majority of the votes cast with respect to a matter is sufficient to authorize action upon routine matters. Directors are elected by a plurality of votes cast, and each shareholder entitled to vote in an election of directors is entitled to vote each share of stock for as many persons as there are directors to be elected. In elections of directors, shareholders do not have the right to cumulate their votes. See Comparison of Shareholder Rights Amendment of Articles of Incorporation and By-laws beginning on page 66 and Comparison of Shareholder Rights Vote Required for Extraordinary Corporate Transactions beginning on page 67.

In the event of a liquidation, holders of FNB common stock are entitled to receive pro rata any assets legally available for distribution to shareholders with respect to shares held by them, subject to any prior rights of the holders of any FNB preferred stock then outstanding.

FNB common stock does not carry any preemptive rights, redemption privileges, sinking fund privileges or conversion rights. All outstanding shares of FNB common stock are, and the shares of FNB common stock to be issued to our shareholders in the merger will be, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

Distributions. The holders of FNB common stock are entitled to receive such dividends or distributions as the FNB board of directors may declare out of funds legally available for such payments. The payment of distributions by FNB is subject to the restrictions of Florida law applicable to the declaration of distributions by a business corporation. A corporation generally may not authorize and make distributions if, after giving effect thereto, it would be unable to meet its debts as they become due in the usual course of business or if the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if it were to be dissolved at the time of distribution, to satisfy claims upon dissolution of shareholders who have preferential rights superior to the rights of the holders of its common stock. In addition, the payment of distributions to shareholders is subject to any prior rights of any then outstanding FNB preferred stock. Stock dividends, if any are declared, may be paid from authorized but unissued shares.

Table of Contents

The ability of FNB to pay distributions is affected by the ability of its subsidiaries to pay dividends. The ability of FNB's subsidiaries, as well as of FNB, to pay dividends in the future is influenced by bank regulatory requirements and capital guidelines.

FNB Preferred Stock

General. FNB is authorized to issue 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, of which no shares were outstanding as of September 30, 2004. The FNB board of directors has the authority to issue FNB preferred stock in one or more series and to fix the dividend rights, dividend rates, liquidation preferences, conversion rights, voting rights, rights and terms of redemption, including sinking fund provisions, and the number of shares constituting any such series, without any further action by the shareholders of FNB unless such action is required by applicable rules or regulations or by the terms of any other outstanding series of FNB preferred stock. Any shares of FNB preferred stock that may be issued may rank prior to shares of FNB common stock as to payment of dividends and upon liquidation.

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS

After the merger, you will become shareholders of FNB and your rights will be governed by FNB's articles of incorporation, FNB's by-laws and the Florida Business Corporations Act. The following summary discusses differences between FNB's articles of incorporation and by-laws and our articles of incorporation and by-laws and the differences between the BCL and the Florida Business Corporations Act. For information as to how to get the full text of each document, see Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 76.

The following summary is not intended to be a complete statement of the differences affecting the rights of our shareholders who become FNB shareholders, but rather summarizes the more significant differences affecting the rights of such shareholders and certain important similarities. The summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the articles of incorporation and by-laws of FNB, our articles of organization and by-laws and applicable laws and regulations.

Removal of Directors; Filling Vacancies on the Board of Directors

NSD	FNB
Our by-laws provide that a director, any class of directors or our entire board of directors may be removed only for cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of our outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon. Pennsylvania law and our by-laws provide that vacancies on our board of directors, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, except that a vacancy resulting from a removal of a director resulting from a shareholder vote may be filled by the shareholders at the same meeting at which the removal occurs.	Under Florida law, unless the articles of incorporation of a corporation provide otherwise, directors may be removed by the corporation's shareholders with or without cause; provided that, if a director is elected by a voting group, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove him or her. Article 6 of FNB's articles of incorporation, however, provides that, subject to the rights of holders of any preferred stock, any director or the entire board of directors may be removed without cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the then outstanding shares of FNB common stock. Florida law and FNB's by-laws provide that vacancies on the FNB board of directors, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors or resulting from removal from office, may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum.

Quorum of Shareholders

NSD

Pennsylvania law and our by-laws provide that the holders of a majority of votes entitled to be cast on a matter to be considered, represented in person or by proxy, constitute a quorum of that voting group for action on the matter. Pennsylvania law and our by-laws further provide that, if a meeting called for the election of directors is adjourned, the shareholders who attend the resumption of the adjourned meeting, although less than a quorum, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing directors.

FNB

FNB's by-laws and Florida law provide that the holders of a majority of votes entitled to be cast on a matter to be considered, represented in person or by proxy, constitute a quorum of that voting group for action on the matter. FNB's by-laws further provide that whenever the holders of any class or series of shares are entitled to vote separately on a specified item of business, the holders of a majority of the votes of that class or series entitled to be cast, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum of such class or series.

Adjournment and Notice of Shareholder Meetings

NSD

Pennsylvania law and our by-laws provide that any regular or special meeting of shareholders may be adjourned for such periods as may be directed by the shareholders present in person or by proxy at the meeting who are entitled to vote at that meeting.

FNB

FNB's by-laws and Florida law provide that, if a quorum is not present or represented at a shareholders meeting, the shareholders present and entitled to vote at the meeting may adjourn such meeting from time to time.

Call of Special Meetings of Shareholders

NSD

Our by-laws provide that special meetings of our shareholders may be called at any time by resolution of our board.

FNB

FNB's by-laws provide that special meetings of shareholders may be called only by the chairman of the board, the president or the secretary of FNB pursuant to a resolution or written direction of at least 75% of the members of the FNB board or by the holders of not less than 10% of the outstanding shares of FNB.

Shareholder Consent in Lieu of Meeting

NSD

Pennsylvania law and our by-laws provide that any action that may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting, if a consent or consents in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by all of the shareholders who would be entitled to vote at a meeting for such purpose and shall be filed with our secretary.

FNB

Florida law permits any action that may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders of FNB to be taken without a meeting, if, prior or subsequent to the action, one or more written consents signed by a majority the shareholders who would be entitled to vote at a meeting for such purpose are delivered to FNB.

Table of Contents*Dissenters RightsNSD

Under Pennsylvania law, dissenters' rights are generally afforded to shareholders in the event of corporate actions involving certain mergers, share exchanges, transfers of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation, as well as certain other fundamental transactions in which the corporation is not the acquiring corporation. See Provisions with Possible Anti-Takeover Effects for a description of special dissenters' rights provisions under Pennsylvania law applicable to registered companies such as us in a transaction where a controlling interest in a corporation is acquired.

Under Pennsylvania law, dissenters' rights generally are denied to holders of shares that are listed on a national securities exchange, quoted on the Nasdaq National Market or held beneficially or of record by more than 2,000 shareholders when a plan of merger converts the shares into shares of the acquiring, surviving, new or other corporation, whether or not the shares of the acquiring, surviving, new or other corporation are listed on the exchange or privately held.

*Derivative ActionsNSD

Under Pennsylvania law, derivative actions may be brought by a shareholder, even if the shareholder was not a shareholder at the time of the alleged wrongdoing, if a court determines that there is a strong prima facie case in favor of the claim and a serious injustice will result without such action.

*Dividends and DistributionsNSD

Subject to any restrictions in a corporation's articles of incorporation, Pennsylvania law generally provides that a corporation may make distributions to its shareholders unless after giving effect thereto (i) the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business, or (ii) the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed upon the dissolution of the corporation to satisfy the preferential rights of shareholders having superior preferential rights to those shareholders receiving the distribution. Our articles of incorporation do not contain any restrictions on the payment of dividends or the making of distributions to shareholders.

FNB

Under Florida law, dissenters' appraisal rights are available in connection with corporate actions involving certain mergers, share exchanges, sales or other dispositions of all or substantially all of the property of the corporation other than in the ordinary course of business, the approval of certain control-share acquisitions and amendments of the articles of incorporation that would materially and adversely affect the rights or preferences of shares held by the dissenting shareholders.

Under Florida law, appraisal rights generally are denied to holder of shares listed on a national securities exchange or the Nasdaq National Market and when the corporation's shares are held of record by at least 2,000 persons and such outstanding shares have a market value of at least $10 million, not counting the value of certain insider shares.

FNB

Under Florida law, a derivative action may be brought only by a person who was a shareholder of FNB at the time of the alleged wrongdoing unless the person became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was a shareholder at the time of the alleged wrongdoing.

FNB

Subject to any restrictions in a corporation's articles of incorporation, Florida law generally provides that a corporation may make distributions to its shareholders unless after giving effect thereto (i) the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business, or (ii) the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed upon the dissolution of the corporation to satisfy the preferential rights of shareholders having superior preferential rights to those shareholders receiving the distribution. FNB's articles of incorporation do not contain any restrictions on the payment of dividends or the making of distributions to shareholders.

Classes of Stock With Preferential Rights

NSD	FNB
We only have one authorized class of stock.	The articles of incorporation of FNB authorize it to issue multiple classes of stock that may have rights preferential to the FNB common stock to be received by NSD shareholders as a result of the merger. No such stock is currently outstanding. Such preferential rights include rights to preferential dividend rates compared to such rates for FNB common stock, rights to prevent dividends being paid on the common stock until dividends have been paid on the preferred stock, rights to preferential payments upon any liquidation of FNB, independent class voting rights with respect to certain fundamental transactions and rights to convert shares of FNB preferred stock into FNB common stock at a conversion ratio that protects such preferred shareholders against a decline in the price of FNB common stock by further diluting the common stock.

Director Qualifications, Number and Term

NSD	FNB
Our by-laws provide that our board of directors shall consist of not less than 5 nor more than 15 members divided into two classes, as equal in number as possible, with each director serving a staggered two-year term. Under Pennsylvania law and pursuant to our by-laws, a director must be at least 18 years of age, but need not be a resident of Pennsylvania or a shareholder.	FNB's by-laws provide that the board of directors of FNB shall consist of such number of directors as may be determined by the board of directors of FNB, which number shall be not less than 5 nor more than 25. FNB's by-laws further provide that FNB's board of directors shall be divided into three classes as equal in number as possible, with each director having a staggered, three-year term. Under Florida law and FNB's by-laws, a director need not be a resident of Florida or a shareholder of FNB to qualify to serve as a director. FNB's by-laws further provide that the directors must be at least 21 years of age.

Nomination of Directors

NSD	FNB
Our by-laws do not provide a process for nominating directors. Under Pennsylvania law, shareholders may vote for any qualified person regardless of whether they have been nominated unless the corporation has contrary provisions in its articles of incorporation or by-laws.	FNB's by-laws provide that directors may be nominated for election to FNB's board of directors by either a resolution of the board of directors or by a shareholder of FNB. FNB's by-laws provide that a shareholder may make nominations for director by providing FNB with written notice of the shareholder's intention to nominate a director, which written notice generally must be received not less than 14 days prior to the meeting of shareholders called for the election of directors. The notice of a shareholder's intention to nominate a director must include, among other things: the name and address of the nominating shareholder; a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of FNB voting stock and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice;

information regarding each nominee as would have been required under the SEC's proxy rules;

a description of all arrangements or understandings among the shareholder and each nominee pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the shareholder; and the written consent to serve as a director of FNB if so elected.

Cumulative Voting

NSD

FNB

In an election of directors under cumulative voting, each share of stock normally having one vote for each director to be elected is entitled to a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected times the number of shares held with the right to distribute that number of votes among one or more candidates. Under Pennsylvania law, cumulative voting in the election of directors is available unless otherwise provided for in the articles of incorporation of the corporation. We have precluded cumulative voting in the election of directors in our articles of incorporation.

Under Florida law, cumulative voting in the election of directors is not available unless provided for in the articles of incorporation of the corporation. FNB has not provided for cumulative voting in its articles of incorporation.

Indemnification of Officers and Directors

NSD

FNB

Pennsylvania law permits a corporation to indemnify its directors and officers against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement incurred by them in connection with any pending, threatened or completed action or proceeding, and permits such indemnification against expenses incurred in connection with any pending, threatened or completed derivative action, if the director or officer has acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. Pennsylvania law further provides that expenses incurred in defending any action or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

Florida law permits a corporation to indemnify a director or officer who was or is a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or other type of proceeding other than an action by or in the right of the corporation by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer or is now serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another entity against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. These indemnification rights apply if the director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner in which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. In addition, under Florida law, FNB may indemnify and hold harmless an officer or director who is a party in an action by or in the right of the corporation against expenses,

Table of ContentsNSD

Under Pennsylvania law, the statutory provisions for indemnification and advancement of expenses are non-exclusive with respect to any other rights, such as contractual rights or rights granted pursuant to a bylaw or by vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled. Such rights may, for example, provide for indemnification against judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement incurred by the indemnified person in connection with derivative actions. Pennsylvania law permits such derivative action indemnification in any case except where the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. Our by-laws also preclude indemnification where it has been determined, through arbitration, that the conduct of the director or officer constituted willful misconduct or recklessness or that a director or officer received from the corporation a benefit to which he was not entitled. Pennsylvania law and our by-laws permit us to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of our directors and officers against any liability asserted against the director or officer and incurred in such capacity, whether or not we would have the power to indemnify a director or officer against such liability. Our articles of incorporation further provide that our directors and officers are entitled to be indemnified to the fullest extent permitted by law.

including attorneys' fees, and certain amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. Such indemnification shall be authorized if the director or officer has acted in good faith and in a manner in which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except indemnification is not authorized where there is an adjudication of liability, unless a court determines, in view of all the circumstances, that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses.

Florida law further provides that indemnification against the costs and expenses of defending any action is required to be made to any officer or director who is successful in defending an action of the type referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph. Except with regard to the costs and expenses of successfully defending an action as may be ordered by a court, indemnification as described in the previous paragraph is only required to be made to a director or officer if a determination is made that indemnification is proper under the circumstances. Such determination shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Florida law.

Florida law further provides that expenses incurred in defending any action or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

Under Florida law, the provisions for indemnification and advancement of expenses are not exclusive. Accordingly, a corporation may make any other or further indemnification or advancement of expenses of any of its officers or directors, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. Under Florida law, indemnification or advancement of expenses, however, shall generally not be made to or on behalf of any officer or director if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his actions or omissions were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute:

a violation of the criminal law;

a transaction from which the officer or director derived an improper personal benefit;

an unlawful distribution; or willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the corporation.

Florida law and FNB's articles of incorporation permit FNB to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director or officer of FNB against any liability asserted against the director or officer and incurred in such capacity, whether or not FNB would have the power to indemnify the director or officer against such liability. FNB's articles of incorporation further provide that its directors, officers and any other person designated by the board of directors of FNB is entitled to be indemnified to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Director Liability

NSD

FNB

Pennsylvania law provides that the by-laws of a corporation may include a provision limiting the personal liability of directors for monetary damages for actions taken as a director, other than as would constitute criminal conduct or with respect to liability for nonpayment of taxes, and except to the extent that the director has breached or failed to perform his duties to the corporation and the breach or failure to perform constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness. Our by-laws contain such a provision.

Under Florida law, a director is not liable for monetary damages for any statement, vote, decision or failure to act regarding corporate management or policy, unless the director breached or failed to perform his duties as a director and the director's breach of, or failure to perform, those duties constitutes a violation of criminal law, self-dealing, an unlawful distribution, willful misconduct or recklessness. FNB's by-laws contain a provision limiting the liability of its directors to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation and By-laws

NSD

Pennsylvania law requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders entitled to vote thereon to amend a corporation's articles of incorporation, provided that shareholder approval is not required for certain non-material amendments. Our articles of incorporation and by-laws do not address the issue of shareholder approval with respect to amending our articles of incorporation. In the case of a registered corporation such as us, Pennsylvania law provides that the shareholders may not propose an amendment to the articles.

Under Pennsylvania law, the power to adopt, amend or repeal by-laws may generally be vested, pursuant to the by-laws, in the directors, with certain statutory exceptions and subject to the power of the shareholders to change such action. Pennsylvania law further provides that, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, the board of directors does not have the authority to adopt or change a bylaw on any subject that is committed expressly to the shareholders by statute, other than on the subject shareholder quorum rules if the corporation is a registered corporation such as us. Our by-laws provide that our by-laws may be amended by the affirmative vote of 80% of the members of our board of directors except for those matters that are statutorily committed to the shareholders or by the affirmative vote of our shareholders entitled to cast a majority of the votes which all shareholders present at a regular or special meeting are entitled to cast.

FNB

In order to amend the articles of incorporation of a Florida corporation, Florida law generally requires that, unless the articles of incorporation provide for a greater vote, the votes cast in favor of such an amendment must exceed the votes cast against such an amendment at a meeting at which a quorum is present; provided, however, that a majority of the outstanding votes entitled to be cast on the amendment is required with respect to amendments that would create dissenters' rights under Florida law. Further, under Florida law, shareholder approval is not required for certain non-material amendments.

Under Florida law, a corporation's by-laws may be amended or repealed by the board of directors or shareholders; provided, however, that the board may not amend or repeal the corporation's by-laws if the articles of incorporation reserve such power to the shareholders, or the shareholders, in amending or repealing the by-laws, expressly provide that the board of directors may not amend or repeal the by-laws or a particular bylaw provision. FNB's by-laws provide that they may be altered or amended and new by-laws adopted by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the members of FNB's board of directors or by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon.

Table of Contents*Vote Required for Extraordinary Corporation TransactionsNSD

Under Pennsylvania law, generally, a merger, consolidation, share exchange, dissolution or sale of substantially all of a corporation's assets other than in the ordinary course of business must be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders entitled to vote thereon. Our articles of incorporation provide that no merger or other acquisition of us is valid unless it is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of our outstanding common stock unless at least 75% of the members of our board of directors have approved the merger or acquisition in which event the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 51% of our outstanding common stock is required. Except as otherwise provided by the by-laws of a corporation, the shareholders of a corporation do not have to approve a board of directors-approved plan of merger if, among other situations, immediately prior to the transaction, another corporation that is a party to the transaction directly or indirectly owns 80% or more of the outstanding shares of each class of the constituent corporation, or if the surviving or new corporation is a business corporation incorporated in Pennsylvania with articles of incorporation that are identical to the articles of incorporation of the merged corporation, except for changes permitted by a board of directors without shareholder approval under Pennsylvania law;

each share of the merged corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger is to continue to be outstanding or will be converted into an identical share of the surviving or new corporation after the effective date of the merger; and the shareholders of the merged corporation are to hold, in the aggregate, shares of the surviving or new corporation to be outstanding immediately after effectiveness of the plan of merger at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast generally for the election of directors

Under Florida law, generally, a merger, consolidation, share exchange, dissolution or sale of substantially all of a corporation's assets other than in the ordinary course of business must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon unless the corporation's articles of incorporation require a higher vote. Florida law further provides that, unless required by its articles of incorporation, the shareholders approval of a plan of merger if is not required if:

the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation will not differ (except for certain minor amendments approved by the board of directors as provided by Florida law) from its articles before the merger; and each shareholder of the surviving corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger will hold the same number of shares, with identical designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights, immediately after the merger.

FNB's articles of incorporation require an affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of FNB common stock entitled to vote to approve a merger, consolidation or sale, lease, exchange or other disposition, in a single transaction or series of related transactions, of all or substantially all or a substantial part of the properties or assets of FNB, unless the board of directors of FNB has approved and recommended the transaction prior to the consummation thereof.

Pennsylvania law provides that, with respect to registered companies such as us, if a shareholder of a corporation is a party to a sale of assets transaction, share exchange, merger or consolidation involving the corporation or a subsidiary, or if a shareholder is to be treated differently in a corporate dissolution from other shareholders of the same class, or if a shareholder is to receive a disproportionate amount of shares resulting from a division of the corporation, or if the articles of incorporation of the corporation are to be amended so as to result in a shareholder receiving an increased voting or economic share interest in relation to substantially all other shareholders, then approval must be obtained from the shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all shareholders other than the interested shareholder are entitled to cast with respect to the transaction, without counting the votes of the interested shareholder. Such additional shareholder approval is not required if the consideration to be received by the other shareholders in such transaction for shares of any class is not less than the highest amount paid by the interested shareholder in acquiring shares of the same class, or if the proposed transaction is approved by a majority of the board of directors other than certain directors affiliated or associated with, or nominated by, the interested shareholder. Our by-laws further state that an interested shareholder shall include a shareholder who is party to the transaction or who is treated differently from other shareholders and any person or group of persons who act in concert or who are controlled by the interested shareholder.

FNB

Florida law contains a number of provisions that require supermajority approval for certain affiliate transactions. Under Florida law, if any person who together with his or her affiliates and associates beneficially owns 10% or more of any voting stock of the corporation (an Interested Person) is a party to any merger, consolidation, disposition of all or a substantial part of the assets of the corporation or a subsidiary of the corporation, or exchange of securities requiring shareholder approval (a Business Combination), such transaction shall be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the voting shares other than the shares beneficially owned by the Interested Person; provided, that such approval is not required if (1) the Interested Person transaction has been approved by a majority of the disinterested directors; (2) the corporation has not had more than 300 shareholders of record at any time during the three years preceding the date of the transaction's announcement; (3) the Interested Person has been the beneficial owner of at least 80% of the corporation's outstanding voting shares for at least five years preceding the date of the transaction's announcement; (4) the Interested Person is the beneficial owner of at least 90% of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation, exclusive of shares acquired directly from the corporation in a transaction not approved by a majority of the disinterested directors; (5) the corporation is an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or (6) the consideration to be received by holders of the stock of the corporation meets certain minimum levels determined by a formula under Section 607.0901(4)(f) of the Florida Business Corporations Act.

Table of Contents*Fiduciary DutyNSD

Under Pennsylvania law and pursuant to our by-laws, a director shall perform his duties as a director in good faith, in a manner he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, skill and diligence, as a person of ordinary prudence would use under similar circumstances, and shall be entitled in performing his duties to rely in good faith on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, prepared or presented by: (1) one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (2) counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters which the director reasonably believes to be within the professional or expert competence of such person or (3) a committee of the board upon which he does not serve, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the director reasonably believes to merit confidence. Pennsylvania law further provides that a director may, in considering the best interests of a corporation, consider (1) the effects of any action on shareholders, employees, suppliers, customers and creditors of the corporation, and upon communities in which offices or other facilities of the corporation are located, (2) the short-term and long-term interests of the corporation, including the possibility that the best interests of the corporation may be served by the continued independence of the corporation, (3) the resources, intent and conduct of any person seeking to acquire control of the corporation and (4) all other pertinent factors. Our by-laws also permit a director to consider the effects of any action upon employees, suppliers and customers of the corporation and upon communities in which offices or other establishments of the corporation are located and all other pertinent factors. Our articles of incorporation incorporate by reference the standard of care set forth under Pennsylvania law.

FNB's articles of incorporation provide that the board of directors of FNB, in evaluating a proposal for an extraordinary corporate transaction, shall consider all relevant factors, including, without limitation, the long-term prospects and interests of the corporation and its shareholders, the social, economic, legal or other effects of any action on the employees, suppliers and customers of the corporation and its subsidiaries, the communities and societies in which FNB and its subsidiaries operate, and the economy of the state and the nation.

FNB's articles of incorporation further provide that, if the board of directors of FNB determines that such a proposal should be rejected, it may take any lawful action to accomplish its purpose.

Under Florida law, a director is required to discharge his duties in good faith, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation. In discharging his duties, a director is entitled to rely on:

(1) information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if presented or prepared by officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (2) legal counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence or (3) a committee of the Board of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

Pennsylvania law contains various statutory anti-takeover provisions including Subchapters 25E through 25J of the BCL. Subchapter 25E (relating to control transactions) provides that, if any person or group acquires 20% or more of the voting power of a corporation, the remaining shareholders may demand from such person or group the fair value of their shares, including a proportionate amount of any control premium. Subchapter 25F (relating to business combinations) delays for five years and imposes conditions upon business combinations between an interested shareholder and the corporation. Subchapter 25G (relating to control share acquisitions) prevents a person who has acquired 20% or more of the voting power of a covered corporation from voting such shares unless the disinterested shareholders approve such voting rights. Subchapter 25H (relating to disgorgement) requires disgorgement of certain profits made by controlling shareholders following their attempts to gain control of the corporation. Subchapter 25I provides for a minimum severance payments to certain employees terminated within two years of the approval. Subchapter 25J prohibits the abrogation of certain labor contracts prior to their stated date of expiration. Subchapters 25E through 25H of the BCL contain a wide variety of transactional and status exemptions, exclusions and safe harbors. In our articles of incorporation, we have opted out of Subchapters 25G and 25H.

The Pennsylvania laws pertaining to control share acquisitions do not alter the voting rights of any stock of the corporation acquired in certain specified transactions.

In addition, Pennsylvania law permits an amendment to the corporation's articles of incorporation or other corporate action, if approved by shareholders, to provide mandatory special treatment for specified groups of nonconsenting shareholders of the same class. Pennsylvania law also provides that directors may, in discharging their duties, consider the interests of a number of different constituencies, including shareholders, employees, suppliers, customers, creditors and the communities in which the corporation is located. Directors are not required to consider the interests of shareholders to a greater degree than other constituencies' interests. Pennsylvania law expressly provides that directors do not violate their fiduciary duties solely by relying on poison pills or the anti-takeover provisions of Pennsylvania law.

FNB

FNB is subject to statutory anti-takeover provisions under Florida law. Section 607.0902 of the Florida Business Corporations Act restricts the voting rights of certain shares of a corporation's stock when those shares are acquired by a party who, by such acquisition, would control at least 20% of all voting rights of the corporation's issued and outstanding stock. The statute provides that the acquired shares (the control shares) will, upon such acquisition, cease to have any voting rights. The acquiring party may, however, petition the corporation to have voting rights re-assigned to the control shares by way of an acquiring person's statement submitted to the corporation in compliance with the requirements of the statute. Upon receipt of such request, the corporation must submit, for shareholder approval, such request. Voting rights may be reassigned to the control shares by a resolution of a majority of the corporation's shareholders for each class and series of stock, with the control shares not voting.

Florida law further provides that a corporation may, by amendment to its articles of incorporation or by-laws, provide that, if the party acquiring the control shares does not submit an acquiring person's statement in accordance with the statute, the corporation may redeem the control shares at any time during the period ending 60 days after the acquisition of control shares. If the acquiring party files an acquiring person's statement, the control shares are not subject to redemption by the corporation unless the shareholders, acting on the acquiring party's request for re-assignment, deny full voting rights to the control shares. Neither FNB's articles of incorporation nor its by-laws have been amended to include such a provision.

The statute does not alter the voting rights of any stock of the corporation acquired in certain specified transactions.

In addition, there are various provisions in FNB's articles of incorporation and by-laws that may serve as anti-takeover protections including:

- the ability of the board of directors of FNB to fill vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors;

- the supermajority voting requirements for certain corporate transactions;

- the broad range of factors that the board of directors of FNB may consider in evaluating an unsolicited offer including a tender offer proposal; and provisions in FNB’s articles of incorporation which authorize the board of directors of FNB, without further shareholder action, to issue from time to time, up to 20,000,000 shares of FNB preferred stock. The board of directors of FNB is empowered to divide any and all of the shares of the FNB preferred stock into series and to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.

The anti-takeover provisions of Florida law and FNB’s articles of incorporation and by-laws may have the effect of deterring merger proposals, tender offers or other attempts to effect changes in control of FNB that are not negotiated with and approved by the board of directors of FNB. FNB is not aware of effort or intent to gain control of FNB or any effort to organize a proxy contest or to accumulate shares of FNB.

(b) At and after the Effective Time, each Treasury Share shall be cancelled and retired and no shares of Parent Common Stock or other consideration shall be issued in exchange therefor.

(c) At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of NSD shall be closed as to holders of NSD Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time and no transfer of NSD Common Stock by any such holder shall thereafter be made or recognized. (d) At and after the Effective Time, each share of Parent Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and shall not be affected by the Merger.

3.02 Fractional Shares. Each holder of NSD Common Stock shall have the option of enrolling the shares of Parent Common Stock issuable to such stockholder upon the consummation of the Merger in Parent's Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan (the DRSP Plan). (b) After the Effective Time of the Merger, each holder of a certificate (Certificate) formerly representing NSD Common Stock, other than Treasury Shares, who surrenders or has surrendered such Certificate or customary affidavits and indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such Certificate, together with duly executed transmittal materials to the Exchange Agent, shall, upon acceptance thereof, be entitled to a certificate representing the Parent Common Stock into which the shares of NSD Common Stock shall have been converted pursuant to Section 3.01, as well as cash in lieu of any fractional share of Parent Common Stock to which such holder would otherwise be entitled, if applicable. The Exchange Agent shall accept such Certificate upon compliance with such reasonable and customary terms and conditions as the Exchange Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal practices. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 3.03, each Certificate representing NSD Common Stock shall be deemed from and after the Effective Time of the Merger to evidence only the right to receive the consideration to which it is entitled hereunder upon such surrender. Parent shall not be obligated to deliver the Merger Consideration to which any former holder of NSD Common Stock is entitled as a result of the Merger until such holder surrenders his Certificate or Certificates for exchange as provided in this Section 3.03. If any certificate for shares of Parent Common Stock, or any check representing cash and/or declared but unpaid dividends, is to be issued in a name other than that in which a Certificate surrendered for exchange is issued, the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed and otherwise in proper form for transfer and the person requesting such exchange shall affix any requisite stock transfer tax stamps to the Certificate surrendered or provide funds for their purchase or establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such taxes are not payable.

(c) No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time of the Merger with respect to Parent Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time of the Merger shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock represented thereby, and no cash payment in lieu of a fractional share shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 3.02, until the holder of record of such Certificate shall surrender such Certificate. (f) Neither NSD nor Parent shall be liable to any holder of shares of NSD Common Stock or Parent Common Stock, as the case may be, for such shares, or dividends or distributions with respect thereto, or cash from the Exchange Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(h) Certificates surrendered for exchange by any Person constituting an Affiliate of NSD for purposes of Rule 144(a) under the Securities Act shall not be exchanged for certificates representing whole shares of Parent Common Stock until Parent has received a written agreement from such person as provided in Section 6.07.

3.04 Adjustments for Dilution and Other Matters. If prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, (a) Parent shall declare a stock dividend or distribution on Parent Common Stock with a record date prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, or subdivide, split up, reclassify or combine Parent Common Stock, or make a distribution other than a regular quarterly cash dividend not in excess of $.30 per share, on the Parent Common Stock in any security convertible into Parent Common Stock, in each case with a record date prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, or (b) the outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock shall have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities, in each case as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or other similar change in Parent's capitalization other than a transaction in which Parent shall have received fair, as determined by its Board of Directors, consideration for the shares issued, then a proportionate adjustment or adjustments will be made to the Exchange Ratio, the Starting Price and the Average Closing Price, which adjustment or adjustments may include, as appropriate, the issuance of securities, property or cash on the same basis as that on which any of the foregoing shall have been issued, distributed or paid to holders of Parent Common Stock generally.

3.05 Withholding Rights. Parent, directly or through the Exchange Agent, shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of NSD Common Stock such amounts as Parent is required under the Code or any state, local or foreign tax law or regulation thereunder to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment. Any amounts so withheld shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of NSD Common Stock in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Parent.

(ii) The term "Superior Proposal" means any bona fide, unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal made by a Third Party to acquire more than 50% of the combined voting power of the shares of NSD Common Stock then outstanding or all or substantially all of NSD's consolidated assets for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities that is on terms that the Board of Directors of NSD in good faith concludes, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel, taking into account, among other things, all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and the person making the proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation, (A) is on terms that the Board of Directors of NSD in its good faith judgment believes to be more favorable from a financial point of view to its stockholders than the Merger; (B) for which financing, to the extent required, is then fully committed or reasonably determined to be available by the Board of Directors of NSD and (C) is reasonably capable of being completed.

(f) If a Payment Event (as hereinafter defined) occurs, NSD shall pay to Parent by wire transfer of immediately available funds, within two business days following such Payment Event, a fee of $6,000,000 (the "Break-up Fee"), provided, however, that if a Payment Event occurs, NSD shall have no obligation to pay Parent's expenses under Section 9.05(b).

6.09 Certain Policies. Prior to the Effective Date, each of NSD and its Subsidiaries shall, consistent with GAAP, the rules and regulations of the SEC and applicable banking laws and regulations, modify or change its loan, OREO, accrual, reserve, tax, litigation and real estate valuation policies and practices, including loan classifications and levels of reserves, so as to be applied on a basis that is consistent with that of Parent; provided, however, that no such modifications or changes need be made prior to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 7.01(b); and further provided that in any event, no accrual or reserve made by NSD or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to this Section 6.09 shall constitute or be deemed to be a breach, violation of or failure to satisfy any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, condition or other provision of this Agreement or otherwise be considered in determining whether any such breach, violation or failure to satisfy shall have occurred. The recording of any such adjustments shall not be deemed to imply any misstatement of previously furnished financial statements or information and shall not be construed as a concurrence of NSD or its management with any such adjustments.

6.10 NYSE Listing. Parent agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to list on the NYSE, upon official notice of issuance prior to the Effective Date, the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger.

(a) From and after the Effective Time through the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time, Parent (the Indemnifying Party) shall indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director, officer and employee of NSD or a NSD Subsidiary, as applicable, (the Indemnified Parties) against any costs or expenses, including reasonable attorneys fees, judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time, arising in whole or in part out of or pertaining to the fact that he or she was a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of NSD or any NSD Subsidiary or is or was serving at the request of NSD or any of the NSD Subsidiaries as a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including without limitation matters related to the negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement or consummation of the Transaction, to the fullest extent that such Indemnified Parties would be entitled under the NSD Articles and the NSD Bylaws or equivalent documents of any NSD Subsidiary, as applicable, or any agreement, arrangement or understanding that has been Previously Disclosed by NSD pursuant to this Section, in each case as in effect on the date hereof.

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section 6.11, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall promptly notify the Indemnifying Party, but the failure to so notify shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability it may have to such Indemnified Party if such failure does not actually prejudice the Indemnifying Party. In the event of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether arising before or after the Effective Time, (i) the Indemnifying Party shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if the Indemnifying Party elects not to assume such defense or counsel for the Indemnified Parties advises that there are issues that raise conflicts of interest between the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel which is reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnifying Party, and the Indemnifying Party shall pay, promptly as statements therefor are received, the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties, which may not exceed one firm in any jurisdiction, (ii) the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such matter, (iii) the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent which shall not be unreasonably withheld and (iv) the Indemnifying Party shall have no obligation hereunder in the event that a federal or state banking agency or a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that indemnification of an Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by applicable laws and regulations.

(d) The provisions of this Section 6.11 are intended to be for the benefit of and shall be enforceable by each of the Indemnified Parties and his or her heirs.

6.12 Benefit Plans.

(a) As soon as administratively practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall take all reasonable action so that employees of NSD and its Subsidiaries shall be entitled to participate in each employee benefit plan, program or arrangement of Parent of general applicability (the Parent Benefit Plans) to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of Parent and its Subsidiaries, it being understood that inclusion of the employees of NSD and its Subsidiaries in the Parent Benefit Plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans, provided that coverage shall be continued under corresponding Benefit Plans of NSD and its Subsidiaries until such employees are permitted to participate in the Parent Benefit Plans and provided further, however, that nothing contained herein shall require Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to make any grants to any former employee of NSD under any discretionary equity compensation plan of Parent. Parent shall cause each Parent Benefit Plan in which employees of NSD and its Subsidiaries are eligible to participate to recognize, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate in, the vesting of benefits and for all other purposes, but not for accrual of pension benefits, under the Parent Benefit Plans, the service of such employees with NSD and its Subsidiaries to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by NSD, provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits. Except for the commitment to continue those Benefit Plans of NSD and its Subsidiaries that correspond to Parent Benefit Plans until employees of NSD and its Subsidiaries are included in such Parent Benefit Plans, nothing herein shall limit the ability of Parent to amend or terminate any of NSD's Benefit Plans in accordance with and to the extent permitted by their terms at any time permitted by such terms.

(b) At and following the Effective Time, and except as otherwise provided in Sections 6.12(d) and (e) Parent shall honor, and the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be obligated to perform, in accordance with their terms, all benefit obligations to, and contractual rights of, current and former employees of NSD and its Subsidiaries and current and former directors of NSD and its Subsidiaries existing as of the Effective Date, as well as all employment, executive severance or change-in-control or similar agreements, plans or policies of NSD that are set forth on Schedule 6.12(b) of the NSD Disclosure Schedule, subject to the receipt of any necessary approval from any Bank Regulatory Authority. The severance or termination payments that are payable pursuant to such agreements, plans or policies of NSD are set forth on Schedule 6.12(b) of the NSD Disclosure Schedule. Following the consummation of the Merger and for one year thereafter, Parent shall, to the extent not duplicative of other severance benefits, pay employees of NSD or its Subsidiaries who are terminated for other than cause, severance as set forth on Schedule 6.12(b) of the Parent Disclosure Schedule. Following the expiration of the foregoing severance policy, any years of service recognized for purposes of this Section 6.12(b) will be taken into account under the terms of any applicable severance policy of Parent or its Subsidiaries.

(c) At such time as employees of NSD and its Subsidiaries become eligible to participate in a medical, dental or health plan of Parent or its Subsidiaries, Parent shall cause each such plan to (i) waive any preexisting condition limitations to the extent such conditions are covered under the applicable medical, health or dental plans of Parent, (ii) provide full credit under such plans for any deductibles, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees and their dependents during the portion of the calendar year prior to such participation and (iii) waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement that would otherwise be applicable to such employee or dependent on or after the Effective Time to the extent such employee or dependent had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time.

(d) Immediately prior to the Effective Time, NSD shall, at the written request of Parent, freeze or terminate such of the NSD Benefit Plans as is requested by Parent.

6.13 Parent Board and Parent Bank Board.

(a) Parent shall take all action necessary to appoint or elect, effective as of the Effective Time, as a director of Parent the NSD Parent Designee. Such person shall fill a vacancy on the Parent Board as a Class II director and shall serve until the 2006 annual meeting of stockholders of Parent (the Parent 2006 Annual Meeting) and until his or her successor is elected and qualified. Subject to the fiduciary duties of the Parent Board, Parent shall include the NSD Parent Designee on the list of nominees for director presented by the Parent Board and for which the Parent Board shall solicit proxies at the Parent 2006 Annual Meeting. Subject to the fiduciary duties of the Parent Board, Parent agrees that to the extent that the NSD Parent Designee dies or becomes incapacitated prior to the Effective Time, NSD may recommend to the Parent Board a person to serve as successor, and provided that such person is reasonably acceptable to the Parent Board, such person shall be appointed to fill the vacancy so created. If, prior to the Parent 2006 Annual Meeting or the term immediately following the Parent Bank 2006 Annual Meeting, the NSD Parent Designee vacates the seat to which he or she has been elected for any reason, Parent agrees, subject to the fiduciary duties of the Parent Board, to appoint a current NSD director to replace that director. Subject to its fiduciary duties, the Parent Board agrees to recommend the Parent Designee for nomination as a Parent Board Director to the Parent Board Nominating Committee for election at Parent's 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

(b) Parent agrees to take all action necessary to appoint or elect, effective as of the Effective Time, as directors of Parent Bank three current members of NSD's Board of Directors (the NSD Parent Bank Designees) as are mutually agreed by Parent and NSD. Such persons shall serve until the 2006 annual meeting of stockholders of Parent Bank (the Parent Bank 2006 Annual Meeting) and until their successors are elected and qualified. Subject to the fiduciary duties of the Parent Bank Board, Parent Bank shall include the NSD Parent Bank Designees on the list of nominees for director presented by the Parent Bank Board for the Parent Bank 2006 Annual Meeting. Subject to the fiduciary duties of the Parent Bank Board, Parent Bank agrees that to the extent that one or more of the NSD Parent Bank Designees dies or becomes incapacitated prior to the Effective Time, the remaining NSD Parent Bank Designees may recommend to the Parent Bank Board a person to serve as successor, and provided that such person is reasonably acceptable to the Parent Bank Board, such person shall be appointed to fill the vacancy so created. If, prior to the Parent Bank 2006 Annual Meeting or the term immediately following the Parent Bank 2006 Annual Meeting, any of the NSD Parent Bank Designees vacates the seat to which they have been elected for any reason, Parent Bank agrees, subject to the fiduciary duties of the Parent Bank Board, to appoint a current NSD director to replace that director. Subject to its fiduciary duties, the Parent Bank Board agrees to recommend the Parent Bank Designees for nomination as Parent Bank Directors for election at Parent Bank's 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

6.15 Regulatory Conditions. In the event of the imposition of any conditions, restrictions or requirements in connection with the regulatory approvals required by Section 7.01(b) that Parent determines would materially reduce the benefits of the Merger as provided in Section 7.01(b), Parent shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the removal of any such condition, restriction or requirement.

6.16 Exemption From Liability Under Section 16(b). Assuming that NSD delivers to Parent the Section 16 Information not less than five Business Days in advance of the Effective Time, the Board of Directors of Parent, or a committee of Non-Employee Directors thereof (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3(d) under the Exchange Act), shall reasonably promptly thereafter and in any event prior to the 6.17 Certain Post-Closing Matters.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause Parent Bank to establish a new Pittsburgh Region that will consist of Parent Bank's existing Pittsburgh branches and the existing branches of NSD Bank with the exception of the branches that NSD Bank is currently planning to close.

(b) At the Effective Time, Parent shall cause Parent Bank to name Andrew W. Hasley as President and Chief Executive Officer of Parent Bank's Pittsburgh Region to serve in such position in accordance with the terms of his Employment Agreement with Parent Bank.

(c) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause Parent Bank to provide commercially reasonable assistance to the current employees of NSD Bank whose positions will be eliminated because of the Merger and identify employment opportunities with Parent Bank. Such assistance shall include training for positions with Parent Bank, notice of the posting of all new job postings with Parent Bank and priority bidding for open positions with Parent Bank.

TERMINATION

8.01 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Date, and the Transaction may be abandoned:

(a) Mutual Consent. By the mutual consent in writing of Parent and NSD if the Board of Directors of each so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board.

(b) Breach. Provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained therein, subject in all cases to the standard set forth in Section 5.02, by Parent or NSD, if its Board of Directors so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board, in the event of: (i) a breach by Parent, on the one hand, or NSD, on the other hand, as the case may be, of any representation or warranty contained herein, subject to the standard set forth in Section 5.02, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party or parties of such breach; or (ii) a breach by Parent, on the one hand, or NSD, on the other hand, as the case may be, of any of the covenants or agreements contained herein, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party or parties of such breach, which breach, whether under (i) or (ii), would be reasonably expected, individually or in the aggregate with other breaches, to result in a Material Adverse Effect with respect to Parent or NSD, as the case may be.

(c) Delay. By Parent or NSD, if its Board of Directors so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board, in the event that the Merger is not consummated by June 30, 2005, except to the extent that the failure of the Merger then to be consummated by such date shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate pursuant to this Section 8.01(c) to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party, in the case of Parent, set forth in this Agreement.

(d) No Regulatory Approval. By Parent or NSD, if its Board of Directors so determines by a vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board, in the event the approval of any Governmental Authority required for consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been denied by final nonappealable action of such Governmental Authority or an application therefor shall have been permanently withdrawn at the request of a Governmental Authority, provided, however, that no party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.01(d) if such denial shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants of such party set forth herein.

(e) No NSD Stockholder Approval. By Parent, or by NSD provided that NSD shall not be in material breach of any of its obligations under Section 6.02, if any approval of the stockholders of NSD contemplated by this Agreement shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at the NSD Meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

(f) NSD Failure to Recommend. At any time prior to the NSD Meeting, by Parent if (i) NSD shall have breached Section 6.08 in any respect materially adverse to Parent, (ii) the NSD Board shall have failed to make its Approval Recommendation or shall have effected a Change in NSD Recommendation, (iii) the NSD Board shall have recommended approval of an Acquisition Proposal or (iv) NSD shall have materially breached its obligations under Section 6.02 by failing to call, give notice of, convene and hold the NSD Meeting.

(g) Superior Proposal. At any time prior to the date of mailing of the Proxy Statement, by NSD in order to enter concurrently into an Acquisition Proposal that has been received by NSD and the NSD Board of Directors in compliance with Sections 6.08(a) and (b) and that NSD's Board of Directors concludes in good faith, in consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that such Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Proposal; provided, however, that this Agreement may be terminated by NSD pursuant to this Section 8.01(g) only after the fifth Business Day following NSD's provision of written notice to Parent advising Parent, that the NSD Board of Directors is prepared to accept a Superior Proposal and only if (i) during such five-Business Day period, NSD has caused its financial and legal advisors to negotiate with Parent in good faith to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement such that such Acquisition Proposal would no longer constitute a Superior Proposal, (ii) NSD's Board of Directors has considered such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement resulting from such negotiations and has concluded in good faith, based upon consultation with its financial and legal advisers, that such Acquisition Proposal remains a Superior Proposal even after giving effect to the adjustments proposed by Parent and further provided that such termination shall not be effective until NSD has paid the Break-up Fee to Parent.

(h) Possible Adjustment. By NSD at any time during the two-day period following the Determination Date, if both of the following conditions (1) and (2) are satisfied:

(1) the Average Closing Price determined as of the Determination Date shall be less than the product of 0.800 and the Starting Price; and

(2) the number obtained by dividing the Average Closing Price by the Starting Price, such number being referred to herein as the Parent Ratio, shall be less than the number obtained by dividing the Index Closing Price by the Starting Index Price, such number being referred to herein as the Index Ratio, and subtracting 0.200 from such quotient; provided, that if NSD elects to exercise such termination right, it shall give prompt written notice to Parent, and further provided that such notice of election to terminate may be withdrawn at any time within the aforementioned period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if within two business days after the date of receipt of such notice from NSD, Parent notifies NSD in writing that Parent will increase the Exchange Ratio to (A) a number equal to a quotient, the numerator of which is the product of (x) 0.800, (y) the Starting Price and (z) the Exchange Ratio, and the denominator of which is the Average Closing Price or (B) if the Index Ratio is less than 1.0, a number equal to a quotient, the numerator of which is the product of (w) the Index Ratio, (x) 0.800, (y) the Starting Price and (z) the Exchange Ratio and the denominator of which is the Average Closing Price, the Exchange Ratio shall be so adjusted and no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 8.01(h).

8.02 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Parent or NSD as provided in Section 8.01, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect except (i) Sections 6.06(c), 6.08(e) and (f), 8.02 and 9.05 shall survive any termination of this Agreement and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no party shall be relieved or released from any liability or damages arising out of its willful breach of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS

9.01 Survival. No representations, warranties, agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement shall survive the Effective Time, other than agreements or covenants contained herein that by their express terms are to be performed in whole or in part after the Effective Time, or the termination of this Agreement if this Agreement is terminated prior to the Effective Time, other than Sections 6.06(c), 8.02 and, excepting Section 9.12, this Article IX, which shall survive any such termination. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, no representations, warranties, agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to be terminated or extinguished so as to deprive a party hereto or any of its affiliates of any defense at law or in equity that otherwise would be available against the claims of any Person, including without limitation any stockholder or former stockholder.

9.02 Waiver; Amendment. Prior to the Effective Time, any provision of this Agreement may be (i) waived, by the party benefited by the provision or (ii) amended or modified at any time, by an agreement in writing among the parties hereto executed in the same manner as this Agreement, except that after the NSD Meeting no amendment shall be made that by law requires further approval by the stockholders of NSD without obtaining such approval.

9.03 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to constitute an original.

9.04 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and interpreted in accordance with, the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania applicable to contracts made and to be performed entirely within such State.

9.05 Expenses.

(a) Except as set forth in Section 9.05(b), each party hereto will bear all expenses incurred by it in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including fees and expenses of its own financial consultants, accountants and counsel, except that expenses of printing the Proxy Statement and the registration fee to be paid to the SEC in connection with the Registration Statement shall be shared equally between NSD and Parent, and provided further that nothing contained herein shall limit either party's rights to recover any liabilities or damages arising out of the other party's willful breach of any provision of this Agreement.

(b) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by either NSD or Parent pursuant to Section 8.01(b), then the breaching party shall pay, or by Parent pursuant to Section 8.01(e), then NSD shall pay Parent, by wire transfer of immediately available funds, within two business days following delivery of a statement of such expenses, all out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including without limitation, professional fees of legal counsel, financial advisors and accountants, and their expenses) actually incurred by Parent in connection with the Merger and this Agreement.

9.07 Entire Understanding; No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement, the Bank Merger Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreements represent the entire understanding of the parties hereto and thereto with reference to the Transaction, and this Agreement, the Bank Merger Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreements supersede any and all other oral or written agreements heretofore made. Except for the Indemnified Parties' right to enforce Parent's obligations under Section 6.11, which is expressly intended to be for the irrevocable benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives, nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any Person, other than the parties hereto or their respective successors, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

9.08 Severability. Except to the extent that application of this Section 9.08 would have a Material Adverse Effect on NSD or Parent, any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. In all such cases, the parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to substitute a valid, legal and enforceable provision that, insofar as practicable, implements the original purposes and intents of this Agreement.

9.09 Enforcement. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. In the event attorneys' fees or other costs are incurred to secure performance of any of the obligations herein provided for, or to establish damages for the breach thereof, or to obtain any other appropriate relief, whether by way of prosecution or defense, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred therein.

9.10 Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Sections, Annexes or Schedules, such reference shall be to a Section of, or Annex or Schedule to, this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. 9.11 Assignment. No party may assign either this Agreement or any of its rights, interests or obligations hereunder without the prior written approval of the other parties. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

9.12 Alternative Structure. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, until the Registration Statement is declared effective, Parent may at any time modify the structure of the acquisition of NSD set forth herein, subject to the prior written consent of NSD, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, provided that (i) the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of NSD Common Stock is not thereby changed in kind or reduced in amount as a result of such modification, (ii) such modification will not adversely affect the tax treatment to NSD's stockholders as a result of receiving the Merger Consideration and (iii) such modification will not materially delay or jeopardize receipt of any required approvals of Governmental Authorities.

October 14, 2004

The Board of Directors

NSD Bancorp, Inc.
5004 McKnight Road
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15237

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of NSD Bancorp, Inc. (NSD) of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger (the Merger) of NSD with and into F.N.B. Corporation (FNB), pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 14, 2004, between NSD and FNB (the Agreement). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, each outstanding share of NSD Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share, will be converted into 1.800 shares of FNB Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Exchange Ratio).

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of the banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, NSD and FNB, and as a market maker in securities, we may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of NSD and FNB for our own account and for the accounts of our customers. To the extent we have any such position as of the date of this opinion it has been disclosed to NSD. We have acted exclusively for the Board of Directors of NSD in rendering this fairness opinion and will receive a fee from NSD for our services.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, analyzed and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of NSD and FNB and the Merger, including among other things, the following: (i) the Agreement; (ii) the Annual Reports to Stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended December 31, 2003 of NSD and FNB; (iii) certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of NSD and FNB and certain other communications from NSD and FNB to their respective stockholders; and (iv) other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of NSD and FNB furnished to us by NSD and FNB for purposes of our analysis. We have also held discussions with senior management of NSD and FNB regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies and such other matters as we have deemed relevant to our inquiry. In addition, we have compared certain financial and stock market information for NSD and FNB with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry and performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to us or publicly available and we have not assumed any responsibility for independently verifying the accuracy or completeness of any such information. We have relied upon the management of NSD and FNB as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections (and the assumptions and bases therefor) provided to us, and we have assumed that such forecasts and projections reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of such managements and that such forecasts and projections will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such managements. We are not experts in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and we have assumed that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for NSD and FNB are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering our opinion, we have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals of the property of NSD and FNB, nor have we examined any individual credit files.

We have assumed, in all respects material to our analyses, the following: (i) the merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement; (ii) the representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement are true and correct; (iii) each party to the merger agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents; (iv) all conditions to the completion of the merger will be satisfied without any waivers; and (v) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the merger, including the cost savings, revenue enhancements and related expenses expected to result from the merger.

We have considered such financial and other factors as we have deemed appropriate under the circumstances, including, among others, the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of NSD and FNB; (ii) the assets and liabilities of NSD and FNB; and (iii) the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions involving banks and bank holding companies. We have also taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. Our opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof and the information made available to us through the date hereof.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio in the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of the shares of NSD Common Stock.

Very truly yours,

KEEFE, BRUYETTE & WOODS, INC.

Table of ContentsPART II: INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS*Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Florida Business Corporations Act, as amended (the Florida Act), provides that, in general, a business corporation may indemnify any person who is or was a party to any proceeding, other than an action by, or in the right of, the corporation, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation, against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, provided certain standards are met, including that such officer or director acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and provided further that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the officer or director had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In the case of proceedings by or in the right of the corporation, the Florida Act provides that, in general, a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party to any such proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation against expenses and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made with respect to any claim as to which such person is adjudged liable, unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity. To the extent that any officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any of such proceedings, the Florida Act provides that the corporation is required to indemnify such officer or director against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith. However, the Florida Act further provides that, in general, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any officer or director if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his or her actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute: (i) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe it was unlawful; (ii) a transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit; (iii) in the case of a director, a circumstance under which the director has voted for or assented to a distribution made in violation of the Florida Act or the corporation's articles of incorporation or (iv) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a shareholder.

The registrant's articles of incorporation provide that the registrant shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law in connection with any actual or threatened action, suit or proceeding, civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other (whether brought by or in the right of the registrant or otherwise) arising out of the service to the registrant or to another organization at the registrant's request, or because of their positions with the registrant. FNB's articles of incorporation further provide that the registrant may purchase and maintain insurance to protect itself and any such director or officer against any liability, cost or expense asserted against or incurred by him or her with respect to such service, whether or not the registrant would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability by law or under the provisions of this paragraph.

The registrant's By-laws provide that to the fullest extent permitted by law, no director of the registrant shall be personally liable for monetary damages for any action taken or any failure to take any action.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change in such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the

Table of Contents

Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X are not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

(d) (1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(e) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(f) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(g) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
