The purchase price was determined through arms' length negotiation between the Company and Rostelecom. For purposes of this transaction, the approximately 4 million shares were valued at $12.59 per share, resulting in total gross consideration of approximately $107.0 million, including the $46.0 million non-interest bearing promissory note and the $10.0 million letter of credit. The Company will finance the non-interest bearing promissory note and the letter of credit with funds from working capital and borrowing on an anticipated $30.0 million credit facility from Citibank. Pursuant to a Shareholders' Agreement, Rostelecom will be represented on the Company's Board of Directors. The Company will begin to consolidate the financial position and results of operations of Sovintel as of September 17, 2002. The Company was advised by Alfa Bank, an affiliate of the Company, and LV Finance.

Sovintel provides worldwide communications services, principally to major hotels, business offices and mobile communication companies through its telecommunications network in Russia, including Moscow, St. Petersburg, Pskov, and Kaliningrad.
