To Our Stockholders:

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Redwood Trust, Inc., a Maryland corporation (Company), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company (Annual Meeting) to be held on Thursday, May 9, 2002 at 11:00 a.m., Pacific Daylight Time, at the Acqua Hotel, 555 Redwood Highway, Mill Valley, California, and any adjournments thereof. This Proxy Statement, the accompanying proxy card, and the Notice of Annual Meeting are being provided to stockholders beginning on or about April 8, 2002.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Solicitation of Proxies

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of the Company. The costs of this solicitation will be borne by the Company. Proxy solicitations will be made by mail, and also may be made by personal interview, telephone, facsimile transmission, and telegram on behalf of the Company by directors and officers of the Company. Banks, brokerage houses, nominees, and other fiduciaries will be requested to forward the proxy soliciting material to the beneficial owners and to obtain authorization for the execution of proxies. The Company will, upon request, reimburse such parties for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy materials to their beneficial owners. The Company does not expect to engage an outside firm to solicit votes, but if such a firm is engaged subsequent to the date of this Proxy Statement, the cost is estimated to be less than $10,000, plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

Voting Rights

Holders of shares of the Company's common stock (Common Stock) at the close of business on March 29, 2002, the record date, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. On that date, 14,623,022 shares of Common Stock were outstanding. Each share of Common Stock outstanding on the record date is entitled to one vote on each matter presented at the Annual Meeting. The presence, in person or by proxy, of stockholders representing a majority of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. If a quorum is present, (i) a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting is required for election as a director, and (ii) for each other matter, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast with respect to such matter is required. Cumulative voting in the election of directors is not permitted. Abstentions are considered shares not voted, and therefore will have no legal effect on the outcome of matters presented at the Annual Meeting. Any shares held in street name for which the broker or nominee receives no instructions from the beneficial owner, and as to which such broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting authority under applicable New York Stock Exchange rules, will be considered as shares not entitled to vote and will therefore not be considered in the tabulation of the votes.

Voting of Proxies

Shares of the Common Stock represented by all properly executed (or otherwise designated) proxies received in time for the Annual Meeting will be voted in accordance with the choices specified in the proxies. Unless contrary instructions are indicated on the proxy, the shares will be voted FOR the election of the nominees named in this Proxy Statement as directors, FOR the ratification of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's auditors, FOR the approval of the Company's Incentive Stock Plan and FOR the approval of the Company's Employee Stock Purchase Plan.

Management and the Board of Directors of the Company know of no matters to be brought before the Annual Meeting other than as set forth herein. To date, no stockholders' proposals have been received by the Company. However, if any other matters of which management and Board of Directors of the Company are not now aware are presented properly to the stockholders for action, it is the intention of the proxy holders named in the enclosed proxy to vote in their discretion on all matters on which the shares represented by such proxy are entitled to vote.

Revocability of Proxy

The giving of the enclosed proxy does not preclude the right to vote in person should the stockholder giving the proxy so desire. A proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise by delivering a written statement to the Secretary of the Company that the proxy is revoked, by presenting to the Company a later-dated proxy, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Annual Report

The 2001 Annual Report including financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001, which is being mailed to stockholders together with the Proxy Statement, contains financial and other information about the activities of the Company, but is not incorporated into this Proxy Statement and is not to be considered a part of these proxy soliciting materials.

The 2001 Annual Report includes the annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Any exhibits listed in the Form 10-K will be furnished upon request at the actual expense incurred by the Company in furnishing such exhibit. Any such requests should be directed to the Company's Secretary at the Company's executive office set forth in this Proxy Statement.

Employment Agreements

The Company has entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Bull and Hansen. Each agreement provides for a term through December 31, 2004 and is automatically extended for an additional year at the end of each year of the agreement, unless either party provides a prescribed prior written notice to the contrary. Each agreement provides for an annual base salary and for participation in any bonus incentive compensation plan. Each agreement provides for the officer to receive his base salary and bonus compensation to the date of the termination of employment by reason of death, disability or resignation and to receive base compensation to the date of the termination of employment by reason of a termination of employment for cause as defined in the agreement. Each agreement also provides for the officer to receive, in the event that the Company terminates the subject officer's employment without cause, or if the officer resigns for good reason (as defined in the agreement, including the occurrence of a Change of Control of the Company as defined in the agreement), an amount, 50% payable immediately and 50% payable in monthly installments over the succeeding twelve months, equal to three times the greater of such officer's combined maximum base salary and actual bonus compensation, subject in each case to a maximum amount of 1% of the Company's book equity value (exclusive of valuation adjustments) and a minimum amount of $250,000. Each agreement also contains a non-compete provision prohibiting the officer from competing with the Company for a period of one year following termination of employment following the Company's termination of the officer without cause or resignation of the officer for good reason (including a Change of Control). In addition, all outstanding options and Awards granted to the officer under the Company's Stock Option Plan shall immediately vest upon his termination without cause or termination for good reason (including upon a Change of Control). Change of Control for purposes of the agreements would include a merger or consolidation of the Company, a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, changes in the identity of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company (other than due to the death, disability or age of a director) or acquisitions of more than 9.8% of the combined voting power of the Company's capital stock, subject to certain limitations. Mr. Bull's agreement also restricts the Company from entering into a separate management agreement or arrangement, without Mr. Bull's consent, pursuant to which another entity would perform all or a substantial portion of Mr. Bull's duties.

The Company has also entered into employment agreements with each of Messrs. Zagunis, Nicholas, and Sirkis. Each agreement will remain in effect until terminated by either party. Each employment agreement provides for an annual base salary and for participation in a discretionary bonus incentive compensation plan. Each agreement provides for the officer to receive, in the event that the Company terminates his employment without cause, or if he resigns for good reason (as defined in the agreement, including the occurrence of a Change of Control of the Company as defined in the agreement), an amount, payable in three equal monthly installments, equal to the greater of 50% of his then current annual base salary, or 50% of his 1999 annual base salary plus his 1999 incentive bonus). Each agreement contains a non-compete provision prohibiting the officer from competing with the Company for a period of three months following termination of employment.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Prior to January 1, 2001, the Company owned a non-voting preferred stock interest in RWT Holdings, Inc. (Holdings), an unconsolidated, non-REIT, taxable affiliate. Holdings was incorporated and began operations in 1998.

Purchase of Holdings Common Stock. In 1998, Holdings issued a total of 2,000 shares of Common Stock, 1,000 shares to Mr. Bull and 1,000 shares to Mr. Hansen, for net proceeds of $200,000. In 1999, Holdings issued an additional 1,000 shares of Common Stock, 500 shares to Mr. Bull and 500 shares to Mr. Hansen, for net proceeds of $100,000.

In 1998, Holdings issued 3,960 shares of Preferred Stock to the Company for net proceeds of $19.8 million. In 1999, Holdings issued an additional 1,980 shares of Preferred Stock to the Company for net proceeds of $9.9 million. The Preferred Stock entitled the Company to receive 99% of the aggregate amount of any dividends or distributions made by Holdings. The holders of the Common Stock were entitled to receive the remaining 1% of the aggregate amount of such dividends and distributions. The Preferred Stock ranked senior to the Common Stock, which preference entitled holders of the Preferred Stock to receive a $1,000 per share liquidation preference before any distribution was made on the Common Stock. After the liquidation preference, the holders of Preferred Stock were entitled to 99% of any remaining assets. The Company owned all the Preferred Stock of Holdings.

Effective December 15, 1999, Congress enacted the REIT Modernization Act (RMA) which, among other things, authorized REITs to own 100% of the outstanding voting securities of a taxable REIT subsidiary beginning after December 31, 2000. The RMA thus permitted the Company for the first time to own all the Common Stock of Holdings, and thereby be entitled to consolidate Holdings in the Company's financial statements. Accordingly, effective January 1, 2001, the Company acquired all of the Common Stock of Holdings for $300,000 in cash consideration. The Company's Audit Committee determined the purchase price based on an independent appraisal obtained by the Committee and through negotiations with Messrs. Bull and Hansen, taking into account projected cost savings to the Company from being able to consolidate Holdings into the Company's future financial statements and other potential benefits to the Company and its stockholders. Following the Company's acquisition of the Common Stock of Holdings, the Company converted its shares of Preferred Stock into additional Common Stock of Holdings as part of an equity recapitalization of Holdings. Following these transactions, the Company owned 100% of the Common Stock of Holdings.

The transaction has been accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. The assets and liabilities of Holdings were recorded by the Company at their fair market value. The transaction did not have a material impact on the financial statements of the Company. All assets and liabilities of Holdings are consolidated in the financial statements of the Company for all dates after January 1, 2001.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in any of the Company's previous or future filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that might incorporate future filings, including this Proxy Statement, in whole or in part, the following reports of the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee and the Performance Graph shall not be incorporated by reference into any such filings.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

During 2001, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors reviewed and reassessed its Audit Committee Charter as required. This charter, which is included as Appendix A, incorporates standards for audit committees set forth by both the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange. The Company's revised Audit Committee Charter was approved by the full Board of Directors at the November 4, 2001 Board meeting. The Audit Committee will continue to review its Charter and request Board approval on an annual basis, and intends to include the most recent charter as an appendix to all future proxy statements.

The Audit Committee is composed of three directors, each of whom is independent as defined by the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. As presented in greater detail in the Audit Committee Charter, the Audit Committee's responsibilities generally fall within the following four areas: (i) monitoring and reviewing the Company's financial statements, internal controls, risk management procedures, and other relevant policies, (ii) providing an open avenue of communication between the independent auditors and the Board of Directors, including review of the auditors' independence, scope of audit and related fees, interim and year-end audited financial statements, (iii) recommending to the Board of Directors the independent auditors to be nominated, and (iv) informing the Board of any legal, regulatory, or compliance issues that may have material impact on the financial statements.

The Audit Committee met with both management and the independent auditors to discuss the interim and year-end financial statements and reports prior to their issuance. Such meetings included an overview of the preparation and review of such financial statements and a discussion of any significant accounting issues. Management and the independent auditors advised the Audit Committee that all statements were prepared under generally accepted accounting principles.

The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors matters required to be discussed under Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communications with Audit Committees. In addition, the Audit Committee received from the independent auditors written disclosures and a letter regarding the auditors' independence as required by Independent Standards Boards Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. Such disclosures and other matters relating to the auditors' independence were reviewed by the Audit Committee and discussed with the independent auditors. The Audit Committee determined the non-audit services provided by the independent auditors were compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence. The auditors did not provide any financial information systems design and implementation services.

The scope of the audit was discussed with the Audit Committee prior to the audit. The Audit Committee discussed the results of the audit with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee also discussed with management and the independent auditors the adequacy of the Company's internal controls, policies, systems, and management's ongoing progress to further strengthen such areas as appropriate.

Based on its review of the financial statements, and its discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to the full Board of Directors that the Company's audited financial statements for fiscal year ending December 31, 2001 be included in the Company's Annual Report and Form 10-K for filing with the SEC.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (Committee) is comprised exclusively of independent directors. The Committee acts on behalf of the Board of Directors in administering the Company's executive compensation plans and programs for the Named Executive Officers.

The Committee seeks to: (i) attract, develop, and retain highly qualified and productive executives; (ii) motivate executives to enhance the overall performance and profitability of the Company; (iii) reinforce the linkage between the interests of the Company's shareholders and the executives by tying long-term incentive awards to the Company's stock price and its level of common dividend payments; and (iv) ensure that compensation levels are both externally competitive and internally equitable.

The compensation of the Company's executives consists of salary, annual cash bonus awards, and stock options or other long-term incentive awards granted under the Company's Stock Option Plan (which, upon shareholder approval thereof, will be replaced by the Company's Incentive Stock Plan) and, upon shareholder approval thereof, the Company's Employee Stock Purchase Plan. Compensation is reviewed annually. The Committee attempts to set salaries at mid-market levels consistent with the overall responsibilities of the position and the capabilities and experience of the individual. The Committee awards cash bonuses to executives based upon Company and individual performance. In recent years, the Committee's primary Company performance measure has been return on equity. The Committee's primary measure of individual achievement has been progress relative to various operating objectives established at the beginning of the year. Grants of stock options or other long-term incentive awards are based on practices of comparable companies and on the Committee's assessment of the contributions made by each executive to the enhancement of the Company's long-term value.

During 2001, the Committee conducted a detailed review of the relevant executive compensation practices of a number of financial institutions, financial services companies, REITs, real estate companies, and mortgage companies. Many of the companies used for competitive executive pay comparisons are the same as those included in the industry peer group in the Performance Graph that appears later. Based upon this analysis, the Committee concluded that the Company's compensation program is reasonable, appropriate given the Company's achieved results, and generally competitive with the prevailing compensation practices of similar companies.

Mr. Bull (Chairman and Chief Executive Officer) and Mr. Hansen (President) each received a salary of $375,000 in 2001, and are receiving a salary increase of 4% to $390,000 in 2002. The Committee believes that the current salary levels are in the median competitive range for these positions. For performance during 2001, the Committee awarded a cash bonus of $540,017 to each Mr. Bull and Mr. Hansen. These cash bonus awards exceeded the target or normal bonus amounts that are set to approximate competitive median bonuses. The Committee's primary considerations when awarding 2001 cash bonuses above the target levels were: (1) record return on equity performance, (2) strong cash flow generation, (3) improved operating efficiencies and capabilities, and (4) satisfactory achievement of other operating objectives. In December 2001, the Committee granted 45,000 stock options each to Mr. Bull and to Mr. Hansen. These ten-year options were struck at the fair market value of $24.50 per share and have four years of cash dividend equivalent rights (DERs) attached. The Committee believes that the annualized value of these grants is in the median competitive range.

Each of the three remaining Named Executive Officers received a salary of $200,000 in 2001 and an above-target cash bonus. While the salaries approximate competitive median levels, the resulting total cash compensation is above median because of the strong Company and individual performance for the year. These three Named Executive Officers also received ten-year stock options with four years of cash DERs attached, reflecting the same long-term incentive grant structure as the two top officers.

The Committee is aware of the limitations imposed by Section 162(m) of the Code on the deductibility for tax of certain forms of compensation in excess of $1 million per executive. Certain elements of the Company's compensation plans may not meet the tax law requirements for full tax deductibility because they allow the Committee to exercise discretion in setting compensation. The Committee believes that it is in the Company's best interest to retain discretion in determining executive compensation, and the Committee reserves the right to implement compensation plans that might not be fully tax deductible. The Committee believes the cost impact of any loss of tax deductibility was immaterial to the Company in 2001.

ITEM 2 RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Board of Directors has selected the accounting firm of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to audit the Company's financial statements for, and otherwise act as the Company's independent certified public accountants, with respect to the year ended December 31, 2002. The Board of Directors' selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for the current fiscal year is being presented to shareholders for ratification at the Annual Meeting. To the Company's knowledge, neither PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP nor any of its partners has any direct financial interest or any material indirect financial interest in the Company, or has had any connection since the inception of the Company in the capacity of promoter, underwriter, voting trustee, director, officer, or employee. A representative of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will be present at the Annual Meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends that stockholders vote FOR the ratification of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as auditors.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees and expenses billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 and for the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for this fiscal year were $149,250.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees

There were no professional services rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for information technology services relating to financial information systems design and implementation during 2001.

All Other Fees

The aggregate fees and expenses billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for services rendered to the Company other than the services described above for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 were approximately $232,180. These fees were principally for work related to the Company's follow-on equity offerings and for tax accounting services.

ITEM 3 APPROVAL OF COMPANY'S INCENTIVE STOCK PLAN

At a meeting on March 21, 2002, the Company's Board of Directors adopted, subject to approval of the stockholders, the 2002 Redwood Trust, Inc. Incentive Stock Plan (Incentive Stock Plan or Plan). The Incentive Stock Plan is intended to replace the Company's Amended and Restated 1994 Executive and Non-Employee Director Stock Option Plan (Prior Plan) with respect to all future grants of stock-related awards. The Board of Directors believes that the Incentive Stock Plan will be an important and effective means of attracting, retaining, and motivating qualified personnel for the Company.

General

The Incentive Stock Plan provides for the grant of qualified incentive stock options (ISOs) which meet the requirements of Section 422 of the Code, stock options not so qualified (NQSOs and, together with ISOs, Options), stock appreciation rights and limited stock appreciation rights (collectively, SARs), deferred stock, restricted stock, and performance share awards (Stock Awards), and dividend equivalent rights (DERs). As of March 29, 2002, there were thirty officers, directors and employees eligible to receive grants under the Incentive Stock Plan. The effective date of the Incentive Stock Plan will be the date it is approved by stockholders and it will remain in effect unless terminated by the Board.

Purpose

The Incentive Stock Plan is intended to provide a means of performance-based compensation in order to attract and retain qualified personnel and to provide an incentive to key employees, officers, directors, and others whose job performance affects the Company, to encourage proprietary interest in the Company, to encourage such key employees to remain in the employ of the Company, to attract new employees with outstanding qualifications, and to afford additional incentive to others to increase their efforts in providing significant services to the Company. In particular, the Incentive Stock Plan will enhance the Company's ability to grant awards structured to qualify as performance-based under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). The Board believes that performance-based compensation is in the best interest of the Company and, in addition, will serve to preserve the deductibility of related compensation under applicable Internal Revenue Rules described under "Federal Tax Consequences" below. The performance measures that may be used in connection with the granting of awards under the Plan will be based on any one or more of the following: revenue; revenue per employee; GAAP earnings; taxable earnings; GAAP or taxable earnings per employee; GAAP or taxable earnings per share (basic or diluted); operating income; total shareholder return; dividends paid or payable; market share; profitability as measured by return ratios, including return on revenue, return on assets, return on equity, and return on investment; cash flow; or economic value added (economic profit). Such criteria generally must be specified in advance and may relate to one or any combination of two or more corporate, group, unit, division, affiliate, or individual performances.

Administration

The Incentive Stock Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board (Compensation Committee or Committee), which is composed solely of non-employee directors as defined in Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Members of the Compensation Committee are eligible to receive only NQSOs pursuant to grants of stock options to non-employee directors discussed below.

All grants of awards under the Incentive Stock Plan will be made by the Committee and will be subject to the terms and restrictions made by the Committee, subject to the terms of the Plan. The Committee has discretionary authority to select participants from among eligible persons and to determine at the time an award is granted when and in what increments the awards become exercisable or vest. In addition, in the case of Options, the Committee determines whether they are intended to be ISOs or NQSOs.

Eligible Persons

Officers, directors, and employees of the Company, and other persons expected to provide significant services to the Company, are eligible to participate in the Incentive Stock Plan. ISOs may only be granted to the officers and employees of the Company. Under current law, ISOs may not be granted to any director of the Company who is not also an employee, or to directors, officers, and other employees of entities unrelated to the Company. NQSOs, SARs, Stock Awards and DERs may be granted to the directors, officers, employees, agents and consultants of the Company, or any of its subsidiaries, or any other venture in which it has a significant interest. No grants may be made under the Incentive Stock Plan to any person who, assuming exercise or vesting of all awards held by such person, would own or be deemed to own beneficially more than 9.8% (by number of shares or value) of the outstanding shares of equity stock of the Company.

Shares Subject to the Incentive Stock Plan

Subject to anti-dilution provisions for stock splits, stock dividends and similar events, the Incentive Stock Plan authorizes the grant of awards with respect to a maximum number of shares equal to the sum of: (i) 400,000 shares of common stock; (ii) 299,064 shares of common stock available for future awards under the Prior Plan as of March 1, 2002; (iii) any shares of common stock that are represented by awards granted under the Prior Plan which are (A) forfeited, expire or are canceled without delivery of shares of common stock or (B) settled in cash; and (iv) any shares of common stock that are represented by awards granted under the Prior Plan which are tendered to the Company to satisfy the exercise price of options or the applicable tax withholding obligation.

Any shares of common stock covered by an award under the Incentive Stock Plan that is forfeited or canceled, or shares of stock not delivered because the award is settled in cash or used to satisfy the applicable tax withholding obligation, will not be deemed to have been granted for purposes of determining the maximum number of shares of common stock available for future awards under the Plan. In addition, shares of common stock issued under the Plan or covered by awards granted under the Plan pursuant to the settlement, assumption or substitution of outstanding awards or obligations to grant future awards as a condition of the Company acquiring another entity shall not count against the maximum number of shares available for future awards under the Plan.

If the exercise price of any Option is satisfied by tendering shares of common stock to the Company, only the number of shares issued net of the shares tendered will be deemed granted for purposes of determining the maximum number of shares of common stock available for future awards under the Plan.

The Incentive Stock Plan also provides for sublimits on the number of shares with respect to which awards may be granted for ISOs, Stock Awards and Options and SARs. In addition, no more than 500,000 shares of common stock may be the subject of awards to any one individual during any calendar-year period if such awards are intended to be performance-based compensation (as the term is used for purposes of Code Section 162(m)). Any shares that are canceled or forfeited, and any shares subject to such awards that are surrendered, shall count against these sub-limits for purposes of determining the number of shares available for future awards.

The Plan provides that, in connection with any reorganization, merger, consolidation, recapitalization, stock split, or similar transaction, the Compensation Committee may adjust awards to preserve the benefits or potential benefits of the awards.

Term of Options and SARs

Options and SARs must terminate no more than 10 years from the date granted. Options and SARs may be granted on terms providing for exercise either in whole or in part at any time or times during their respective terms, or only in specified percentages at stated time periods or intervals.

Option Exercise

The exercise price of any Option granted under the Incentive Stock Plan may be made payable in cash, with shares of Common Stock owned by the optionee or subject to a grant, or by any other method as determined by the Committee. The Company may make loans available to Option holders to exercise options evidenced by a promissory note executed by the option holder and secured by a pledge of common stock with fair value at least equal to the principal of the promissory note unless otherwise determined by the Committee.

Limited Transferability of Non-Qualified Stock Options

NQSOs may be granted on terms which permit transfer by the optionee to family members or trusts, or partnerships for the exclusive benefit of such immediate family members or any other persons or entities as may be approved by the Committee, subject in all cases to the terms of the Plan.

DERs

The Plan provides for granting of DERs in tandem with unexercised Options. DERs entitle the optionee to receive distributions of cash, stock, or other property, or to accrue rights to future distributions of stock in amounts equal to the value of dividends that would have been paid on such date if the shares of stock that are the subject of the award were outstanding on such date. DERs can be granted in accrued or current-pay form. Accrued DERs accrue for the account of the optionee shares of common stock upon the payment of cash dividends on the outstanding shares of common stock. The number of shares accrued is determined by a formula, and such shares are transferred to the optionee only upon exercise of the related Option. Shares of common stock accrued for the account of the optionee can be made eligible to receive dividends and distributions. DERs issued in current-pay form provide that payments are made to the optionee at the same time as dividends are paid to holders of the outstanding common stock. Current-pay DERs can be made payable not only in cash distributions but also in distributions of stock or other property. The right of the holder of a DER to receive any dividend equivalent payment or accrual may be made subject to vesting of the related Options, the satisfaction of specified performance objectives, or other conditions. Current-pay DERs have been determined by the Compensation Committee to be performance-based compensation because their value and the amount of distributions and accruals thereon depend on the Company's future performance and dividend paying capability, which is influenced by the optionee.

Grants to Non-Employee Directors

Each non-employee director of the Company is automatically granted NQSOs to purchase 5,000 shares of common stock upon becoming a director of the Company, and is also eligible to receive additional grants of NQSOs by the Board on the day after each annual meeting of stockholders. Such grants of stock options to non-employee directors will vest on such date or dates as the Board may determine. The exercise price for such grants to non-employee directors is the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant.

Amendment and Termination of Incentive Stock Plan

The Board may from time to time revise or amend the Incentive Stock Plan, and may suspend or discontinue it at any time. However, no such revision or amendment may (i) impair the rights of the recipients of outstanding awards, without their consent, or (ii) without stockholder approval, increase the number of shares for which awards may be granted under the Plan, modify the class of participants eligible to receive awards granted under the Plan, materially change the performance measures from those specified therein, or extend the maximum term of Options or SARs granted under the Plan.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

General. The following is a brief summary of the principal U.S. federal income tax consequences, based on current federal income tax laws, of the issuance and exercise of awards under the Company's Incentive Stock Plan. This summary is not intended to be exhaustive and does not describe state, local, or foreign tax consequences. Grantees are strongly urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the federal, state, local or other tax consequences of the receipt and exercise of Options and SARs, DERs and Stock Awards under a Plan.

Incentive Stock Options (ISOs). No taxable income will be recognized by a grantee upon the grant or exercise of an ISO. If shares of common stock are issued to a grantee pursuant to the exercise of an ISO granted under the Plan and if no disqualifying disposition of such shares is made by such grantee within two years after the date of grant or within one year after the receipt of such shares by such grantee, then (a) upon the sale of such shares, any amount realized in excess of the option price generally will be taxed to such grantee as a long-term capital gain and any loss sustained generally will be a long-term capital loss and (b) no deduction will be allowed to the Company. Additionally, the exercise of an ISO will give rise to an item of tax preference that may result in alternative minimum tax liability of the grantee.

If shares of common stock acquired upon the exercise of an ISO are disposed of prior to the expiration of two years from date of grant or one year from exercise, generally (a) the grantee will recognize ordinary income in the year of disposition in an amount equal to the excess (if any) of the fair market value of the shares at exercise (or, if less, the amount realized on the disposition of the shares) over the option price thereof, and (b) the Company will be entitled to deduct such amount. Any further gain or loss recognized by the grantee will be subject to tax as capital gain or loss, generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the stock has been held for more than one year, and will not result in any deduction by the Company.

If an ISO is exercised at a time when it no longer qualifies as an ISO, the option will be treated as an NQSO. Subject to certain exceptions for disability or death, an ISO generally will not be eligible for the federal income tax treatment described above if it is exercised more than three months following the termination of employment.

Non-Qualified Options (NQSOs) and Stock Appreciation Rights (SARs). No taxable income will be recognized by a grantee upon the grant of an NQSO or SAR. Upon exercise, however, the grantee will generally recognize ordinary income in an amount equal to the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of the shares on the date of exercise, and the Company will be entitled to deduct a like amount. In the case of NQSOs, the grantee will have a basis in such stock in an amount equal to such fair market value.

Upon subsequent sale of any shares of common stock acquired pursuant to the exercise of an NQSO, a grantee will have capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized upon such sale and the grantee's adjusted tax basis in the shares of common stock. Such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss and will be long term if the shares of common stock have been held for more than one year from the date the option is exercised.

Stock Awards. No taxable income will be recognized by a grantee of Restricted Stock, Deferred Stock or Performance Shares until the taxable year in which the common stock that is the subject of such grant becomes transferable or is no longer subject to forfeiture. At such time, the grantee will realize income equal to the then fair market value of the common stock received pursuant to such grant (less the amount, if any, paid therefore). Any such income will be subject to tax at ordinary income rates. Alternatively, a grantee who makes an election under Section 83(b) of the Code within 30 days of the date of receipt of such grant will include in income on the date of such grant an amount equal to the fair market value of the common stock received (less the amount, if any, paid for such shares), determined assuming they were then unrestricted and could be sold immediately. If the shares of common stock subject to such election are subsequently forfeited, the grantee will only be entitled to a deduction, refund or loss for federal income tax purposes equal to the amount, if any, paid for the forfeited shares.

A grantee generally will have a tax basis in any shares of common stock received that is equal to the amount, if any, included in income as described above. If shares are then sold after the forfeiture period expires, the holding period to determine whether the grantee has long-term or short-term capital gain or loss begins when the restriction period lapses, unless the grantee has made a Section 83(b) election, in which case such grantee's holding period begins on the date of grant. Except as noted below, the Company generally will be entitled to claim a tax deduction equal to the amount that is taxable as ordinary compensation income to the grantee.

DERs. No taxable income will be recognized by a grantee upon the grant of an accrued DER. If the underlying option to which an accrued DER relates is exercised, the grantee will realize income equal to the fair market value of the common stock received pursuant to the DER (less the amount, if any, paid for such stock) at the time of exercise. Any such income will be subject to tax at ordinary income rates. Similar rules with respect to tax basis and holding period as are described above under Stock Awards will apply with respect to common stock received pursuant to an accrued DER.

No taxable income will be recognized by a grantee upon the grant of a current-pay DER. Rather, such income will be recognized when the grantee receives cash or other property, if any, pursuant to such DER. Such income will be subject to tax at ordinary income rates.

Company Deductions. If applicable withholding requirements are met, the Company generally will be entitled to a tax deduction in an amount equal to the ordinary income realized by the participant at the time the participant recognizes such income. However, Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m) contains specific rules regarding the federal income tax deductibility of compensation paid to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and to each of the other four most highly compensated executive officers. The general rule is that annual compensation paid to any of these specified executives will be deductible only to the extent that it does not exceed $1 million. However, the Company can preserve the deductibility of certain compensation in excess of $1 million if it complies with conditions imposed by the rules, including (1) the establishment of a maximum number of shares with respect to which awards may be granted to any one employee during a specified time period, (2) for Stock Awards and DERs, inclusion in the grant of performance goals which must be achieved prior to accrual or payment, and (3) disclosure to, and approval by, the stockholders of certain material terms of the Plan and (4) certification by the Compensation Committee that the performance goals have been met. Assuming approval by stockholders pursuant to this proxy, the Plan has been designed to permit the Compensation Committee to grant and certify awards which satisfy the requirements of new Section 162(m).

The actual number and terms of awards which will be granted in the remainder of 2002 and in future periods is not presently determinable as the Compensation Committee has sole discretion to determine whether to grant awards and the terms thereof.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends that the stockholders vote FOR this proposal.

ITEM 4 APPROVAL OF COMPANY'S EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

At a meeting on March 21, 2002, the Company's Board of Directors adopted, subject to the approval of the stockholders, the 2002 Redwood Trust, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan (Employee Stock Purchase Plan or ESPP) which will allow eligible employees participating in the ESPP to purchase, through payroll deductions, shares of the Company's common stock on a quarterly basis at a discount rate from the fair market value of the shares as determined in the Plan.

General

The Company's ESPP provides for the grant of options (ESPP Options) for the purchase of up to 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock to eligible employees of the Company and its designated subsidiaries. Funds contributed by each participant for the purchase of shares under the ESPP shall be accumulated by regular payroll deductions made during each offering period. As of March 1, 2002, there were 24 employees eligible to receive ESPP Options under the ESPP. The effective date of the ESPP will be July 1, 2002 (Effective Date).

Purpose

The purpose of the ESPP is to provide employees of the Company and its designated subsidiaries with a convenient means of acquiring an equity interest in the Company through payroll deductions, to enhance such employee's sense of participation in the affairs of the Company and its designated subsidiaries, to provide an incentive for continued employment with the Company and its designated subsidiaries, to provide an additional form of tax-advantaged compensation for employees, and to provide a performance incentive that will inure to the benefit of all of the Company's stockholders.

Administration

The ESPP is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors and the ESPP Financial Agent (as defined in the ESPP) to the extent the Committee delegates duties to the ESPP Financial Agent. The Committee, and the ESPP Financial Agent to the extent delegated by the Committee, shall have exclusive authority to determine all matters relating to the ESPP Options and shall have exclusive authority to interpret the ESPP. The Committee and the ESPP Financial Agent administer the ESPP but do not act as trustees or in any fiduciary capacity with respect thereto.

Eligible Persons

Any employee of the Company or the designated subsidiaries is eligible to participate in the ESPP for any offering period under the ESPP except the following:

- (a) employees who have not been continuously employed by the Company or its subsidiaries from the date of hire or rehire or of return from an unapproved leave of absence for a period of at least three months before the beginning of such offering period;
- (b) employees who are customarily employed for less than 20 hours per week;
- (c) employees who are customarily employed for not more than five months in a calendar year; and
- (d) employees who, together with any other person whose stock would be attributed to such employee pursuant to Section 424 (d) of the Code, own stock or hold options to purchase stock possessing five percent or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of stock of the Company, or who as a result of being granted ESPP Options under the ESPP, would own stock or hold options to purchase stock possessing five percent or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of stock of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

For all purposes of the ESPP, the term "designated subsidiaries" shall mean those subsidiaries listed on Annex A to the ESPP or subsidiaries which may in the future be determined by the Committee or the Board to be designated subsidiaries.

Shares Subject to the ESPP

A total of 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock are reserved for issuance under the ESPP. Such number shall be subject to adjustments affected in accordance with capital changes as described in the ESPP. Any shares of common stock that have been made subject to an ESPP Option that cease to be subject to such Option (other than by means of exercise), including, without limitation, in connection with the cancellation or termination of such Option, shall again be available for issuance in connection with future grants of ESPP Options under the ESPP.

Term of the ESPP

Unless the ESPP shall theretofore have been terminated by the Company's stockholders or the Board, the ESPP shall remain in effect until all shares reserved for issuance have been purchased.

Term of Options

The offering periods of the ESPP shall consist of periods not to exceed the maximum period permitted by Section 423 of the Code. Until determined otherwise by the Committee or the Board, offering periods shall commence on each January 1, and continue for twelve months (Offering Period), provided, however, that the first Offering Period shall begin on July 1, 2002 and continue for six months. Each Offering Period shall consist of one or more purchase periods during which payroll deductions of the participants are accumulated under the ESPP. Until otherwise determined by the Committee or the Board, each purchase period shall be a three-month period commencing each January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1, (Purchase Period), provided, however, that the first Purchase Period shall begin on July 1, 2002. The last day of each Purchase Period is the purchase date (Purchase Date).

Options Exercise

Each eligible employee may become a participant in an Offering Period under the ESPP for the first Purchase Period after which such employee satisfies the eligibility requirements and timely delivers an enrollment form to the administrator of the ESPP.

Enrollment by an eligible employee in the ESPP with respect to an Offering Period will constitute the grant by the Company to such employee as of the first day of the related Offering Period of an ESPP Option to purchase on each Purchase Date up to that number of whole shares of common stock of the Company, determined by dividing (a) the amount accumulated in such employee's payroll deduction account during the Purchase Period and ending on such Purchase Date by (b) the Purchase Price; provided that the number of shares which may be purchased pursuant to an ESPP Option may in no event exceed (i) the number determined by dividing the amount of $6,250 by the fair market value of a share of Common Stock on the Offering Date, or (ii) such other maximum number of shares as may be specified in the future by the Board or Committee in lieu of the limitation contained in clause (i).

The Purchase Price per share at which a share of common stock will be sold on any Purchase Date shall initially be the LOWER of (a) 85 percent of the fair market value of such share on the first day of the Offering Period in which such Purchase Date occurs or (b) 85 percent of the fair market value of such share on the Purchase Date (Purchase Price). For purposes of the ESPP, the term fair market value of the common stock on any date shall be the closing price on such date of the common stock reported on the New York Stock Exchange or any national securities exchange on which the common stock is listed.

During a participant's lifetime, such participant's ESPP Option to purchase shares hereunder is exercisable only by him or her. The participant will have no interest or voting right in shares covered by his or her ESPP Option until such Option has been exercised.

Purchase of Shares, Changes in Payroll Deductions and Issuance of Shares

Funds contributed by each participant for the purchase of shares under the ESPP shall be accumulated by regular payroll deductions made during each Purchase Period. The deductions shall be made in $50 increments up to a maximum not to exceed 15 percent of a participant's compensation as such term is defined in the ESPP.

A participant may lower (but not increase) the rate of payroll deductions during a Purchase Period, in which case the new rate shall become effective for the next payroll period commencing more than 15 days after the ESPP administrator's receipt of the authorization and shall continue for the remainder of the Purchase Period unless changed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a participant may lower the rate of payroll deductions to zero for the remainder of the Purchase Period. A participant may increase or decrease the rate of payroll deductions for any subsequent Purchase Period. A participant who has decreased the rate of withholding to zero will be deemed to continue as a participant in the ESPP until the participant withdraws from the ESPP.

No interest will accrue on payroll deductions for the ESPP. All payroll deductions received or held by the Company may be used by the Company for any corporate purpose, and the Company shall not be obligated to segregate such payroll deductions.

On each Purchase Date, provided that the participant has not terminated employment nor withdrawn from the ESPP, the ESPP has not been terminated, the Company shall apply the funds then in the participant's account to the purchase at the Purchase Price of whole share(s) of common stock issuable under the ESPP Option granted to such participant with respect to the Offering Period to the extent that such ESPP Option is exercisable on the Purchase Date. Any funds remaining in the participant's account will be applied to the following Purchase Period. No fractional shares will be purchased.

Amendment and Termination of ESPP

The ESPP may be amended, suspended, or terminated by the stockholders of the Company. The Board may also amend, suspend, or terminate the ESPP in such respects as it shall deem advisable; however, stockholder approval will be required for any amendment that will increase the total number of shares as to which ESPP Options may be granted under the ESPP, or, but for such shareholder approval, cause the ESPP to fail to continue to qualify as an employee stock purchase plan under Section 423 of the Code.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

Under present federal income tax law and regulations:

1. The amounts deducted from an employee's paycheck will be subject to withholding and taxes as ordinary income.

2. If the employee holds any share purchased under the ESPP for more than two years after the date of grant of the ESPP Option and for more than one year after the exercise date of the ESPP Option, then, (a) no taxable income will be recognized by the employee upon the grant or exercise of an ESPP Option, (b) any gain realized upon the sale or other disposition of that share will be taxed as long-term capital gain, and (c) if the option price was less than the fair market value of the shares at the time the ESPP Option was granted, then in the event of any disposition of such shares, there shall be included in gross income as compensation an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the excess of the fair market value of the share at the time the ESPP Option was granted over the option price and (ii) the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the share at the time of such disposition exceeds the price actually paid for the share under the ESPP Option, will be taxed as ordinary income in the taxable year in which such sale or other disposition occurs. If an employee disposes of the share, such amount of ordinary income realized upon the sale or other disposition of the share will increase the employee's tax basis in the share for determining gain or loss upon such sale or other disposition of the share. The Company will not be entitled to a deduction for federal income tax purposes in connection with such sale or other disposition.

3. If an employee disposes of any share purchased under the ESPP within two years after the date of grant of the ESPP Option or within one year from the date of exercise of the ESPP Option, (a) the employee should report as ordinary income for the taxable year in which the disposition occurs the amount by which the fair market value of such share on the date of the exercise of such ESPP Option exceeded the amount the employee paid for such share and (b) the Company will be entitled to deduct such amount.

The actual number of shares of common stock which will be purchased under the ESPP in the remainder of 2002 and in future periods and the prices paid for such shares are not presently determinable as they will depend on the level of employee participation and the future trading price of the common stock, subject to the overall limitation imposed by the ESPP.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends that the stockholders vote FOR this proposal.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Board of Directors knows of no other matters that may be presented for stockholder action at the meeting. However, if other matters do properly come before the meeting, it is intended that the persons named in the proxies will vote upon them in accordance with their best judgment.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS 2003 ANNUAL MEETING

Stockholders are entitled to present proposals for action at a forthcoming stockholders meeting if they comply with the requirements of the proxy rules and the Company's Bylaws. Under the proxy rules, any proposals intended to be presented at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held in the Year 2003 must be received at a Company's offices on or before December 9, 2002 in order to be considered for inclusion in the Company's Proxy Statement and form of proxy relating to such meeting. Pursuant to the Company's Bylaws, a stockholder must deliver the proposal to the Secretary of the Company at the principal executive office of the Company not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to May 9, 2003.
